ESTABLISHED 1833. FORT WAYNE, IND., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1901. PRICE TWO CENTS

OF ROYAL SPLENDOR

KING READS SPEECH HIMSELF

London, Feb. 14.—The first parliament of the reign of King Edward VII. was opened this afternoon by the king in person. His majesty was accompanied by Queen Alexandra, the duke of York and Cornwall, the duke of Connaught and many others of the royal family.

The last state ceremony of the kind occurred in 1861, when Queen Victoria opened parliament, accompanied by the prince consort, and since the death of the latter nothing equal to today's pomp has been witnessed in London in connection with the opening of the legislature. Not since the wedding of the then prince of Wales and Princess Alexandra has the gorgeous state coach used today been seen in the streets of the capital. In this coach today the king and queen rode from Buckingham palace to the palace of Westminster. The route of the royal party, which lay through the mall, the Horseguard's parade, White hall and Parliament street, was guarded by 5,000 soldiers. Thousands of Londoners packed St. James park, bordered the route of the procession and filled windows, stands and roofs.

CORTEGE WAS SHORT.

The cortege was short, but spectacular. The royal coach, driven by eight famous cream-colored Hanoverians, with postilions in red and gold liveries and footmen leading the horses, which were covered with trappings of morocco and gold, was preceded and followed by life guards in full uniform, with silver breastplates and red-plumed helmets, and a small escort of gentlemen-at-arms in historic costumes immediately surrounded the vehicle.

THE STATE CHARIOT.

Next came the massive state chariot, the occupants of which could be plainly seen through the plate glass windows, the king, who was in full uniform, saluting constantly and the queen bowing on all sides.

PARK DENSELY PACKED.

St. James park was densely packed, the west-enders crowding together. The long steps below Carleton house terrace were a solid mass of people. The procession moved through a sea of heads and a continuous glitter of red and gilt. The spectators were thickest around Buckingham palace, pressing against the iron fence for hours before the procession started.

In the meantime the horse guards, with two mounted bands, arrived and formed in line from the palace entrance to the principal gate. The members of the royal family, including the duke and duchess of Connaught, the duchess of Cornwall and York, the duchess of Argylle, the duke of Cambridge, Princess Henry of Battenburg and Prince and Princess Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, drove out in plain two-horse coaches, with two footmen in scarlet cloaks on the box, half an hour before the procession formed.

MASSES UNCOVER.

When the six-horse coaches carrying the household appeared the horse guards' mounted bands struck up "God Save the King," the people uncovered, the state coach rolled out of the archway in the center of the palace and was greeted with a roar of cheering.

The yeoman gentlemen-of-the-guard, with halberds, followed. The horse guards took up positions in front and behind the state coach. The heroes of the crowd were the members of Strathcona's horse, who are just back from South Africa and who came in several four-horse brakes, carrying their carbines and wearing informal slouch hats and khaki overcoats. They alighted in front of the palace and marched down the line to a position a short distance from the procession, where they were drawn up while the procession passed.

The king saluted them most cordially and the people cheered them repeatedly.

All along the route hats and handkerchiefs were waved and the greatest enthusiasm was displayed.

The approaches to the houses of parliament were black with people, who were kept in their places by Irish and Scots guards. The king and queen quickly got out of the state carriage, which came to a standstill at the royal entrance beneath the Victoria tower, and went up the marble stairway leading into the robing rooms.

Outside the robing room, in the royal gallery which leads to the house of lords, were about 500 persons, chiefly women, who had been waiting patiently for hours on stands specially erected for the ceremony. Among them were disconsolate peers and commoners who sought sympathy over their hard luck in being unable to get places within the chamber.

KING DELAYED.

The king was delayed in the robing rooms and the yeoman-of-the-guard and gentlemen-at-arms lining the aisle between the stands shifted their positions uneasily.

Then the robing-room doors swung open and the procession, as previously stated and already formed up, moved slowly ahead through the dingy gallery.

No funeral could have been quieter. The aristocratic spectators were perfectly still.

APPROACH OF THE KING.

The sight of an usher walking backwards heralded the approach of the king. The duke of Devonshire, president of the council, immediately preceded him, carrying in his arms the cushion on which rested the crown.

Lord Londonderry, with equal dignity, clasped the sword of state. The king was half down the gallery before the women remembered to courtesy, and then black skirts rustled ceaselessly and noble heads were bowed.

The pallor of her face and her downcast eyes enhanced the idea of mourning given by the long crape veil hanging down her back and hiding the costly ermine.

The ladies of the bedchamber, walking two abreast, directly behind and deeply veiled, added a touch of sadness to the scene. This was quickly dispelled, however, by the glittering uniforms of the gentlemen-at-arms and high officers of the army

THE DAY'S FEATURE.

Before the end of the procession had passed out of the gallery the king had entered the house of lords and the central feature of the day commenced.

It was 2:15 p. m. before the king arrived in the chamber, where one of the most striking things was the curious reversal of the customary appearance of the sexes.

Heretofore, once the women were sombre looking, in black relieved only by their white arms and shoulders and the diamonds and pearls in their coronets, while the men, usually in black, were radiant with brilliant robes of scarlet and ermine.

The peers and judges occupied the front benches. The monotony of this sea of red and white was varied by the uniform of the ambassadors who, sitting on the bishops' benches, with their sashes of blue, crimson and green of all shades, made a welcome change.

MR. CHOATE PROMINENT.

The United States ambassador, Mr. Choate, as usual, was prominent on account of his plain, evening dress. He was accompanied by Mr. Carter, the second secretary of the embassy, and Mr. Cutting, private secretary of the ambassador, similarly attired. Mrs. Choate was with the ambassador's wives.

All present rose as the royal procession entered, thankful that the long wait was over, and all eyes of this "house of peeresses," as it was dubbed for the occasion, centered on the queen's dress, which, it could be seen in spite of the ermine cape, was of deep black, and glittered with jewels, while across her breast was the ribbon of the Order of the Garter, her husband's latest tribute.

GALLANT TO THE QUEEN.

With a motion of his hand the king signaled that the distinguished gathering should sit, and the queen,

SAMPSON AGAIN

PRESIDENT SENDS MESSAGE TO CONGRESS.

OF SAMPSON AND OFFICERS AND MEN AT SANTIAGO

AS GIVEN MANILA HEROES

SAMPSON AGAIN NOMINATED OVER SCHLEY.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The president today sent a special message to congress urging that the same recognition that had been given Dewey and his officers and men for his services in Manila bay should be given Sampson, commander of the North Atlantic fleet, and his men for services in and about Cuba.

Navy—Rear admirals to be advanced in rank from the 11th day of February, 1901: William T. Sampson, five numbers, to take rank next after Rear Admiral John A. Howell; Winfield Scott Schley, three numbers, to take rank next after Rear Admiral Sampson when advanced.

IN THE SENATE.

Washington, Feb. 14.—When the senate convened today it was decided to take a recess from 5:30 to 8 o'clock this evening, the reading of the District of Columbia code bill to be the only order of the night session.

An amendment proposed by Mr. Shoup, of Idaho, to the sundry civil bill looking to the establishment of a soldiers' home in Idaho induced Mr. Hale, of Maine, to call attention to the fact that the committee on appropriations was being besieged constantly for more and more soldiers' homes, although it is nearly forty years since the close of the civil war.

The general belief was that in forty or fifty years the demand for these homes ought to be on the decrease, and he thought it would be necessary to give some account to the country for the proposed increase.

Mr. Pettigrew declared that the United States was manufacturing material for soldiers' homes every day.

General MacArthur's report for December showed that there were 10,000 more sick in the Philippines than could be cared for properly.

Mr. Hale acceded to this statement and added that every man in the Philippines would be on the pension list in five years.

IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Before the consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill was resumed in the house today some routine business was transacted. Bills were passed to appropriate $63,000 for the construction of a light and fog signal at Point Dume, Los Angeles county, California; to authorize the Louisville and Nashville Railroad company to construct a bridge across the Talahatchie river in Alabama; for the relief of settlers under the public land laws upon lands within the limits of the indemnity land grant to the North Pacific railroad; to authorize the Mobile and West Alabama railroad to construct bridges across the Warrior and Alabama rivers, Alabama; to extend the privileges of immediate transportation of dutiable goods to Milwaukee, Wis.; to authorize Calhoun county, Texas, to construct a free bridge across Port Lavaca, Texas.

The senate amendments to the bill for the creation of a committee to select a site and adopt plans for a memorial statue to General Grant in this city were adopted.

WRECKED BY CRACKSMEN.

Chicago, Feb. 14.—The Chicago and Northwestern station at River Forest, a suburb of Chicago, was almost completely wrecked early today by safe blowers, who used a heavy charge of dynamite. The safe was blown open, part of the wall of the station was torn away and all of the furnishings of the building, including the desks, telegraph instruments and office fixtures, was torn to pieces. Practically nothing of value was secured by the burglars. The explosion shook the whole village. It is supposed to have been the work of amateur cracksmen.

CHARLIE MITCHELL HERE.

New York, Feb. 14.—Charley Mitchell, the English pugilist, arrived here today on the Majestic. He said to a reporter that he had not come over especially to look for a fight, but he said he was not averse to taking on any of the big fighters. He would like to get in the ring with Corbett. He said: "My visit here is for pleasure and to take a look about. Of course I might make a match if the opportunity were afforded. I shall be here for some months. I shall remain in New York for some days and then go to the Pacific coast. Prize fighting in England is dead. It is not because we have lost interest in the sport, but because we have not any good men."

RETALIATION BEGINS.

Winfield, Kas., Feb. 14.—War on the "joints" here yesterday is supposed to have caused the destruction during the night of all but two windows of the United Presbyterian church. It is supposed to have been done by partisans of the "joint" keepers.

SHE TRIES TO END HER LIFE

MAGGIE HAAG FOUND IN DYING CONDITION IN HOTEL.

Girl Has Led a Career of Vice and is Almost Blind From Disease—Now in Hospital.

On Tuesday a young woman took lodging at the Riverside hotel, registering as Maggie Hogge, of Bluffton. She was not seen all day yesterday and last evening, when no response was received to repeated knocking, her door was forced and the lodger was found in bed unconscious. She was finally aroused, but almost immediately was seized with a spasm and Dr. Hammond was hastily sent for. He found her under the influence of some narcotic drug, the exact character of which he could not determine, and after working with her for some time he ordered her removed to Hope hospital, where at this writing she is in an extremely critical condition.

Investigation shows that the young girl did not come from Bluffton on Tuesday, although that is her home, her father being a butcher there. Her real name is Maggie Haag and her father's name is Frederick Haag. She is not unknown to the police, having been arrested last fall immediately after the veterans' encampment, accused of larceny. For a long time after that she made her home with a colored family in the east end, and associated mostly with colored girls and colored men. She was regarded by the police as a thoroughly depraved woman. About two weeks ago she went to the home of F. J. Schippman, at 145 Holman street, and told a story of being sick and without money and succeeded in establishing herself there, where she remained until last Tuesday, when Mr. Schippman told her he could not afford to keep her any longer and suggested that she go to the poor house. She packed up her belongings and left immediately, and was not again heard of until she was found as above described. She is suffering from a loathsome disease and it has affected her eyes so that she is almost blind. Humane Officer Schlaudroff heard of her case last week and on Monday wrote her father at Bluffton, telling him of her condition and saying that she should be taken care of. The father, however, has not answered the letter, and it is understood that he long ago refused to have anything more to with his wayward daughter, who is incorrigible. She is quite young and was at once time very pretty, although a life of dissipation and vice has nearly obliterated all traces of former comeliness. The humane officer is giving the case his attention, and the patient is now under the care of Dr. Sledd, the county physician.

Dr. Sledd stated this afternoon that he had as yet been unable to detect the presence of any drug and was inclined to the opinion that the girl was suffering from very pronounced kidney trouble. The patient has been having frequent convulsions, and is for the greater part of the time unconscious. The physicians this afternoon determined upon the administration of a saline transfusion in the hope of counteracting the conditions. Unless this is successful Dr. Sledd believes her case is nearly hopeless.

BIG FIRE IN CAIRO.

UNDER BAN OF COURT

SCORES PROJECT UNMERCIFULLY

Cincinnati, Ohio, Feb. 14.—Judge Hollister today granted a permanent injunction against the Jeffries-Ruhlin boxing contest, planned to be held in Saengerfest hall tomorrow night. The case will be carried to the circuit and supreme courts and the contest will be postponed until a final decision is reached in the higher courts.

Long before the hour set for court to convene crowds thronged the court house.

Many deputies were on duty to control the crowd and hold them back so counsel and representatives of the press could hear the decision. It seemed to be the general opinion that the injunction would be granted and that the cannon crackers in waiting at the training quarters would not be shot off, for the present, at least.

About the only thing that could be learned from the judge in the consultation rooms in advance was the fact that the opinion of the court was quite long and that it would take some time for him to deliver it.

Brady, Madden and Cook were anxious spectators.

THE OPINION LONG.

Judge Hollister began reading his opinion at 11:30 and it was believed that it would require four hours or more for him to complete the 102 pages of typewritten copy. This caused a postponement until evening of the conference between the promoters and their counsel as to what they shall do.

As the date for the proposed contest is to be indefinitely postponed, there is no longer any talk about the need of militia or any collision between municipal and state authorities.

Brady, Cook and all those connected with the contest, as well as the directors of the Saengerfest association, remained in the court room during the afternoon to hear the full opinion. They did not take much interest, apparently, in the evening conference with the Saengerfest directors, as the outlook is not considered encouraging for their enterprise at any time in Ohio.

STATE SUSTAINED.

Judge Hollister sustained the state on all points at issue. He not only held that courts of equity have jurisdiction against public nuisances, but also that prize fights are public nuisances and that the proposed contest between Jeffries and Ruhlin was to be a prize fight for the championship of the world and not a boxing match for points. The decision was severe in language as well as decisive in its holding. He held the proposed event to be a public nuisance, a moral wrong, a crime before the law and such a menace to society as should be restrained even in courts of equity.

In reviewing the testimony, Judge Hollister complimented Manager Brady in saying that his evidence commanded the respect of the court, but he was severe on Manager Madden as "an insincere and evasive witness, whose testimony regarding the difference between a prize fight and boxing contest could not be given credence."

An analysis of the conditions facing the promoters of the Jeffries-Ruhlin boxing contest today, preceding the decision in the suit for an injunction, failed to reveal the slightest probability of the contest being brought off tomorrow evening, as had been planned.

Owing to the long-drawn-out hearing on the petition for an injunction against the proposed contest and the postponement of a decision in the matter until today, attendance from outside points was made particularly out of the question except by those who might have been willing to take their chances and come anyway. From the long drawn answer of the announcement of the decision it became apparent that, even should Judge Hollister decide that an injunction should issue against a "prize-fight" and not against a "boxing contest," such as the promoters declared they were about to bring off, a postponement would be the only possible way to make the affair a paying one.

It was generally conceded that Governor Nash could not be prevailed upon to swerve from his original determination to prevent the contest by the use of militia if necessary.

MAYOR ACQUIESCES.

When Mayor Fleischmann was informed of the injunction, he said: "The sheriff is the officer of the court and if he calls on me for assistance I will give him the entire police department. The court's decision practically acts as a revocation of the license for a boxing permit. I do not think troops will be ordered here."

GOVERNOR WANTS TO KNOW.

Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 14.—Upon learning of Judge Hollister's decision, Governor Nash at once placed himself in telegraphic communication with the mayor and other local officials in Cincinnati, in order to learn whether they could enforce the decree of the court without the aid of militia. Upon this correspondence, he said, depends his future action.

Judge Peck leading counsel for the defendant, gave notice of an appeal and took exceptions to both points of law and fact in the finding of the court.

WILL HAVE NEW LANDLORD

Will Take Possession in April for Three Years—Will Introduce New Methods.

Harry Harrison yesterday closed a lease with the Spring Beach hotel company for the handsome summer hotel at Rome City. Mr. Harrison will assume control in April and will immediately prepare the snug hostelry for the summer campaign. The lease is for a period of three years and Mr. Harrison expects to have the house open the year round. This will not be the new landlord's first experience in the hotel business. He was for years back of the desk at the Kelly house at Kendallville and afterwards was the lessee of the Rich hotel in this city. He knows all about hotels and his numerous friends have boundless faith in his success at Spring Beach. The house itself is a modern one and its patronage under different managements since its erection has been rather fair under the circumstances, but not near what it should be under more progressive management by a wide-awake hotel man like Mr. Harrison. He has friends without number both in this city and elsewhere who will be glad to give him their patronage, and with his modern ideas of what an up-to-date summer hotel should be his success seems assured.

WILL GIVE ENTERTAINMENT.

The R. F. C. club will give another entertainment this evening, which will be the third of the regular series. The club has taken great pains to have this the best yet given by them and many new features were added to the program. The committee has made arrangements to seat a large crowd and the entertainment will begin at 8 o'clock prompt. The feature of the program is a play, entitled, "A Family Not to Pattern After," and is divided into four acts. Special scenery has been procured for the play nad it will undoubtedly be a great success. The club orchestra has been increased by many new members, who will take principal parts in the play. After the entertainment there will be a social session, to which all are cordially invited.

A pair of horses, evidently run aways, were picked up by the pol last night and quartered at a H barn.

A LOBBY BUMPED

COLUMBUS WORKERS GIVEN A THROW-DOWN.

THE LEGISLATURE'S LABOR

HOUSE PASSES A NUMBER OF MEASURES.

[Special to The Sentinel.]

Indianapolis, Feb. 14.—The house today gave a rough finish to the lobby which has been laboring strenuously to have the state epileptic village located at Columbus, amending the epileptic village bill so as to leave to the commission the power to fix the location of the institution.

The house warped the senate bill limiting railway subsidies, the measure as altered fixing no limit. The house also passed the bill which makes it possible for blacksmiths to take a lien on horse for whose shoeing no pay has been received. A bill was passed empowering three freeholders to make affidavit before coroner in application for an inquest.

There were many minor committee reports in the senate.

CHARTER BILLS PASSED.

Czar Gilbert resorted to his usual gag rule tactics employed in all emergencies to enable the republicans to pass the second Fort Wayne charter bill.

Senator Kell insisted that the bill, which is very long, should be read all through. This was done in order to prolong the reading until the special order came up in order to postpone the passage of the bills a day. The republicans, however, put off the special order until the bills could be disposed of. For an hour the senate listened to the reading, which wore out two reading clerks.

Senator Winfield moved to make the bill a special order for Monday. The republicans moved the previous question, but it was defeated. Senator Kittinger then moved to table Senator Winfield's motion. The nays on the question were clearly in the majority, but Czar Gilbert declared the motion carried and shut off debate without allowing him to call for a revision or giving a chance for an appeal from his decision. A motion by Senator Winfield, to amend the bill so as to make it apply to all cities between 30,000 and 250,000, was ruled out of order.

Senator Winfield spoke against the bill. It was passed by a vote of 28 to 16.

One of the important measures to be successful in the senate was the bill providing for the liquidation of the claim of Vincennes university. This bill was introduced by Senator Purcell, and provides for the issuing of $120,000 of bonds for the purpose of paying the claim.

Among the numerous committee meetings held yesterday was a session of the joint committee on claims of George H. Pennington, of New Albany, who was injured at the state fair grounds while the troops were gathered there at the breaking out of the war with Spain. The committee decided to disallow the claim of Joseph Raible, of Indianapolis, who was injured while in the service of the state about the time the war of the rebellion closed.

IN THE HOUSE.

One of the important measures passed by the house yesterday was a bill by Mr. Bonham providing for the relief of the poor, and an amendment to the measure, which affects the county reform law. The amendment was introduced by Mr. Reser. It allows county commissioners to give township trustees permission to extend as much relief to the poor as is needed. The bill was passed under a suspension of the rules. Another important measure considered in the house was the Gerber bill providing for voting machines. The bill came up on second reading and was passed to engrossment. The house held a brief afternoon session, adjourning a little after 3 o'clock.

VOTING MACHINES.

Mr. Gerber's bill providing for voting machines was taken up on second reading as a special order at the morning session of the house. The bill provides that the governor shall appoint three commissioners who shall hold office for a term of five years, to examine into the capacity, accuracy and efficiency of the machine which shall be recommended by them.

Mr. Whitcomb offered an amendment allowing each commissioner $50 for his services in each case. This amendment was adopted. He then introduced an amendment providing that the company selling the machine shall keep it in repair for five years. The amendment was adopted, after which Mr. Whitcomb introduced a section providing for the printing of a sufficient number of ballots to carry on the election in case the machine refused to work. This section was adopted and made a part of the bill.

Mr. Miller, of Kosciusko, offered an amendment changing the word "may" to "shall," thereby making it compulsory to use voting machines. After considerable discussion the amendment was lost by a vote of 73 to 12.

Mr. Louttit created a sensation by moving to strike out the enacting clause of the bill. Mr. Whitcomb moved the motion be tabled, which was carried. The bill was then passed to engrossment.

MERCHANTS ARE UP IN ARMS

WILL FIGHT ENACTMENT OF A PROPOSED LAW.

Its Provisions Would Compel Them to Refuse Credit in Many Cases —Send a Committee.

Col. D. N. Foster and Joe W. Bell, as the representatives of a large number of Fort Wayne merchants, left today for Indianapolis to fight a bill now before the Indiana legislature and which has been reported favorably by the committee on judiciary. Mr. Foster and Mr. Bell were sent as the result of a meeting of merchants held yesterday afternoon at the rooms of the Commercial club.

The bill in question was introduced some weeks ago, but its full import has not been grasped until within the past few days, and merchants who do a credit business say it would compel them to refuse credit to all who did not have more than $600 worth of taxable property, thus depriving them of business and working a hardship upon honest persons of modest means.

Briefly, the bill provides that in the case of the sale of goods exceeding $50 value on credit, the customary contract stipulation that property right is to remain in the seller until the obligation is fully discharged shall not be valid as to subsequent purchasers or mortgagees in good faith unless such contract or lease is recorded in the office of the county recorder, and that whenever such property is sold or mortgaged before it is fully paid for, it shall be unlawful for the original owner to take possession of it without first tendering to the new purchaser, lessee, renter or hirer the sum of money he had paid thereon, after deducting a reasonable amount for the use of such property, which in no case shall exceed 50 per cent. of the amount so paid.

Furniture, piano, bicycle, hardware, agricultural implement and sewing machine dealers say the law if enacted would practically ruin their business, inasmuch as a large percentage of sales are made upon the credit or installment plan, and that they would be compelled to decline credit to any person from whom an account would not be legally collectable.

Holverstott.—Funeral services of Charles H. Holverstott will be held Sunday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence, 519 South Broadway, and at 10:30 from the West Jefferson Street Church of Christ, Rev. Z. A. Harris officiating.

SISTER M. GENOVEFA.

Ven. Sister M. Genovefa, of the order of Poor Handmaids of Christ, died at 10 o'clock this morning at St. Joseph's hospital, from tuberculosis, at the age of thirty-five years. She was a native of Illinois and one of the most devoted sisters of the order.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 7:45 o'clock from the hospital chapel. Interment at the Catholic cemetery.

DELONE.

Mrs. DeLone, whose home was at Payne, Ohio, died this morning at St. Joseph's hospital. The patient was brought to that institution yesterday in a critical condition.

The remains will be shipped to Payne for interment.

ABOUT THE COURT HOUSE.

Judge O'Rourke was taken sick yesterday afternoon and was obliged to adjourn court. It is supposed to be nothing more serious than an attack of the grip, but it is sufficient to keep him confined to his room. He has appointed R. S. Robertson special judge to try the cases set for trial and the Branstrattor will case is being tried this afternoon.

The Disbro case for violation of the oleomargerine law was dismissed yesterday afternoon by Judge O'Rourke.

No decision has yet been handed down in the Sprunger assault and battery case heard on Tuesday.

Judge Aiken has not yet given judgment in the Tousley divorce case, the evidence in which was submitted yesterday.

In the superior court the case of George Castle vs. the College Place Improvement company is on trial before a jury.

New steel bookcases and filing cases are being placed in the superior court room.

An inventory of the personal effects of John Zent, deceased, has been filed with the county clerk.

Mrs. Cecelia Graffe makes her final report as guardian of Henry C. Graffe, jr., and asks to be discharged.

It has been been concluded to hold an inquest upon James Reihn, supposed to be insane. The commission will consist of Justices Tancey and France and Drs. Harrod and Calvin.

Herman Freedman has filed suit against Salem Bashara on account; demand, $950.

Albert E. Hevel and Josephine H. Curtin were married last evening by Justice France.

Henry Rockermann, an old man living on Holman street, was sent to the poor house this afternoon by Trustee Schirmeyer. He is very old and has been living alone. His wife died years ago and he has lost all track of his children. He was able to take care of himself until quite recently, but is now too weak to do manual labor.

CITY HALL NOTES.

Tomorrow the finance committee of the city council will meet to examine and check up the annual report of the city comptroller.

The board of public works will meet in regular session this evening and will consider several petitions for street paving, mention of which was made in The Sentinel several days ago. The most important matter which will be discussed will be the proposed opening of Harrison street. The matter was postponed a week ago at the request of the officials of the Wabash railway, who telegraphed their inability to be present at that time and requested a postponement until tonight. So far as now known they will be present tonight and the board expects that they will put up a vigorous opposition. Inasmuch as the board has practically determined to open the street across the Wabash tracks the opposition of tonight will not avail much except to make a record to be used when the question of damages comes up for adjudication.

OLYMPIA BAND FAIR.

Another large crowd attended the Olympia band fair in the Tri-State building and the interest in the contests is increasing every day. Last night the special feature was the fancy cake walk by little Misses Marian Purcell and Gladys Haskell. Miss Haskell was dressed as a boy and the manoeuvres of the two little tots was exceedingly interesting as well as artistic. Tonight an extra bill is offered. Besides the regular concert which tonight will be by orchestra, will be some readings by Miss Florence McMillan, a Dutch dialect turn by Professor Mest and a grand prize cake walk by two unknowns and others, the prize being for a $5 gold piece. The dance will be given on the upper floor and will be one of the richest things of the season.

Four lines of railroad now enter the Mexican republic from the United States, and one can make the journey in five days from New York to the City of Mexico in a Pullman car on the regular trains, with only one change, either at Kansas City or New Orleans.

LOCAL LINES.

Mrs. Trier will give a dance and reception this evening in her academy in the Schmitz building.

Mrs. Fentress, of Detroit, will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Page the latter part of this week.

Last evening the Misses Jeanette and Maud Muhler delightfully entertained the Wednesday Evening Pedro club.

Mrs. Frank Cutshall entertained the members of the Amicus club in a most charming manner this afternoon.

Miss Margaret Davidson has accepted a position with Miss Harriet Wilmington in the kindergarten of music.

Rev. E. W. Allen, of the West Jefferson street Church of Christ, is expected home from Saginaw, Mich., on Saturday.

William Lawson, the broker, is able to be about again after an illness that confined him to his home for several days.

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary society of Christ's Lutheran church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The ladies of Grace Reformed church will give an entertainment and supper in the church parlors this evening from 5:30 to 9 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. John V. Reul, of West Lewis street, have issued invitations for the celebration of their fifth wedding anniversary Monday evening.

The regular meeting of the Isaac Knapp Dental coterie will be held this evening in the office of Dr. Shryock. Dr. Shryock will read a paper on the subject, "Crown and Bridge Work."

The lecture by Mrs. White on "Mormonism," to be given at the First Presbyterian church, will be given on Friday evening instead of Thursday as inadvertently stated in these columns yesterday

Miss Ada Moore entertained a merry company of friends at a sleighing party, making the trip to the home of Miss Blaising, at New Haven. Progressive pedro was played there, and refreshments were served.

Rev. Dr. J. A. P. McGaw, of the Third Presbyterian church, left today for Indianapolis to attend a meeting of the Presbyterian synodical committee. Dr. McGaw is a delegate from the Fort Wayne presbytery.

Miss Edith Krapf, of East Lewis street, entertained a number of friends at supper last evening in honor of Theo. Kleinsorge, who left today for Minneapolis to accept a position as manager of the Kleinsorge Clothing house.

Edward Schurman, of Indianapolis, representing the Von Gerichten Art Glass company, is in the city superintending the placing of the art glass in Emmaus Lutheran church. Mr. Schurman will bid for the art glass in the new Third Presbyterian church.

The Knights of Columbus gave a most enjoyable progressive pedro party last evening in their hall. First prizes were won by Mrs. Herman Kappel and Joseph F. Goetz, and the consolations were awarded to Miss Catherine McCann and A. J. Muldoon.

Every lady interested in the collection of handkerchiefs for the Hope hospital handkerchief bazaar is requested to leave her collection at the residence of Mrs. Diedrick Meyer, 22 West Wayne street, not later than Saturday, the 16th. The bazar will be held in the Knights of Columbus hall on the 21st, 22d and 23d of this month.

A party of ladies surprised Mrs F. H. Poole yesterday afternoon and progressive pedro occupied the attention of the party during the time. Mrs. Helen Nelson won first prize; Mrs. Leroy Hartzler, second; Mrs. E. F. Lloyd, third, and Mrs. W. W. Mungen the consolation. The ladies wore hats of antiquated pattern and Miss Celeste Fleming was awarded the prize for having the most grotesque headgear.

At the home of Miss Clara Carnahan last evening the young ladies of the Amateur Musicale entertained a party of about 100 ladies and gentlemen. Mrs. Hugh Keegan, Miss Hanna, Miss Margie Hanna, Miss Olds, Miss Sale, Miss Sweringen and Miss Hughes received the guests. A musical program of great merit was given, which was followed by a buffet lunch served in the dining room, which was decorated in pink and green.

Mrs. Williard Lyon delivered an interesting lecture on the existing conditions in China at the Third Presbyterian church hall last evening before a large audience. Mrs. Lyon and her husband spent five years in China, where Mr. Lyon was secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Tien Tsin. Mr. and Mrs. Lyon and their children escaped from Pekin shortly before the siege of the legations by the boxers and after many narrow escapes from death at the hands of the fanatics, succeeded in reaching the coast. Mrs. Lyon and children are the guests of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. J. A. P. McGaw.

THEY LEFT,

Vamoosed, Cleared Out and Quit.

"My first suspicion that coffee was slowly killing me came from reading in the newspaper the experience of a person suffering from the poison contained in coffee, and how he had been relieved by leaving off coffee and taking Postum Food Coffee.

I had, for a long time, suffered from palpitation of the heart, indigestion, billiousness, and intense headaches and neuralgia.

If I did leave off coffee for one hour beyond the usual time in the morning, I had the most excrusiating headache for the rest of the day, but I made the change from coffee to Postum without the slightest inconvenience, by first having the Postum prepared with a little coffee mixed in it, then the next day a little less and the next day a little less, until in less than a month I was having the Postum Simon Pure, and the cook got so she could make it so strong and delicious that I enjoyed my Postum better than I had ever enjoyed the old fashioned coffee that had been undermining my health and rendering life a burden.

One by one, and day by day, all the old symptoms disappeared. A feeling of tranquil strength and even temper replaced the former unnatural conditions. Sleep was complete and restful.

The change was so complete and radical that I could not doubt the cause, which lay simply in the withdrawal of the poison, and the addition to my diet of a nourishing, healthgiving, liquid food, Postum.

I can give the names of many persons who have been benefitted by the change from coffee to Postum, and am never tired of making converts

How many times we hear people complain of this and that obscure symptom of disease, and wonder what can be the matter with them In nine cases out of ten it is due to nothing in the world but coffee poisoning. I am sure if all those who have ails of one kind or another, serious or trifling, would try the experiment that I did, there would result an enormous aggregate of improvement in health, and coffee would take its proper place among the other poisons."

It is well for people to know that cooks who first undertake to make Postum boil it too little and therefore do not extract the flavor and food value. It is delicious if prepared according to directions, (and that is easy).

This letter is from the cashier of one of the largest insurance companies in the world, who requests that his name be withheld from print; given to enquirers by the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., at Battle Creek, Mich.

WENT OVER THE BANK.

Two young men and a young lady had a narrow escape from serious injury while driving on the St. Joe road yesterday afternoon. The horse driven by them was going at a three-minute gait along Columbia street, and as they turned on the St. Joe road the lines became caught and the animal turned suddenly toward the river. The cutter was overturned and the occupants were precipitated down the steep bank with considerable force, landing perilously near the river, while the horse continued on its way with the cutter wrong side up. The young people sustained no injuries beyond a few bruises and scratches and torn clothes.

FELL FROM A CHAIR.

Mrs. Joseph Palmer, residing on St. Mary's avenue, sustained a painful injury while doing her housework this morning. She was standing on a child's high chair, which gave way under her weight, and she fell to the floor, striking a sharp instrument, which inflicted a painful gash in her right leg. A doctor who was summoned found it necessary to put several stitches in the cut.

Michael and Miss Helen Gilmartin entertained a jolly party of their friends last evening at a sleighing party, chaperoned by Henry Monning. The party stopped at the home of Mr Bachelor, on the Lima road. A dainty lunch was served and the evening was spent at cards and various games, at which Miss Carrie Roth and Joe Haley shared honors.

Iron Molders' Union of North America.

Messrs. Fraser & Chalmers, Chicago, Ill.:

Gentlemen.—The action of the molders, declaring a strike in your foundry, is an assumption of authority which has no official recognition from the IRON MOLDERS' UNION of North America, or Local Union No. 233, of Chicago, Ill., of which they are members. Said action was illegal and a violation of our rules and laws, and the members of the IRON MOLDERS' UNION are authorized to accept employment in your foundry pending investigation of the alleged grievance and decision of conference committee, as provided in the New York agreement. To all members of our union who go to work we will guarantee the fullest recognition and support of our organization. Respectfully yours,

A WHITE PATH.

THERE is only one kind of Cleanliness, but there are many kinds of soap. There is only one destination, but there are many paths that lead to it. If you want the shortest and safest road to Cleanliness, it is paved with Ivory Soap. Neither man nor clothes ever get beyond the cleansing power of Ivory Soap. Its rich, creamy lather extracts every particle of dirt; but it stops at the dirt! Ivory Soap—it floats.

why, it would be hard to say, ere is no doubt that a feeling sual optimism concerning the ion in South Africa has come ondon. It is hinted that news een received from German Afriources, showing the Boers to be end of their resources. There ritish opinion also that the gy of Lord Kitchener has at nactically trapped Botha and , and that an end to resistance eave in sight now within a couple of weeks. All we have to say on the subject is that, hitherto, such rosy visions have generally been precursors of British disasters. However, this time they may be not without some foundation.

A bride of two weeks has accepted a position in the laundry of the Chicago hotel, where she was spending her honeymoon because her husband, in deserting her there, neglected to settle the bill. Having thus accepted the theory that a wife is responsible for her husband's debts the lady will do well to continue in her present work until she has money enough to pay alimony in case of a divorce.

Mrs. Nation has left Chicago to its wickedness, but announces that she is going to return before long and warns the doers of evil that when she comes again the Lord may command her to bring her hatchet. After reflecting upon what she has seen of the character of Chicago and the size of the job, Mrs. Nation may conclude to confine her operations to Kansas, where the "jointist," if not meek and lowly, at least understands his legal status.

The senators who are thick-and-thin advocates of the Nicaragua canal are not disposed to wait further on diplomacy to clear the way for the enactment of the measure providing the ways and means for the digging of the big ditch. What the senate will do is still questionable, but there seems no longer doubt that it will be brought face to face with the proposition to enact the bill which was passed by the house at the last session, regardless of the proposition of the British government for the negotiation of a new treaty.

Rioting, amounting almost to revolution, has spread through Spain, and the authorities do not seem to be strong enough to cope with the situation. The unpopularity of the Infanta Mercedes' marriage into the Carlist Caserta branch of the Bourbon family is great, but it is probable that it is rather the occasion than the cause of the present outbreak, which is one distinctly against the throne and the clericals. It is, in fact, largely a republican uprising, and its political seriousness and consequences may not yet appear.

The assistant commissioner of the London police, in an article written for the Nineteenth Century, asserts that crime and criminals are decreasing and that statistics prove the assertion. But he says that while this is true, professionel crime is on the increase, and his view is that when, after repeated warnings, a man has proved himself to be a moral leper, an outlaw, a criminal in character and habitual practice, to set him at liberty is quite as stupid and as wicked as it would be to allow a smallpox patient to go at large in the community. Commenting on the treatment of criminals in England, the writer says: "A single prison would suffice to hold the entire gang of known criminals who now keep the community in a state of siege, and a single wing of any one of our jails would more than suffice to provide for the band of outlaws who may be described as the aristocracy of crime in England. But while we are ready to sacrifice any number of valuable lives on the battlefield to attain results that are often doubtful and sometimes worthless, the inalienable right of these human beasts of prey, not only to life, but to liberty, is maintained with all the blind fervor of a religious superstition. If some small share of the labor and cost successfully expended upon keeping cholera and the plague from our shores, or even in stamping out rabies among dogs, were diverted in this direction, organized crime might be abolished in a single decade."

COL. BRYAN ON MILITARISM.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 14.—In the fourth issue of the Commoner Mr. Bryan announces that hereafter Friday will be publication day. The leading editorial on the front page of the current issue is entitled "Militarism." It says in part:

"During the last campaign the democrats pointed out that republican success would encourage the party in power to increase the standing army. The republicans evaded the question for the most part, and when they were challenged to meet it resorted to subterfuge and deception. They claimed that the army then in service was made necessary by the war in the Philippines, and called attention to the fact that the increase expired by limitation in 1901. They pretended to believe that the army could be reduced before that time if the republicans won at the election and the Filipinos were assured that there would be no change in the administration. These arguments ought not to have misled any one because the president, two months before hostilities broke out at Manila, asked for authority to raise the army to 100,000.

"The election resulted in a republican victory even more pronounced than the leaders of that party had expected, but the war in the Philippines did not terminate, and then the imperialists came out from under cover and boldly demanded an increase in the military establishment. A bill was introduced, hurried through the house and senate and is now a law.

"If any one will read the bill complete and count the number of generals, colonels, lieutenant colonels, majors, captains, first lieutenants, second lieutenants, adjutants, inspectors, quartermasters and other officers with life tenure, he can understand something of the force which militarism can command in any legislative contest with the taxpayers.

"It is easier to increase an army, especially the official part, than reduce it, and the people have before them a difficult task, but the burdens and menace of militarism can be relied upon to arouse the people. When the awakening comes it will be found that the people who profit by a large military establishment, however powerful in present influence, are insignificant in numbers compared with those who are injured."

Twenty-eight members of the young people's society of the West Jefferson street Church of Christ enjoyed a sleigh ride to the Hubler church last evening. A revival is being held there and Rev. John C. Breckenridge, of Bethany Presbyterian church, occupied the pulpit. After the services the young people repaired to the farm home of Mr. McMaken, where they had an oyster supper.

TO CURE THE GRIP.

Advice of a Famous Physician.

First and foremost, REST.

Take care of yourself. Your already weakened nerves want rest and must have it. If the attack is severe go to bed and remain there. More fatalities result from neglect of this precaution than from any other cause.

Eat sparingly. Your digestive organs are in no condition to take care of large quantities of food.

Take three doses of Dr. Miles' Nervine per day, and if you cannot sleep, take an extra dose at bed time. To further control the fever and to overcome the peculiar aches and pains of grip, use Dr. Miles' Pain Pills. They act quickly and effectually and no bad effects result from their use. These remedies have been thoroughly tested more than a million times and their efficiency is thoroughly established. They never fail to give relief.

Dr. Miles' Remedies can be found at any drug store and they are sold on a positive guarantee that first bottle or package benefits or money refunded.

DIES OF INJURIES

MRS. DAILY, OF BLUFFTON, IS FATALLY BURNED.

LINGERED SEVERAL HOURS IN GREAT AGONY.

GENERAL NEWS OF THE STATE OF INDIANA.

Bluffton, Ind., Feb. 14.—Mrs. Michael Daily, of this city, died at midnight after hours of the most intense suffering as the result of terrible burns received by an explosion of wood alcohol at her home Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Daily arose earlier than other members of the family and started to build a fire in a wood stove in an upstairs room at her home. For this purpose she took a can containing about a pint of wood alcohol, which is used for steam baths. Unknown to the lady there was some fire remaining in the stove and when she threw the alcohol in an explosion instantly followed. The burning liquid was thrown all over Mrs. Daily and her clothing was soon a mass of flames. She rushed into the bedroom where her husband was sleeping, her apparel blazing, the flames shooting high above her head to the ceiling.

Mr. Daily attempted to tear the burning clothing from her body, but failing in this, he hurriedly wrapped bedclothing about her, in this manner succeeding in smothering the flames, but not until almost every portion of the unfortunate woman's body had been burned deeply. Physicians were unable to counteract the effects of the frightful burns and death ensued at midnight. The husband's hands were also frightfully burned in the attempt to save his wife.

FACTORY NOW HAS A CHOIR.

Washington, Ind., Feb. 14.—Two weeks ago L. H. Creager, who operates a stave and heading factory in this city, employed Rev. Mr. Gorby, pastor of the Presbyterian church, to deliver fifteen-minute sermons to the factory hands every morning.

The idea has proved such a success and has such a wonderful influence upon the workmen that Mr. Creager has placed the choir of the First Baptist church upon the pay roll. The choir will assist Rev. Mr. Gorby in the daily religious services at the factory.

JEALOUSY CAUSES MURDER.

Richmond, Ind., Feb. 14.—Miss Anna Jones, a young colored woman, was murdered in cold blood yesterday by Robert Futrell, also colored. The two were lovers and Futrell's jealousy caused the crime. He shot the woman in the head. Futrell then made an unsuccessful attempt at suicide and later fled from the city. He was captured yesterday afternoon near Liberty. He confessed the crime. Futrell's home is at Mound City, Ill.

WOODMEN ELECT OFFICERS.

SAFE BLOWERS SENTENCED.

Huntington, Ind., Feb. 14.—Frank Wall and Clayton Walton (alias Frank Watson), tried in the Huntington circuit court for safe blowing in the Schnurr saloon at Andrews, have been sentenced to the penitentiary. Wall received a sentence of from two to fourteen years and Walton, found guilty of petit larceny, gets from one to three years. Two others thought to be implicated in the robbery have not yet been captured.

REVEALS A LIFE OF CRIME.

Brazil, Ind., Feb. 14.—While revival services were in progress at the Christian church, conducted by Evangelist Updyke, a stranger asked to be baptized, and after receiving religious consolation he told the pastor that he he desired to reveal his life. He said he was noted criminal and claimed that in 1881 he was acquitted at Chicago on a charge of murder, having been defended by Luther Laflin Mills; that during his life he killed three men, stole ninety-eight horses, had made counterfeit money and helped rob several banks in Texas and robbed Senator Culbertson's father in 1880. The strange convert left the church immediately after having told his story. He said he was a plasterer.

BLIND MAN IS FOUND DEAD.

Princeton, Ind., Feb. 14.—J. C. Loomiller was found dead near the graveyard at Hazleton, Ind., yesterday, and near by him was found a revolver with an empty chamber. Loomiller has been living in Hazleton, but came recently from Oklahoma, where he made a fortune. It is known that he had a large sum of money on his person when he left Princeton for Hazleton. He was totally blind. The general opinion is that he was murdered for his money.

BIG OIL WELL PUMPS WATER.

Hartford City, Ind., Feb. 14.—The big oil well struck in Washington township Monday is truly a freak. After flowing a stream of oil six and one-quarter inches in diameter for six hours it suddenly collapsed and yesterday began to pump salt water as copiously as it flowed oil at the start. Unless it changes its output the well, at first thought to be worth thousands of dollars, will be worthless.

CLAIM RINKARD IS INSANE.

Wabash, Ind., Feb. 14.—William Rinkard, a son of John Rinkard, testified in the Rinkard murder case yesterday to the brutality of Rinkard to his wife. It was shown that he had repeatedly whipped her with a blacksnake and had knocked her down and kicked her in the stomach. The evidence of the son was strong on this point.

Mrs. Jerry Fleenor testified she found Rinkard and his wife struggling in the yard and Mrs. Rinkard begged her to get help, as he was trying to murder her.

Attorney Kersey, for the prisoner, made the opening statement for the defense, at the close of the state's testimony. He declared it would be proved Rinkard was insane at the time of the shooting. This is the sole reliance of the defense and if it fails Rinkard will probably hang. Yesterday afternoon Dr. Kimball, surgeon at the Marion Soldiers' home; Dr. Hamilton, John Golding, John Green, Walter Weaver and others testified to their belief that Rinkard was insane. They declared they had known him to talk to himself as he walked along the street and he would indulge in bursts of profanity when alone. The doctors were disposed to think that a man who would attempt suicide was insane.

Baldness Cured Free

A TRIAL PACKAGE FREE.

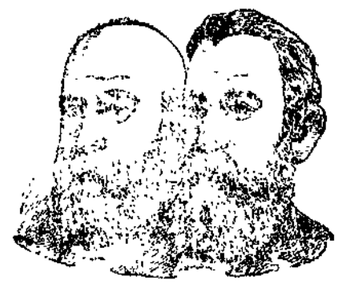
GEO. N. THATCHER, Covington, Ky., Prominent Ky. Official.



PROFESSOR TURNER, of Fairmount College, Sulphur, Ky.

Thousands of bald heads honestly believe there is no cure for baldness. They feel so certain about it they won't try—they imagine theirs is a peculiar case beyond remedial agencies—the Foso treatment they regard as merely "another advertised hair grower." But why not take the chance? Why not have the little faith to send for a free trial? The remedy is pure and harmless, and the words of those who have tried it ought to convince anyone that the Foso treatment has remarkable merit or it could not stand popular scrutiny. Give the devil his due and throw unwarranted disbelief to the winds. Try the remedy that has made hair grow on heads that were supposed to be incurably bald.

The above cuts show plainly what this remedy has done for the above people, one of whom had been bald for thirty years. If you care to write any of them you are at liberty to do so.

The remedy also cures itching and dandruff, sure signs of approaching baldness and keeps the scalp healthy and vigorous. It also restores gray hair to natural color and produces thick and lustrous eyebrows and eyelashes. Don't be sidetracked by foolish prejudice or doubt, but write at once—today—for a free trial. Write to the Altonheim Medical Dispensary, 2633 Butterfield Building, Cincinnati, Ohio, enclosing a 2-cent stamp to cover postage, merely giving name and address, and they will at once mail you a free trial package. It is perfectly harmless and has cured thousands.

RECOVERIES FROM GRIP.

Mrs. E. I. Masters, at her home in Monitor, Ind., used Dr. Miles' Nervine and Pills to cure after effects of grip.

Mrs. A. E. Lopeer, in the little town of Modella, Minn., used Dr. Miles' Pain Pills and Nerve and Liver Pills and was well in a few days.

George J. Flannery was relieved of the awful pains in his head in fifteen minutes by the use of Dr. Miles' Pain Pills. Now he is rapidly recovering at his home in Buffalo, N. Y.

J. C. Helfrey, foreman at the Westinghouse factory in East Pittsburg, had a severe attack of grip, but he used Dr. Miles' Nervine and Pain Pills and was soon back in his place.

Rev. C. Body was in a serious condition at his home in St. Paris, O., but Dr. Miles' Nervine and Nerve and Liver Pills pulled him through all right.

OFFICIAL COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Jan. 21, 1901.

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council.

Gentlemen: I herewith submit to your honorable body my annual report for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1901. It explains in detail every account. You will find by examining this report that the following balances remain unexpended on the first day of January, 1901, to-wit:

General appropriation account	$ 71,315 22
Sinking fund	11,626 73
Street special fund	624 61
Firemen's pension fund	1,692 30
Monument fund	2,213 32
Total	$101,712 89

Considering the tax levy of last year for general purposes being about as low as it ever has been in the history of this city, I want to congratulate the officers of the different departments on the economy practiced thereon. If your honorable body will carefully examine the different accounts of the departments you will find that the strictest economy has been practiced and I think it safe for the city now to set aside $20,000 out of the general funds to municipal electric light plant fund to be credited to said account on or before April 1st, 1901, when the next distribution of taxes will be made. Besides the accumulation of this $20,000 you will find the sinking fund has been increased over par a year ago to $11,628.73.

My reason for suggesting to you for the setting aside of $20,000 to municipal electric light plant fund is this, that I believe that the time has come without fail when the people of this city will demand the construction and ownership of a municipal electric light plant and as I have said in my last annual report all efforts of this government should be directed to this one point, to be ready to construct said plant within the next three years so as to be able to operate the same when the contract with the Jenney Electric Light company expires. The amount of $20,000 with the amount raised by tax levy will give us a net accumulation in that fund for two years past of $34,338.71. I also believe that in order to carry out these suggestions of mine an additional levy of 5 cents per $100 valuation should be made to the electric levy, making the total of that levy about 8 or 9 cents, which would yield an annual income of nearly $30,000 and in three years would give us a "building fund" of very near $100,000 without burdening any taxpayer in any particular way.

I would suggest in connection with this to your honorable body that you appoint a special committee of three members from your body to investigate the amount of delinquent taxes now upon the tax duplicate of the treasurer and try to get at some uniform way of making everybody pay his taxes. The amount delinquent is simply outrageously high, and it is no more than just and right that every owner of personal property as well as the owners of real estate should be compelled to pay his just amount of taxes. This is a serious matter and must be looked into at once because people in general get more careless in paying their personal taxes from year to year and unless a few reminders by the way of levies upon personal property are made it will not be long when real estate has to carry all the burden, while the non-taxpayers carry the election and dictate the amount of taxation. The water works department has paid interest dues on bonds and I hope they will continue to do so.

I have no specific suggestions to make for any department except that I believe that all purchases made for the department or public health should be made in the same fair competition as they are made in other departments.

Respectfully,
HENRY C. BERGHOFF,
Comptroller.

Recommendations concurred in and report recorded and referred to committee on finance.

COMMUNICATION BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council.

Gentlemen: We deem it a necessity to call your attention to the fact that in a number of instances two or more streets within the limits of the city and in various parts of the city bear one and the same name or names so near alike that a proper distinction cannot be readily made, and that in other instances one and the same street bears two names.

It is important that these defects should be remedied before the names of streets are entered upon our new House Number Record, and inasmuch as this work is being pushed as rapidly as possible it is very important that such changes as your honorable body may deem necessary and proper be made as soon as possible. These changes when properly made will greatly simplify the positions of our house number records.

Respectfully,
Board of Public Works,
Per A. M. SCHMIDT,
Clerk.

Referred to committee on streets and alleys.

COMMUNICATION WATER WORKS TRUSTEES.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Feb. 12, 1901.

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne.

We, the trustees of the water works of the city of Fort Wayne, would respectfully request your honorable body to acquiesce with us in drilling two additional ten-inch wells to the depth of four hundred feet north of station No. 1, known as the north side station.

Said wells to be drilled in accordance with terms and conditions in contract entered into with the Harmon Water Supply company, dated July 17th, 1900.

The test now being made by the Shaw-Kendall people has clearly demonstrated that our water supply lays north of said station, and two additional wells in this locality will add very largely to our water supply.

Respectfully submitted,
WM. TAGTMEYER,
WM. KAOUGH,
P. J. SINGLETON.

Referred to special water works committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONTRACTS AND FRANCHISES.

To the Mayor and Common Council.

Gentlemen: Your committee on contracts and franchises to which was submitted the contract of the "American District Telegraph Company" submits the following report: The committee recommends the passage of the ordinance when the contract is amended to provide that rentals "night watch boxes" shall be included in receipts upon which per cent to city is computed, and that no year shall the amount to the city be less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00.)

That there be a limitation as to charges made by company.

For one call box, 50 cents per month.

For four call boxes, 70 cents per month.

For ten call boxes, $1.00 per month.

For one night watch box, $3.00 per month; two additional boxes, $2.00 per month; for four watch boxes, $1.50 per month; for each additional box, $1.00 per month.

And when the contract is so amended the committee recommends the passage of the ordinance approving it.

To the Mayor and Common Council.

Gentlemen: Your committee on contracts and franchises to which was referred the contract of the board of public works with L. B. McIlhenny, report that when the contract is made to read as follows:

This agreement made and entered into this 19th day of November, 1900, by and between the City of Fort Wayne, of Allen county, Indiana, (hereinafter called the city), by and through its board of public works, party of the first part, and L. B. McIlhenny, party of the second part, witnesseth:

1. That the party of the first part by and through its board of public works aforesaid, under and by virtue of the powers conferred upon it by an act of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, entitled "An act concerning the incorporation and government of cities having a population of not less than thirty-five thousand nor more than forty-nine thousand, according to the United States census last preceding, and matters connected therewith, and declaring an emergency," approved March 6, 1893, does hereby, subject to the conditions herein expressed, authorize and empower the said party of the second part, his successors and assigns, and by the terms of this contract consent, permission and authority are by the said city given and granted unto said party of the second part, his successors and assigns, from and after the approval and ratification of this contract by an ordinance of the common council of the city, subject to the conditions hereinafter prescribed and expressed, to lay and maintain a single track for an interurban street passenger railway line, with the right to haul light express, mail and passenger baggage in connection therewith, to be operated by electricity or other improved power to be approved by said board, with all proper and convenient turn-outs, switches, feed wires and poles which may be necessary for the successful operation of a street railway system in, along and upon the streets and avenues of said city, hereafter named and described, and to use, maintain and operate the same, and to charge, demand and receive from passengers, rates of fare as hereinafter provided, for and in consideration of, and subject to the terms, conditions and limitations herein prescribed.

On Columbia street from west line of Harrison street to center of Calhoun street and to connection with tracks of other traction companies having tracks on Calhoun and Columbia streets east of center line on Calhoun street.

The streets and avenues herein named are intended to be streets and avenues heretofore and popularly known by the names herein mentioned, whether such names are in fact the legal designation of such streets and avenues or not.

The routes and lines of said street railway so located as aforesaid may be connected with suitable curves and switches, and feed wire lines may be erected along said route or elsewhere, subject in every case to the approval of the said board of public works.

In consideration of the rights and privileges herein and hereby granted to the said party of the second part, his successors and assigns, upon the considerations herein fixed and expressed, that the said party of the second part agrees and binds himself to the following conditions, to-wit:

2. It is agreed by and between the said party of the second part, his successors and assigns, may charge and be entitled to receive the following rates of fare and no more for each passenger over the age of five (5) years riding upon said cars within the limits herein described, and who shall have paid a cash fare in the sum of five cents. Such cash payment shall entitle such passenger to ride to the end of the line within the city on the car on which he has taken passage. Every passenger car run and operated by said party of the second part, his successors and assigns on said lines, shall be provided with a conductor, who shall collect fares and attend to the comforts and convenience of the passengers upon such car. Each of said conductors shall constantly have in his possession an ample and adequate supply of tickets, to be sold and delivered to all passengers desiring the same, and said second party may charge and be entitled to receive for the same the following rates and no more:

For six (6) of such tickets, twenty-five cents ($ .25); for twenty-five (25) of such tickets one dollar ($1.00).

3. The said party of the second part, his successors and assigns shall build and maintain at some point along the line of their said railroad within the corporate limits of the city a station for unloading and loading express, baggage and mail; that said station be so located that the use of it by said second party, his successors and assigns will not interfere with the free use of the streets and avenues by the public; that party of the first part reserves the absolute right at all times to fix and provide such rules and regulations in the transfer and unloading of passengers, express, baggage and mail from the cars of said second party, his successors and assigns as are necessary to insure the comfort, safety and convenience of the public.

4. The electric system used in the propulsion of said cars shall be the overhead system now in use by other companies in the city, unless some other system shall be mutually agreed upon by and between the board of public works and said second party, his successors and assigns. The entire system used by said party of the second part and all the means, devices and apparatus used in the supply, application and use of its propelling power, in all respects, which shall in any manner affect or endanger the safety of the public, shall at all times be kept open to the inspection of and under the supervision of the department of public safety of said city. As often as may be required by said department of public safety the said party of the second part shall furnish to said department a statement, showing the amount of electro-motive power used and the strength of current conveyed or used upon its wires; and said department shall at all times have the right to inspect and test the same, and order and require any such changes therein as may be necessary to insure as far as possible the safety of the public or to prevent damage to any property, and all damage to water pipes must be paid by said second party, his successors and assigns.

5. The said party of the second part, his successors and assigns, shall pave the space between all rails, including the space between the tracks where there are switches, and for a distance of twelve (12) inches on the outside of the outside of the rails of its tracks, and shall make all necessary repairs in said space under specifications, both as to material and manner, as may be provided by the board of public works, and shall repave the same when necessary and ordered by the said board and keep the same in repair, said paving and repairing to be done under specifications both as to material and manner, as may be provided by the said board under the supervision of the city civil engineer of said city, it being understood and agreed, however, that said second party, his successors and assigns, shall not be required to pave, repave or maintain the portion of the street hereinbefore provided with any different material or in any different manner than shall be required to be paved, repaved and maintained as to other portions of the streets where such paving, repaving and maintenance is herein required. And said party of the second part, his successors and assigns shall also keep in repair that part of the floor of all bridges and culverts crossed by any of their tracks which is situated between the outer rails of said tracks and for a distance of twelve inches on the outer side of such outer rails, and also the space between the tracks and switches where there are switches; and in case of failure on the part of said second party, his successors and assigns to make any such improvement and repairs as aforesaid, either to streets or avenues or bridges, as herein provided, upon reasonable notice by said board, then the said board of public works shall have the right to proceed to make any such improvements or repairs, and the cost of making the same shall be paid by said party of the second part, his successors and assigns, to the city on demand, and the collection thereof enforced as any other valid debt. And it is also agreed by and between said parties that the party of the second part, his successors and assigns, shall at all times keep on deposit in the city treasury to the credit of the said board of public works, the sum of one hundred and fifty ($150.00) dollars, to be designated as an emergency fund. Whenever, in the opinion of said board of public works an emergency arises for the immediate repair of any dangerous defect found to exist in that part of any streets, alleys, avenues or public places, required by this contract to be kept in repair by said party of the second part, and the said party of the second part have failed on notice to immediately repair the same, the said board shall cause said repair to be made at once, and if the said party of the second part shall not promptly pay the bill for the cost of such repairs, when made out and presented at the office of the said party of the second part in said city, then said board may draw the amount of such bill from the said emergency fund, which fund shall be reimbursed by said parties of the second part without any delay and kept upto said amount of one hundred and fifty dollars ($150.00) aforesaid.

This provision as to an emergency fund is in addition to all other provisions herein contained on the subject of repairing streets and is not intended to modify or change any other provisions or penalties of this contract concerning the same.

6. The said party of the second part agrees and binds himself, his successors and assigns, to operate the interurban road over and along the streets and avenues herein designated in said city in such a manner as to render to the public at all times, first-class and sufficient service.

LITTLE MORE SMALLPOX.

Dr. Carl Proegler, the county health officer, this afternoon stated that there were two new cases of smallpox east of Woodburn, but on the Indiana side of the state line. There is also a new suspect in Woodburn and two other exposures there have been quarantined.

SEXTETTE OF NEW SOLDIERS.

Six more recruits for the United States army regular service will leave Fort Wayne tomorrow for Indianapolis, where they will be assigned to the different regiments. They are: Carl C. Aker, Fort Wayne; Joseph Smith, New Haven; Clinton E. Nichols, Auburn; Arthur E. Towne, Auburn; Bert Baker, Auburn; Lyman M. Bell, Columbia City.

BROKE QUARANTINE LAW.

Theodore Sorg and Mrs. Sorg, whose first name was unknown at the time of the making of the affidavit, will be tried in Justice Bullerman's office this afternoon for violation of the quarantine laws. Health Officer Brokaw makes the complaint, which charges Mrs. Sorg with having torn down a quarantine card placed on her residence and charges Theodore Sorg with having left his home and circulated on the highway after being quarantined against scarlet fever.

Mr. William Steller, of 221 West Superior street, says: "I was broken down in health for four years, caused me enough suffering to make any man think life was not worth living. The greatest pain I felt from them was in my head and this in addition to the backache nearly drove me crazy. The kidney secretions were highly colored and other symptoms of disordered kidneys existed. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Meyer & Co.'s drug store and they did me a world of good. They were the only remedy that relieved me and at the same time did not leave any harmful after effect."

TEDDY SOON TO RETURN.

Denver, Col., Feb. 14.—Vice President-elect Theodore Roosevelt, who has been hunting for several weeks in northwestern Colorado, will reach Rifle, Col., Saturday and will there board a Colorado Midland train to begin his homeward journey. It is not known whether he will accept the invitation extended to him to stop in Denver and address the legislature.

Dr. N. E. Wenger and Miss Maude Wenger will go to Columbia City this evening to attend the banquet and exercises in honor of the forty-fifth anniversary of the Masonic lodge there.

OF ROYAL SPLENDOR

whom his majesty had gallantly led to the throne by the hand, was the first to do so.

Her example was followed on all sides.

Then the gentleman usher of the black rod, after a deep abelsance, hurried to the house of commons and, within a few minutes the speaker, wearing his state robes and attended by the sergeant-at-arms and chaplain, appeared at the bar.

OATH ADMINISTERED.

In solemn tones the lord chancellor administered the oath, with the king sitting. The lord chancellor then, kneeling, handed the king a roll, which he signed, after which all present once more stood up and taking off his field marshal's plumed hat, rose and in clear, ringing tones, read his speech. Then he turned to the queen, helped her to her feet and out of the chamber, preceded by the procession through the royal gallery again and into the robing room, whence, within a few minutes they emerged, entered the state carriage and drove away amid a tumult of cheers to Buckingham palace.

The procession speedily traversed the short route, to the accompaniment of roars and shouts, and reached the royal entrance to the palace of Westminster, beneath the Victoria tower, at the appointed time. There the great officers of state and the others who were to take part in the ceremony had assembled in order to receive their majesties.

SMALL CHAMBER FILLED.

The diminutive chamber was filled to its capacity by the highest and noblest of the kingdom, the greater part of the floor space being occupied by peeresses and other ladies introduced by peers.

The United States ambassador, Joseph H. Choate, and the other ambassadors occupied a special enclosure behind the bench of the bishops.

The whole scene was brilliant in the extreme. Diamonds flashed out of the folds of the black dresses of the ladies, while color was added to the scene by the robes of the peers and the state officials.

By 1 o'clock the scene in the old palace yard was one of great animation, owing to the constant arrival of carriages containing royal personages and other distinguished people.

STATE COACHES USED.

The rich uniforms of the diplomatic corps, the robes of the officers of state and the military and naval uniforms formed a brilliant medley which gradually disappeared through the entrances of the respective houses.

The king and the robed procession advanced to the house of lords in the order already detailed. As soon as his majesty was enthroned the lord great chamberlain received the royal command to summon the members of the house of commons to hear the speech from the throne.

The black robed gentleman usher of the black rod (Sir Michael Biddiuppe) reached the house of commons at 2:20 p. m., and the members, headed by the speaker (Mr. William Court Gully), proceeded to the house of lords.

THE KING'S SPEECH.

The king's speech was as follows:

My Lords and Gentlemen: I address you for the first time at a moment of national sorrow, when the whole country is mourning the irreparable loss we have so recently sustained, and which has fallen with peculiar severity on myself. My beloved mother during her long and glorious reign has set an example before the world of what a monarch should be. It is my earnest desire to walk in her footsteps.

Amid this public and private grief it is satisfactory to me to be able to assure you that my relations with the other powers continue friendly.

The war in South Africa is not yet entirely terminated, but the capitals of the enemy and his principal lines of communication are in my possession, and measures have been taken which will, I trust enable my troops to deal effectually with the forces by which they are still opposed.

I greatly regret the loss of life and expenditure of treasure due to the fruitless guerilla warfare maintained by Boer partisans in the former territories of the two republics. Their early submission is much desired in their own interests, as until it takes place it will be impossible for me to establish in those colonies the institutions which will secure the equal rights of all the white inhabitants and protection and justice for the native population.

The capture of Pekin by the allied forces and the happy release of those who were besieged in the legations, results to which my Indian troops and my naval forces largely contributed, have been followed by the submission of the Chinese government to the demands insisted on by the powers. Negotiations are proceeding regarding the manner in which compliance with these demands is to be effected.

The establishment of the Australian commonwealth was proclaimed at Sydney January 1 with many manifestations of popular enthusiasm and rejoicing. My deeply beloved and lamented mother had assented to the visit of the duke of Cornwall and York to open the first parliament of the new commonwealth in her name. A separation from my son, especially at such a moment, cannot be otherwise than deeply painful, but I still desire to give effect to her late majesty's wishes, and as evidence of her interest, as well as of my own, in all that concerns the welfare of my subjects beyond the seas, I have decided that the visit to Australia shall not be abandoned and shall be extended to New Zealand and the dominion of Canada.

The prolongation of the hostilities in South Africa has led me to make further call on the patriotism and devotion of Canada and Australia. I rejoice that my request has met with a prompt and loyal response, and large additional contingents from those colonies will embark for the seat of war at an early date.

The expedition organized for the suppression of the rebellion in Ashanti was crowned with signal success. The endurance and gallantry of my native troops, ably commanded by Sir James Willcox and led by brother officers, have overcome both the stubborn resistance of the most warlike tribes of West Africa and the exceptional difficulties of the climate and season of the country in which the operations were conducted.

The garrison of Coomassie, which was besieged by the enemy, has been relieved after a prolonged and gallant defense. The principal kings have surrendered and the chief impediment to the progress of the development of this rich portion of my West Africa possessions has now, I hope, been finally removed.

The suffering and mortality caused by the prolonged drought in a large portion of my Indian empire have been greatly allieviated by a seasonable rainfall, but I regret to add that in parts of the Bombay presidency distress of a serious character still continues, which my officers are using every measure to mitigate.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons: The estimates for the year will be laid before you. Every care has been taken to limit their amount, but the naval and military requirements of the country and especially the outlay consequent upon the South African war has involved an inevitable increase.

The demise of the crown renders it necessary that renewed provision shall be made for the civil list. I place unreservedly at your disposal those hereditary revenues which were so placed by my predecessor and I have commanded that the papers necessary for a full consideration of the subject shall be laid before you.

My Lords and Gentlemen: Proposals will be submitted to your judgment for increasing the efficiency of my military forces.

Certain changes in the constitution of the court of final appeal are rendered necessary in consequence of the increased resort to it which has resulted from the expansion of the empire during the last two generations.

Legislation will be proposed to you for the amendment of the law relating to education.

Legislation has been prepared and if the time at your disposal proves to be adequate, it will be laid before you, for the purpose of regulating the voluntary sale by landlords to occupying tenants in Ireland, for amending and consolidating the factory and workshop acts, for the better administration of the law respecting lunatics, for amending the public health acts in regard to water supplies, for the prevention of drunkenness in licensed houses and public places, and for amending the law of literary copyright.

I pray that Almighty God may continue to guide you in the conduct of your deliberations and that He may bless them with success.

The king wore a field marshal's chapeau when he read his speech. His voice was clear and firm. After the reading of the speech the procession was reformed, the king proceeded to the robing room, unrobed, and left Westminster in the state carriage in the same order as it entered.

COMPETITION FOR SEATS.

The opening of the first parliament of the new reign witnessed the usual competition on the part of members of the house of commons to secure seats. Despite the arctic weather the members stole up to the doors of parliament house shortly after midnight. J. H. Johnstone, conservative member for the northwest, or Horsham, division of Sussex, secured the place of honor at the head of the queue. By daybreak a score of members had assembled, and after that time the arrivals were in rapid succession.

At 10:30 o'clock a detachment of yeoman of the guard from the tower, in their quaint uniforms and carrying halberds, arrived and conducted the customary search of the vaults for imaginary conspirators with the usual result.

NEWS IN POLICE CIRCLES.

Jack Devany was the only thoughtless person found in Fort Wayne last night. Jack had been out making the rounds and ran across the Carrie Nation brigade advertising a dance, and thinking it was the real thing and that all the booze joints would be smashed before morning he started to lay in a load before the supply ran out. He got pretty decently tanked and was then careless enough to march right into the arms of the police. Jack has had a pretty fair record for about a year, and on his solemn promise to err no more the mayor allowed him to depart in peace.

John Reibn returned from Richmond last night, having in charge his son, James, who was found in the quaker city day before yesterday in a demented condition. In response to a telegram from the chief of police at Richmond an officer was sent to the train to meet them on their arrival at this city. The young man was taken to his home, and as his condition is not alarming, it is thought a week or two of rest and careful nursing will bring him out all right.

Carl Albanns reports the loss of a valuable setter dog.

The fire department was called out last night and made a run to the wholesale house of Moellering Bros. & Millard, where a fire was supposed to be in progress. It proved a false alarm. The roof of the building is covered with snow and the moon shone upon it in such a manner as to make the reflection look exactly like a huge column of smoke, which so disturbed a passer-by that he sent in an alarm.

The patrol wagon was called to the corner of Lillie and Creighton avenue last night, where a row was reported to be in progress. When the officers arrived there was no sign of a disturbance and no arrests were made.

Humane Officer Schlaudroff loves a joke about as well as anybody and frequently turns a trick on the boys at the police station. This moning when the tables were turned on him he promptly acknowledged the corn and cigars were brought out forthwith.

Mrs. E. P. Green has recovered from an attack of the grip at Canaseraga, N. Y., by the use of Dr. Miles' Pain Pills.

Among the victims of the grip epidemic now so prevalent, F. Coyle is now recovering at Canton, O., by the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine and Pills.

W. E. Nihells, of St. Louis, Mo., who was down with grip, is reported much improved. He used Dr. Miles' Nervine and Pills.

The friends of Mrs. L. Denison will be pleased to learn of her recovery from grip at her home in Bay City, Mich., through the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine and Pills.

Everybody says that J. W. Udy is looking splendid since his recovery from the grip at his home in Des Moines, Iowa. They all know that Dr. Miles' Nervine was what cured him.

Prosecuting Attorney Charles L. DeWaele, who has passed the three-score mile stone, had a time with the grip, but when seen at his home in Roscommon, Mich., the other day, he said Dr. Miles' Nervine was what cured him.

At nearly three score and ten Mrs. Galen Humphrey was fighting against odds when the grip attacked he, but she took Dr. Miles' Nervine and now her neighbors in Wareham, Mass., remark on how well she is looking.

After an illness of five weeks from the grip, Mrs. Harriett Jackson is again about and looking fine. She began taking Dr. Miles Nervine after the fourth week. Her home is in Bowling Green, Mo.

ROYAL PAIR WEDS

PRINCESS MERCEDES MADE BRIDE OF A BOURBON.

THE CEREMONY BRILLIANT

OLD CUSTOMS PREVAILED

MADRID IS PATROLLED BY TROOPS.

Madrid, Feb 14. In the chapel of the royal palace, in the presence of the royal family and all the aristocracy and officialdom of Spain, Dona Maria De Las Mercedes De Bourbon y Hapsburg, princess of the Asturias, was today wedded to Prince Charles Bourbon.

The city is still patrolled by troops, but up to 10 30 p. m. all was perfectly quiet.

The wedding ceremony proceeded with perfect tranquility The thousands of spectators in the neighborhood of the palace and filling the south grand court within the railings were quite orderly.

They were warched by detachments of cavalry, who also kept order throughout the city.

At 10.30 o'clock this morning there assembled in the private apartmnets of Queen Regent Marie Christina those forming the bride's party, consisting of her mother, the queen regent; her brother, the boy King Alfonso XIII.; his sister, the Infanta Maria Teresa; her aunts, the Infantas Isabella and Eulalie; her uncle, Archduke Eugene of Austria; her grandmother, Archduchess Elizabeth, with all the high retainers of the court, ladies in waiting, grandees of Spain and gentlemen in waiting.

At the same hour, in like manner, there gathered in the apartments of Infanta Dona Isabella, the persons composing the party of the bridegroom. These were the parents of Prince Charles, the countess of Caserat, the duke and duchess of Calabra, his sisters, Dona Maria Immaculata, Dona Maria Pia and Dona Maria Josephine, and their train of ladies and gentlemen.

THE WEDDING PARTY.

The bridegroom's party emerged first and proceeded along the winding, massive granite corridors to the chapel, being followed by the bride's cortege from the queen regent's apartments Their places were respectively to the right and left, but in front of the altar the bride and bridegroom stopped at the steps leading to the altar and there kneeled, thus remaining throughout the mass, which was said by Cardinal Sancha, archbishop of Toledo, primate of Spain Assisting were Cardinal Casanares, archbishop of Valladolid; Cardinal Herrera, archbishop of Santiago de Compostela, and Cardinal Casana, bishop of Barcelona.

Also attending were the bishop of Madrid, the bishop chaplain of the Place de Sion and several other prelates, church dignitaries and cardinals, whose places were within what might be termed the presbytery.

The mass celebrated was low mass, there being no singing, though the organ performed solemn, sacred selections, including one written for the occasion by Zubicurre.

THE MARRIAGE CUSTOMS.

As the bride and bridegroom knelt upon cushions touching the steps of the altar, a white satin bordered veil, three yards long and a half a yard wide, was spread over the head and shoulders of the bride, reaching over the shoulders of the groom, but leaving his head uncovered, while, according to the Spanish custom, a white satin ribbon, called a yoke, was tied about the neck of the couple, the knot being made between them signifying their union. After the mass the simple Catholic ritual of marriage was not differing in any detail from that uniting the most humble members of that faith, except that the ritual was read from a specially printed book in Spanish. Wedding rings were exchanged by both parties, these, of course, being of great value and unique workmanship.

GIVE COINS TO BRIDE.

Another custom observed was that of giving coins to the bride by the bridegroom. These may be pennies or silver or gold coins, according to the position and wealth of the contracting parties, but they must always number thirteen.

These employed today were thirteen gold coins, each weighing an ounce and being of the coinage bearing the bust of Felipe, the first Spanish Bourbon monarch. They were the same used at the wedding of Queen Isabel II., the grandmother of the bride.

After the conclusion of the simple wedding service the cardinal primate pronounced a short discourse, exhorting the wife to love and obey her husband and the husband to love and cherish his wife, adding:

The cardinal also made reference to the virtues of the ancestors of the bride and groom and pointed out the obligations the prince and princess were under to give a good example to those in an inferior station of life, and then bestowed the papal and his own benediction.

TWO FAMILIES MERGED.

Arm in arm, the newly wedded couple arose and left the chapel, followed by a single cortege, the two family parties merging into one, instead of leaving separately, as they had entered. They traversed the long corridors to the apartments of the queen regent, where a record of the marriage was made in a special civil register, the royal family and the same witnesses signing who signed the wedding contract on Tuesday. This ceremony ended, all repaired to the state dining room, in which the betrothal ball was held Monday evening and partook of a wedding breakfast.

The princess and the now prince of the Asturias will occupy apartments in the palace. It is not intended that they shall take a wedding journey at present.

Tonight the Count and Countess Caserta and most of the wedding guests will leave the city.

SCENE OF THE WEDDING.

The chapel in which the ceremony was held is located in the north wing of the palace. It is rotunda-shaped, with the nave opening on the main gallery of the palace and running about the inner court. Ordinarily it will seat about 150 persons, but today every available inch of space was occupied in order to accommodate the invited guests.

Though the skylights would have afforded ample light, they were covered with heavy yellow hangings, through which the sunlight was unable to penetrate except in yellow gleams, which added to the sombre appearance the massive style of architecture already gave to the chapel Sixteen tall pillars of gray marble supported the domed roof Color was lent to the scene by a red Brussels carpet, which covered the entire floor to the foot of the altar, where to the right, entering from the gallery of the dames, the wall was decorated with frescoes of the Holy Trinity and the tutelary saints of Spain by Geacinto, while above the altar is an "Annunciation" painted by Raphael during his later days.

ROYALTY GATHERED.

Today beneath the chapel's dome gathered royalty and the grandees of Spain, save the leaders and followers of the anti-government elements On the gospel side of the altar was seated the bride's party, consisting of the king, the queen regent and other members of the royal family, with suite of attendants and the members of the royal household.

On the same side of the chapel, on an adjoining tribune, were grandees of Spain, members of higher religious orders, distinguished personages, army and navy officials and civil authorities. On the same side of the chapel another tribune was occupied by former cabinet ministers, the civil governor of Madrid, the county council, municipal councillors and members of military orders and followers of Carlos III and Isabella Caterolica.

On the epistle side, nearest to the altar, were the most of the ministry, with their wives, and the presidents and other officials of the senate and chamber of deputies. Behind them were the chiefs of the palace and the professors of the children of the royal family.

The next tribune was devoted to the members of the diplomatic corps and their wives, and that furtherest from the altar was occupied by the gentlemen in wating of the palace.

The space in front of the tribunes was filled with chairs and benches, on which were seated the chiefs of the palace retainers, with the Duke Di Sotamayor at their head, a body of halberdiers, the palace chaplains and other minor palace attendants. The side aisle was occupied by commissioners of the principalities of Asturias and provincial deputations.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Feb. 14.—Speculative interest in wheat was occupied early today in an endeavor to reconcile various features of the foreign situation and while the consideration was on the market ruled dull and irregular with prices close to yesterday's close. Continental markets were strong, particularly Paris and Liverpool closed 1d up. Encouraging as those items appeared the crowd was compelled to admit a slow export condition, despite low ocean freights. May opened a shade higher to a shade lower at 76c to 75⅞c, touched 76⅛c and reacted to 75 ¼c. Local receipts were 51 cars, 1 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 311 cars against 299 last week and 500 a year ago

Corn was dull. May opened unchanged to a shade higher at 39 ⅛@39⅛c, sold to 39⅛@39⅜c and reacted to 39⅛@39⅛c Receipts were 326 cars.

There was scarcely any business in oats, May opening unchanged at 25⅛c and holding steady Receipts were 306 cars.

Provisions were dull but steady in sympathy with a strong hog market May pork opened a shade higher at $14 12½@14.15, sold to $14.17½. May lard unchanged at $7.55 selling to $7.57½, and May ribs unchanged at $7.10, advancing to $7 10@7 12½.

THE CLOSE

Prices at the close were as follows

Wheat—Feb., 73½c March 74⅛c, May 75¼@75⅝c.

Corn—Feb., 38⅛c March 39c May, 40⅛@40⅛c

Oats—Feb., 24½c May 25⅛c.

Pork—Feb., $14.12 May $14 32½.

Lard—Feb., $7.50 March, $7 50 May $7 57 July $7.62½, Sept., $7 70

Ribs—Feb., $7.12½, May, $7 17½ Sept., $7 30

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK

Chicago, Feb. 14.—Cattle—Receipts, 12,000 choice steady others weak market shade lower, butchers' stock steady Good to prime steers, $5 00@6 00, poor to medium, $3 40@4 90, stockers and feeders $2.75@4 50, cows $2.50@4.15 heifers, $2 60@4 50; canners $1.90@2 50 bulls, $2.[illegible]0 calves, $4 00@6.25 Texas fed steers, $4.00@4 75, Texas grass steers, $3 30@4.00, Texas bulls, $2 50@3 60.

Hogs—Receipts today 35,000 tomorrow 28,000, left over, 2,850 Market opened a shade higher, closing easy top, $5 47½. Mixed and butchers, $5 22½@5 47½, good to choice heavy, $5.35½@5 37½, rough heavy, $5.20@5 30; light, $5.20@5 40, bulk of sales, $5.35@5.40.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Feb 14—London advanced prices of some of the American stocks this morning again and the pressure to sell showed relaxation at the opening here. Small fractional changes were very evenly divided between gains and losses gains in some of the metal stocks approaching a point

A good demand arose for some of the low-priced railroads, Steel stocks and Industrials, which imparted a generally strong tone to the market. American Tobacco, Continental Tobacco, People's Gas, Sugar and Western Union were bought heavily and rose 1@1½, Steel and Wire, Federal Steel and the Smelting shares improved as much, and Des Moines and Fort Dodge, Chicago, Great Western preferred B, Chicago and Eastern Illinois, Reading second preferred, St Louis and San Francisco common and second preferred and Wisconsin Central issues were taken confidently and advanced 1@1½.

The prominent railroad stocks advanced but they were not in especial demand. Selling of the Grangers and Pacifics unsettled the market. Resultant declines reached from ½ to 2 points in Sugar, St. Paul, Tobacco, Union Pacific, Continental Tobacco, Great Northern preferred, Western Union, Missouri Pacific and Smelting.

There was some recovery before 11 o'clock. Manipulation of the local traction stock rallied them from 2½ to 3½, and induced buying for both accounts elsewhere The rebound carried some stocks above the opening with the recovery from the lowest reaching a point or over in Sugar, Atchison, Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, St. Paul, People's Gas, Federal Steel, Steel and Wire and many others. Tobacco was exceptionally strong rising 2½ above yesterday's close and North American gained 2. Pierre Marquette sold 6½ over yesterday's price

Bonds were dull and irregular

SPEAKS FOR HOPE HOSPITAL

PRESIDENT S. M. FOSTER HAS SOMETHING TO SAY.

Explains Purpose of Coming Bazaar and Tells of Hospital's Good Work.

Editor of The Sentinel: The handkerchief sale and entertainment to be given in Knights of Columbus hall February 21st, 22d and 23d for the benefit of Hope hospital affords an opportunity for saying some things concerning the hospital that may tend to correct a few of the misconceptions which seem to exist regarding the hospital and its work. In the first place, it should be said that there is no more worthy charity, there are no more creditable institutions than the two Fort Wayne hospitals. I think no person has ever been an inmate of either of them, at least not in recent years, who has not ever afterwards had an exalted idea of their usefulness and the place which they fill in this community.

In 1878 a few public spirited citizens banded themselves together and formed an association known as the City Hospital association. The first board of trustees consisted of A. F. Siemon, W. H. Coombs, J F. W Meyer, August Rehling, A. S. Prescott, D. B. Strope, Henry Tons, C. L. Smith and M. L. Albrecht. Of those nine men all, I believe, have gone to their reward except J. F. W. Meyer, who still abides with us, rounding out his well spent life with those good works with which his passing years have been so abundantly filled.

The name City hospital proved an unfortunate one, for it led many people to assume that it was supported more or less by city funds. Such, however, was not the case, the city never having had any hand either in its support or its management. The association is a voluntary one, formed entirely for philanthropic purposes, the only requirement for membership being the signing of the membership roll. The members are not stockholders, for there is no stock. The change of name from City hospital to Hope hospital was made about ten years ago.

The career of the hospital has been a somewhat checkered one. Long since it would have been numbered with the things that have been and are not had it not been for the perseverance in well doing that has always characterized those in charge of its interests. Even in spite of this they would have been forced to abandon the work had not a few persons given liberally of their means for its support. The late Jesse L. Williams was always a most liberal benefactor, and after his death Mrs. Williams and her children added largely to the gifts made by Mr. Williams in his lifetime. In fact, Hope hospital stands as a monument of the benevolence of the Williams family.

The demands upon the institution have, however, always far outstripped its income, and today its immediate necessities are of an imperative character. It is the hope of the association that before very long the hospital may become self-supporting; that its income will be sufficient to meet its running expenses. We are gradually, though slowly, approaching that point, but we have not yet reached it, and meanwhile certain improvements are absolutely demanded. The past years have also piled up deficit after deficit, which in the aggregate have become a debt of serious moment. Arrangements are being made, however, for putting this debt into shape where it will cause the least possible annoyance.

The building of the large addition a few years ago, in which was provided an operating room equipped with all modern improvements, marked a great step forward in the usefulness of the institution. The establishment of a training school for nurses, wherein a full course of two years is required and which gives the hospital a corps of professional nurses, is one of the recent improvements which commends itself more and more to the community as its great value becomes apparent.

The task of supporting a non-sectarian hospital in a city the size of Fort Wayne is a very difficult one, unless the people accord it liberal and hearty support. South Bend has just raised $50,000 with which to build and equip a new building for the use of the Epworth Hospital association of that city. Fort Wayne ought to do at least a portion of this for Hope hospital.

While the hospital is supposed to receive pay for the board, room, medicines and attention furnished its patients, still a large number of patients received during the year entail a serious loss upon the institution. For those received and kept at the expense of the county only $5 per week is allowed, and although the county patients are kept in wards, the amount received falls considerably short of the expense incurred in their care.

Greater, however, than this loss is that incurred on those who remind us of the fact that "When the devil was sick,

The devil a saint would be;
But when the devil got well,
The devil a saint was he."

Hope hospital has, I believe, never shut its doors on any man, woman or child who was in pressing need of its facilities for caring for the sick. But almost countless times it has taken in those whose funds were exhausted long before they were in condition to be discharged. As a rule the debt to the hospital has been regarded as a debt of honor, but the rule has been abundantly proven by the exceptions. Dishonest people sometimes get sick.

There somehow seems to have got abroad two strange impressions regarding the hospital. A great many people regard it as a public institution, that is, public in the sense that it is supported by the county or city. Only today a man was protesting to me against having to pay a certain amount for what the hospital furnishes and asked indignantly, "What is the hospital for if it is not to take care of people who are sick?" When I asked him how he thought the hospital was sustained, he stammered a little and then said, "By the city or the county, or both of them." When I told him that neither the city nor the county gave us a cent except as above mentioned, it seemed to put the hospital before him in a very different light. No tax payer pays a cent of taxes towards the support of either of the Fort Wayne hospitals,

Over and against those who look upon the hospital as a public institution are those who regard it as a private one. I am told that many people think that Hope hospital is administered for purposes of profit. Nothing could be further from the truth. It is purely and entirely a philanthropic institution, and no individual has or ever can have in it a single dollar of pecuniary interest. The management is in the hands of a board of thirty trustees and an auxiliary committee of ladies that embraces all willing to work.

The proposed bazar has for its immediate aim the raising of funds with which to put in a new elevator to take the place of the present rickety and dangerous affair.

Omega Oil

Most liniments burn and blister the tender skin of a child, but Omega Oil doesn't.

It is the safest thing a mother can rub on her little boy or girl for a sprain, bruise, sore throat or cold in the chest. Please remember this, mothers, and always have a bottle of Omega Oil in the house. It will cure the aches and pains of the entire family, and relieve a great amount of suffering every year. It is good for everything a liniment ought to be good for.

If your dealer refuses to supply you with the wonderful Swiss green liniment the Omega Chemical Co., 372 Broadway, New York, will send you a bottle prepaid for 50c in cash, money order or stamps. 247

HOW IS YOUR TYPEWRITER?

Fred McBride, an expert in the repairing of typewriters, is stopping at the Hotel Rich, where he will be located for a week or ten days.

He makes a business of repairing, cleaning, aligning and general overhauling or remodeling of all the standard or leading makes of typewriters, carrying all tools and parts necessary to do the work.

As he does the work here in Fort Wayne it saves the delay necessary in sending them in to be repaired; also expressage both ways, and is on the ground when they are delivered, a point old operators will appreciate.

If your machine is not just what it should be, you had better send for him at the Hotel Rich. He will examine your machine without cost, and tell you just what the repairs will cost, and if you have it done will guarantee satisfactory work. 9t7

He's blowing with all his might and can barely stir the recording hand from zero. There's many a big, healthy looking man who is weak in the lungs. Probably half or two-thirds of his lung surface barely knows the contact of oxygen. He's the kind of man, who, when a cough attacks him, goes galloping down the road toward consumption. Many such a man has found strength and healing for weak lungs and tissues lacerated by coughing and drained by hemorrhages, in the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The healing power of this medicine in pulmonary diseases seems little short of marvelous at times, so extreme are the conditions which it cures. The "Discovery" contains no alcohol, and no narcotics.

"When I started to take your 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mr. A. F. Novotny, of New York, N. Y., Box 1437. "I had a regular consumptive cough, of which I was afraid, and everybody cautioned me and warned me concerning it. I was losing weight rapidly, was very pale and had no appetite, whatever. Now my condition is changed entirely. I do not cough at all, have gained eight pounds in weight, have recovered my healthy color, and my appetite is enormous. CAR LINE SOLD

EDWIN T. EARL DISPOSES OF HIS INTERESTS.

ARMOUR CAR LINE THE OWNER

NOW HAS MONOPOLY OF FRUIT CAR EQUIPMENT.

TAKEN TO HIS OLD HOME FOR BURIAL.

A deal has been consumated whereby Edwin T. Earl, of San Francisco, Cal., has disposed of his interest in the Continental Fruit express, consisting of 1,632 cars, to the Fruit Growers' express, better known as the Armour car line. Negotiations for the sale of Earl's fruit interests are also said to be in progress. The deal involves the transfer of about $2,000,000 of property interests. Edwin T. Earl, it is stated, will retire permanently from the car line business. The Armour Car line, by assuming control of the Continental Car line, secures a monopoly of the refrigerator car business in California except the handling of the Southern California orange crop, a percentage of which will continue to be handled in Santa Fe refrigerator cars.

QUARANTINE LIFTED.

The Wabash ticket agent has received notice of the removal of quarantine from Antwerp, Ohio, and passengers are again allowed to board the trains at that point. For two weeks the railway company refused to bring passengers from that city to Fort Wayne.

SMITLEY RALLIES.

Earl Smitley has rallied from the depression following the amputation of his leg yesterday and Dr. C. B. Stemen says the young man's chances for recovery are very good. The limb was amputated just below the hip. Mr. Smitley is the brakeman who was injured at Plymouth yesterday.

TRANSFORMERS FOR CURACOA.

Today fifteen of Mr. Wood's latest type of oil transformers left the Fort Wayne Electric works for Curacoa, Dutch West Indies. This is not the first shipment of electrical apparatus that has been made by the Electric company to that country. In fact, a constantly increasing business is now being transacted with the islands.

THE MARTIN FUNERAL.

Master Mechanic Geeorge S. McKee, of the Wabash, went to St. Louis last night, where he joined other officials in an excursion to Litchfield, Ill., today, to attend the funeral of the late M. M. Martin, which occurred there this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The funeral party included General Manager Joseph Ramsey and nearly every transportation and motive power official of the road. A special train carried the party to and from Litchfield.

NOT A STEAM-MAKER.

A dispatch from Syracuse, N. Y., to the Chicago Record tells the following interesting story: "That milk is not equal to water as a steam-producing agent was demonstrated yesterday on the Erie and Central New York railroad by passenger train No. 2, which left Cincinnatus at 7:30 o'clock and was due in Cortland an hour and a half later. The train stopped at the water pump and milk station in Cincinnatus for a supply of water. Fireman John Barney, a new employe, made a wrong connection and filled the engine tank with sour milk. The steam dropped rapidly after the transaction, because the milk curdled as soon as it struck the heat, and clogged the pipes, and such a sputtering about the gauge took place that Engineer Jonas Miller became frightened, and at Freetown asked the dispatcher for an extra engine to haul his train to the end of its run."

TAKEN TO PORT HOMER.

Fireman W. Eaton accompanied the remains of the late Charles E. Glenn to Wellsville last night. At that city they were taken in charge by a brother of the deceased, who is engaged in the hardware trade there. Interment will occur tomorrow at Port Homer, a small place six miles out from Wellsville. Young Glenn was a member of the Pennsylvania Voluntary Relief association and held a life policy of $500, payable to his mother.

IN NEW QUARTERS.

Tomorrow J. H. Hobrock and his shop clerks will occupy the new office quarters that have been fitted up for them in the Pittsburg shops. The new quarters will be more convenient and pleasant than were the old rooms.

SPECIAL TO MONROEVILLE.

The Pennsylvania company will send out a special train tonight carry a number of people to Monroeville, to attend the Catholic fair. The train leaves the station at 7 o'clock and returning will leave Monroeville at 12 o'clock. The Catholic fair was advertised for several weeks ago, but smallpox at Monroeville caused a postponement of the festival.

HAD A FOOT INJURED.

Engineer M. Cain, of the Nickel Plate, is off duty, nursing a lame foot. Tuesday he had the misfortune to drop a heavy crowbar upon the member, bruising the flesh painfully.

GROWING IN POPULARITY.

The practice of paying $50 to $200 to the members of an association in whose family there has been a death is extending beyond the confines of benevolent organizations and their auxiliaries. Particularly is this true in the east, where numerous "burial" associations are springing up. Passenger conductors on the Jersey Central have had such an association for several years, keeping it distinctly separate from the O. R. C. Over 100 passenger conductors on the Philadelphia and Reading organized a similar association last week. The plan is for each member to pay $1 per month as dues, and in case of death his widow or heirs will receive $200, and when a member's wife dies he will receive $100. If a member is disabled he is to be paid $200, and if he leave the service all money paid into the organization will be refunded.

ENGINES COLLIDE.

There was a collision between Nickel Plate switch engines back of the Arlington hotel this afternoon, Nos. 201 and 40, going in opposite directions, came together on the curve with force sufficiant to disable them and necessitate a trip to Stony Island for light repairs. View of the tracks was obstructed by some cars on a siding. Nobody injured.

ENGINE LEAVES THE TRACK.

Engine 352, which was pulling the first section of westbound freight train No. 79, on the Pittsburg, went off the derail at the Big Four crossing in Warsaw, pulling two cars with her. The wreck crew was called to the scene at 10 o'clock this morning and is still there. Nobody hurt.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Indianapolis Journal: "The Wabash and the Big Four have furnished more able high grade railway officials than any ten other systems that could be named."

R. J. Fisher left for Pittsburg last night on business for the Bass works.

After an illness of ten days Brakeman Otto Oldfest has reported for duty on the Nickel Plate.

Master Mechanic J. J. Muir, of the Bass works, has returned from a business trip to Pittsburg.

Conductor George Harper, who had been sick a few days, resumed work on the Nickel Plate yesterday.

Conductor John Holly is sick and Brakeman E. Bedson is taking a rest. Both are Nickel Plate employes.

W. F. Scherer, a tinner at the Pittsburg shops, has gone to the country to attend the funeral of his uncle.

Local Brakeman J. C. Hufty, of the Nickel Plate, is taking a few days' lay-off for private business and rest.

Engineer Frank P. Sleeper, who was sick with the grip about two weeks, is on duty again on the Nickel Plate.

Henry Kloepper and Ed Rist, boilermakers, were sent to Peru today to work a week in the Wabash shops there.

Ben Bowers, of the Pittsburg car machine shop, was called to Wooster, Ohio, yesterday to see his mother, who is very sick.

John Steinhouser, of the Pittsburg planing mills, is off duty for a few days, nursing a finger, which was pinched yesterday.

H. H. Matthewson and P. J. Scully, who had been sick, returned to their respective duties in the Pittsburg shops this morning.

George McCormick, Nickel Plate conductor, reported for work this morning. His child, who had been sick, is improving.

M. F. Howe, for many years ticket agent of the Toledo and Ohio Central at Findlay, is dead. He was widely known in railway circles.

T. D. Pickard, superintendent of the Chicago branch of the Bass foundry, is in the city today on business connected with his office.

Mrs. Casey, wife of Machinist John Casey, of the Bass works, was called to Wabash today to see her sister, Mrs. C. M. Sailors, who is seriously ill.

John M. Landenburger, of the Indiana Road Machine company, and William Paul, of the Paul Manufacturing company, are in St. Louis on business for their respective companies.

Carl Lathrop is now a brakeman on the Nickel Plate road. He was formerly a switchman in the Pennsylvania yards, a position he resigned over a year ago to accept a similar one on the Baltimore and Ohio road.

Conductor Frank Rogers is sick and Brakeman Swain has sickness in his family. They are off duty.

Engineers U. H. Kobler and George Kensill and Firemen C. B. Whitman and C. M. Somers are sick and Firemen F. W. Paul, O. T. Peterson and G. L. Lehman are off duty to look after private affairs. They are Pittsburg employes.

A. C. Davis, electrician and motive power inspector of the Pittsburg, has gone east in the interest of the company. He will visit Erie, New Castle and Schenectady. The latter city is the headquarters of the General Electric people.

A sleighing party drove into and broke one of the Pittsburg safety gates on Broadway at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning. The watchman could not learn the names of the driver nor of the young people who composed the party.

The Erie has an extra force of 300 men employed in converting all its old-fashioned vestibule cars into wide vestibule cars.

The Wabash has instructed its agents at Buffalo and those at Detroit and western cities not to ticket Chinamen over the Canadian branch.

Clerk George Anderson, of the Pennsylvania freight yards, is sick, and Walter R. Gerberding has been assigned to perform the clerical duties there for awhile.

Conductors C. S. Thomas, W. E. Ronk, J. S. Carey, George Cassidy and P. C. Dinklage and Brakemen Rice, St. John and H. W. Cullen have resumed work on the Pittsburg after an absence.

Within the last thirty days the Panhandle has promoted on different divisions twenty-five or more firemen to be engineers, the heavy freight business necessitating increasing the number of train crews.

Detective George Harned, of the Wabash, was the guest of his brother, Lieutenant Harned, of the Pennsylvania, yesterday. He was en route to his home in Toledo, after attending court in Indianapolis.

General Manager Underwood, of the Baltimore and Ohio, has just issued an order to the heads of the different departments to the effect that civil service rules must be observed in all matters of appointment, and that no outside men are to be given preference.

Yesterday the Pennsylvania company hired Clyde Rhinehart and C. F. Goodyear as freight brakemen. A number of other applicants who have successfully passed the examinations are expected to be placed upon the extra list soon, if business continues to increase.

John V. Gruber is at home, being treated for injuries sustained during the burning of the Commercial house at Kewanna, Ill. The accident is remembered by The Sentinel readers. Mr. Gruber is a boilermaker and for some time has been engaged in installing gas plants for the Kerr Murray works.

IN THE AIR.

The Germs of LaGrippe are Conveyed Through the Atmosphere.

No one can escape the La Grippe germ because when an epidemic of the disease is prevailing the air is ladden with it.

The reason everyone does not have the disease at the same time is because the persons who are enjoying perfect health are able to successfully resist and throw off the infection, while those who for any reason are not in the best of health fall ready victims.

The first symptoms are those of acute catarrh, resembling a hard cold and if prompt treatment is applied at this time, it can easily be broken up; one of the best remedies at this stage is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, sold by druggists everywhere and if taken freely, say one tablet every hour or two or two or three days, the danger of pneumonia and serious complications will be averted.

The Rev. L. E. Palmer, Baptist clergyman of Ceresco, Mich., makes a statement of interest to all catarrh and grip sufferers. He says: Stuart's Catarrh Tablets have certainly been a blessing to me. I have used them freely this fall and winter and have found them a safeguard against La Grippe and catarrhal troubles from which I had suffered for years. I feel that I can freely and consicientiously recommend them."

Persons who suffer from catarrh of the head and throat are very susceptible to La Grippe and such will find a pleasant, convenient and safe remedy in this new catarrh cure.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are composed entirely of harmless antiseptics and may be used as freely as necessary as they contain no cocaine, opiate or poisonous drug of any kind.

WOMEN MUST SLEEP.

Avoid Nervous Prostration.

If you are dangerously sick what is the first duty of your physician? He quiets the nervous system, he deadens the pain, and you sleep well.

Friends ask, "what is the cause?" and the answer comes in pitying tones, nervous prostration. It came upon you so quietly in the beginning, that you were not alarmed, and when sleep deserted you night after night until your eyes fairly burned in the darkness, then you tossed in nervous agony praying for sleep.

MRS. A. HARTLEY.

You ought to have known that when you ceased to be regular in your courses, and you grew irritable without cause, that there was serious trouble somewhere.

You ought to know that indigestion, exhaustion, womb displacements, fainting, dizziness, headache, and backache send the nerves wild with affright, and you cannot sleep.

Mrs. Hartley, of 221 W. Congress St., Chicago, Ill., whose portrait we publish, suffered all these agonies, and was entirely cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; her case should be a warning to others, and her cure carry conviction to the minds of every suffering woman of the unfailing efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Grip robbed me of my sleep and I was nearly crazed with neuralgia and headache. Dr. Miles' Pain Pills and Nervine cured me."—Mrs. Pearl Bush, Holland, Mich.

"My stomach was affected by grip and I could eat nothing but crackers and milk. I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine and Pain Pills and the trouble disappeared."—Mrs. J. Lindsey, Montrose, Minn.

"When I was prostrated with grip and my heart and nerves were in bad shape, Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure gave me new life and health."—Mrs. Geo. Colie, Elgin, Ill.

"I had been in bed three weeks with grip when my husband brought me Dr. Miles' Nervine, Pain Pills and Nerve and Liver Pills. I was cured."—Mrs. J. Reinier, Franklin, Ind.

SPECIAL.

On Friday Morning We Will Place on Sale

Three Hundred United States Army Rifles and Cavalry Swords - - -

THESE guns were bought at a sale which took place a short time ago at the U. S. Government Arsenal at Governor's Island, New York. All of them saw actaul service on the battlefields of the North and South, many of them were in use in every engagement from Bull Run to Appomattox. These old guns are admirably adapted to decorative purposes—they are particularly desirable as souvenirs of the war which was ended a generation ago, and every American family should be proud to own one of these war relics. Nearly all of these guns are in good condition, with the exception of some rust, which is easily removed—they originally cost the U. S. Government $15 to $30 apiece, we place them on sale at the almost ridiculous price of

The Misses Rurode will give a euchre party on Tuesday afternoon.

Judge Robert Lowry has returned from a business visit to Indianapolis.

Mrs. A. D. Cressler entertained the West End Whist club yesterday afternoon.

Kelley Wright, who recently enlisted in the navy, has gone to San Francisco to be assigned to duty.

Rabbi Frederick Cohn delivered an interesting lecture on Abraham Lincoln before the pupils of the Hamilton school yesterday afternoon.

The Newsboys' union will hold religious meetings each Sunday in one of the rooms in the third floor of the Y. M. C. A. building. Local ministers will be in charge of the meeting.

Miss Kate Auger and Miss Josie Albert gave a sleighing party to the home of Ochmig Bird last evening. The party enjoyed a fine supper and a pleasant evening at Senator Bird's home.

Miss Gable, daughter of Dairyman Gable, accidentally swallowed a pin while sewing yesterday. The bit of steel lodged in her throat and caused great pain until removed by Dr. C. F. Nieschang.

Kokomo Dispatch: "Rev. Charles E. White, of Fort Wayne, is calling on friends in the city. He will be present at the dedication of the new M. E. church at Sharpsville Sunday, where he was formerly pastor."

Miss Nettie Rice was surprised at her home by the members of the Sons of Veterans and Ladies' auxiliary last evening, in honor of her birthday anniversary. The party was arranged by Messrs. C. F. and G. W. Zollinger.

Father Anthony council No. 500, C. B. L., entertained a large crowd of its friends last evening at a pedro party and oyster supper at St. Peter's school hall. In the playing the first prizes were won by Mrs. Michael Kinder and John Zern.

A party of Tipton gentlemen, composed of J. A. Lewis, A. F. Newlon, A. H. Pence, M. Bath, J. R. Coleman, G. W. Myerley, Fred Wafflor and Jacob Harris, were in the city yesterday in consultation with C. S. Knight with reference to an electric lighting plant in that city.

Peru Journal: "The Fort Wayne men who organized the Fort Wayne and Butler Railroad company and attempted to get aid from the citizens to be turned over to the Wabash when it would be ready to take the road, are not altogether discouraged, although their expenses so far have been over $5,000. They will consider other means to further their project, but it looks at this distance as if the men will have to see Peru reap the benefits of the folly of Fort Wayne citizens in refusing the subsidy at the bidding of the Pennsylvania railroad people."

RE-ADJUSTMENT SALE OF INEXPENSIVE JEWELRY.

Among all large quantities there will be some patterns not as desirable as others.

To make sales more brisk we have rearranged the assortment, cutting the price in some case 33 1-3 per cent.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Worch leave this evening for a week's stay at West Baden.

The Harrison street tunnel matter will come up this evening before the board of public works.

W. J. Lennart, of the firm of Lennart & Zorbaugh, goes to Goshen tomorrow to adjust a fire loss.

Mrs. Herman Michael has returned from Chicago, where she was called by the illness of Mrs. Herman Michael, jr.

Henry Huffman, of Reed street, entertained last evening in honor of his birthday. It was a stag party and very enjoyable.

Mrs. A. B. Stevens, of East Butler street, entertained the ladies of the New Century club at a valentine party this afternoon.

Miss Helen Casterline, of 14 Fairfield avenue, gave a valentine tea this afternoon, at which a number of her young friends were present.

Mrs. W. R. Brown, of Allegheny, Pa., is in the city for a brief visit with her mother, Mrs. Oppenhamer, of 5 Monroe street. She will return Sunday evening.

C. S. Knight last evening piloted a party of gentlemen from Tipton about the city, showing them the advantages of the Fort Wayne system of electric lighting.

The delivery sleigh of Nick Klug, the Hanna street grocer, is a hopeless wreck on Clinton street, near Holman. The horse ran away and an interfering part of the curb did the rest.

Charles McCulloch attended a large sale of fancy cattle at Chicago yesterday. A number of the cattle raised on Mr. McCulloch's farm near this city sold for very handsome prices.

STARTED A CRUSADE.

Six or eight members of the Moochers' club, attired in bonnets and dresses and armed with hatchets, made a descent upon the down town saloons last evening. The raid was in imitation of those conducted by Mrs. Carrie Nation and her followers, though no plate glass was smashed, and it is safe to say the method of disposing of liquors was somewhat different from that employed by the Kansas temperance crusaders. The event attracted a great deal of attention, and was a clever advertisement for the forthcoming ball of the Moochers.

ONCE

IN A LIFE TIME WILL YOU GET AN OPPORTUNITY LIKE THIS.

High Grade Pianos Will be Sold at Actual Cost.

After invoicing I find that I will have to have more room for the large stock of Pianos and Organs which I have purchased and expect to arrive within the next thirty days, and in order to get the required floor space I will offer the following well known makes of Pianos at actual cost:

Two of the popular Vose & Sons.
One Kranich & Bach.
One Regent.
One Wellington.

These Pianos are as good as the day they came out of the factory, with the exception that they are slightly shop worn; not noticeably so.

All these instruments are of standard makes and no dealer in the country can show you a better line or offer them at less prices. Especially is this so of the Wellington, which at $148 is the greatest Piano bargain ever offered anywhere. Any one of these instruments can be bought on the easy monthly payment plan. If you are thinking of buying a Piano here is the opportunity of a life time, one you cannot afford to overlook.

We are headquarters for all kinds of musical instruments, from a mouth harp to the equipment for a brass band; also everything new in sheet music.

GET STRONG,

LIKE YOUR NEIGHBORS, BY TAKING VINOL.

Mr. Polster, of This City, Tells How Vinol Helped Miss Bates to Regain Her Natural Strength—Another Victory Over Weakness of Nerves and Body.

"When I hear of so many men and women right here in our own state who are strong and ruddy and able to go cheerfully and steadily about their work, and when I realize that it was Vinol that helped them reach this satisfactory condition, I can't help thinking, just as they do, that it's about the best rebuilder of the human system I ever sold," says Mr. Polster, of Pellens & Polster, the druggists.

"I tell you there is lots of local testimony coming to me about Vinol from people who felt weak and tired and who took this grand tonic on my guarantee.

"Just listen to this letter from Miss Carrie Bates, of Richmond, this state. Here's evidence that Vinol bears out the claims we make for it:

"'Vinol is certainly all and more than it is represented. I cannot hesitate to recommend it, when I consider how it strengthened me. I was tired and run down when I began to take it. It has braced me up wonderfully and helped me to regain my strength.'"

Remember that we guarantee Vinol and refund the purchase money if you are not satisfied.

John Grinder, a farmer, who received a frightful stab in the neck during a recent altercation with some oil men at Montpelier, has been brought to the city and placed in Hope hospital. Grinder's jugular vein was penetrated by the knife and the surgeons have placed a number of artery clamps upon the vein to bind it together and prevent the flow of blood until the vein can heal.

LAMP EXPLODED.

Last evening while pumping a patent gasoline lamp, which works under high air pressue, in the Aveline house billiard room, an explosion occurred, blowing out the side of the lamp and completely drenching the man who was operating the air pump. The pump was lit at the time, but luckily the force of the explosion put out the light, else the man might have been severely burned and a conflagration might have ensued. As it happened fortunately no one was hurt and no damage except to the lamp was done.

ESTABLISHED 1833. FORT WAYNE, IND., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1901. PRICE TWO CENTS

OF ROYAL SPLENDOR

KING READS SPEECH HIMSELF

London, Feb. 14.—The first parliament of the reign of King Edward VII, was opened this afternoon by the king in person. His majesty was accompanied by Queen Alexandra, the duke of York and Cornwall, the duke of Connaught and many others of the royal family.

The last state ceremony of the kind occurred in 1861, when Queen Victoria opened parliament, accompanied by the prince consort, and since the death of the latter nothing equal to today's pomp has been witnessed in London in connection with the opening of the legislature. Not since the wedding of the then prince of Wales and Princess Alexandra has the gorgeous state coach used today been seen in the streets of the capital. In this coach today the king and queen rode from Buckingham palace to the palace of Westminster. The route of the royal party, which lay through the mall, the Horseguard's parade, White hall and Parliament street, was guarded by 5,000 soldiers. Thousands of Londoners packed St. James park, bordered the route of the procession and filled windows, stands and roofs.

CORTEGE WAS SHORT.

The cortege was short, but spectacular. The royal coach, driven by eight famous cream-colored Hanoverians, with postilions in red and gold liveries and footmen leading the horses, which were covered with trappings of morocco and gold, was preceded and followed by life guards in full uniform, with silver breastplates and red-plumed helmets, and a small escort of gentlemen-at-arms in historic costumes immediately surrounded the vehicle.

Five carriages of state, containing uniformed officials and ladies of the household, each drawn by several horses with postilions and outriders, led the procession.

THE STATE CHARIOT.

Next came the massive state chariot, the occupants of which could be plainly seen through the plate glass windows, the king, who was in full uniform, saluting constantly and the queen bowing on all sides.

PARK DENSELY PACKED.

St. James park was densely packed, the west-enders crowding together. The long steps below Carleton house terrace were a solid mass of people. The procession moved through a sea of heads and a continuous glitter of red and gilt. The spectators were thickest around Buckingham palace, pressing against the iron fence for hours before the procession started.

In the meantime the horse guards, with two mounted bands, arrived and formed in line from the palace entrance to the principal gate. The members of the royal family, including the duke and duchess of Connaught, the duchess of Cornwall and York, the duchess of Argyll, the duke of Cambridge, Princess Henry of Battenburg and Prince and Princess Chirtian of Schleswig-Holstein, drove out in plain two-horse coaches, with two footmen in scarlet cloaks on the box, half an hour before the procession formed.

MASSES UNCOVER.

When the six-horse coaches carrying the household appeared the horse guards' mounted bands struck up "God Save the King," the people uncovered, the state coach rolled out of the archway in the center of the palace and was greeted with a roar of cheering.

The yeoman gentlemen-of-the-guard, with halberds, followed. The horse guards took up positions in front and behind the state coach. The heroes of the crowd were the members of Strathcona's horse, who are just back from South Africa and who came in several four-horse brakes, carrying their carbines and wearing informal slouch hats and khaki overcoats. They alighted in front of the palace and marched down the line to a position a short distance from the procession, where they were drawn up while the procession passed.

The king saluted them most cordially and the people cheered them repeatedly.

All along the route hats and handkerchiefs were waved and the greatest enthusiasm was displayed.

The approaches to the houses of parliament were black with people, who were kept in their places by Irish and Scots guards. The king and queen quickly got out of the state carriage, which came to a standstill at the royal entrance beneath the Victoria tower, and went up the marble stairway leading into the robing rooms.

Outside the robing room, in the royal gallery which leads to the house of lords, were about 500 persons, chiefly women, who had been waiting patiently for hours on stands specially erected for the ceremony. Among them were disconsolate peers and commoners who sought sympathy over their hard luck in being unable to get places within the chamber.

KING DELAYED.

The king was delayed in the robing rooms and the yeoman-of-the-guard and gentlemen-at-arms lining the aisle between the stands shifted their positions uneasily.

Then the robing-room doors swung open and the procession, as previously stated and already formed up, moved slowly ahead through the dingy gallery.

No funeral could have been quieter. The aristocratic spectators were perfectly still.

APPROACH OF THE KING.

The sight of an usher walking backwards heralded the approach of the king. The duke of Devonshire, president of the council, immediately preceded him, carrying in his arms the cushion on which rested the crown.

Lord Londonderry, with equal dignity, clasped the sword of state. The king was half down the gallery before the women remembered to courtesy, and then black skirts rustled ceaselessly and noble heads were bowed.

The pallor of her face and her downcast eyes enhanced the idea of mourning given by the long crape veil hanging down her back and hiding the costly ermine.

The ladies of the bedchamber, walking two abreast, directly behind and deeply veiled, added a touch of sadness to the scene. This was quickly dispelled, however, by the glittering uniforms of the gentlemen-at-arms and high officers of the army

THE DAY'S FEATURE.

Before the end of the procession had passed out of the gallery the king had entered the house of lords and the central feature of the day commenced.

It was 2:15 p. m. before the king arrived in the chamber, where one of the most striking things was the curious reversal of the customary appearance of the sexes.

Heretofore, once the women were sombre looking, in black relieved only by their white arms and shoulders and the diamonds and pearls in their coronets, while the men, usually in black, were radiant with brilliant robes of scarlet and ermine.

The peers and judges occupied the front benches. The monotony of this sea of red and white was varied by the uniform of the ambassadors who, sitting on the bishops' benches, with their sashes of blue, crimson and green of all shades, made a welcome change.

MR. CHOATE PROMINENT.

The United States ambassador, Mr. Choate, as usual, was prominent on account of his plain, evening dress. He was accompanied by Mr. Carter, the second secretary of the embassy, and Mr. Cutting, private secretary of the ambassador, similarly attired. Mrs. Choate was with the ambassador's wives.

All present rose as the royal procession entered, thankful that the long wait was over, and all eyes of this "house of perreuse," as it was dubbed for the occasion, centered on the queen's dress, which, it could be seen in spite of the ermine cape, was of deep black, and glittered with jewels, while across her breast was the ribbon of the Order of the Garter, her husband's latest tribute.

GALLANT TO THE QUEEN.

With a motion of his hand the king signaled that the distinguished gathering should sit, and the queen,

SAMPSON AGAIN

PRESIDENT SENDS MESSAGE TO CONGRESS.

AS GIVEN MANILA HEROES

SAMPSON AGAIN NOMINATED OVER SCHLEY.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The president today sent a special message to congress urging that the same recognition that had been given Dewey and his officers and men for his services in Manila bay should be given Sampson, commander of the North Atlantic fleet, and his men for services in and about Cuba.

Navy—Rear admirals to be advanced in rank from the 11th day of February, 1901: William T. Sampson, five numbers, to take rank next after Rear Admiral John A. Howell; Winfield Scott Schley, three numbers, to take rank next after Rear Admiral Sampson when advanced.

IN THE SENATE.

Washington, Feb. 14.—When the senate convened today it was decided to take a recess from 5:30 to 8 o'clock this evening, the reading of the District of Columbia code bill to be the only order of the night session.

An amendment proposed by Mr. Shoup, of Idaho, to the sundry civil bill looking to the establishment of a soldiers' home in Idaho induced Mr. Hale, of Maine, to call attention to the fact that the committee on appropriations was being besieged constantly for more and more soldiers' homes, although it is nearly forty years since the close of the civil war.

The general belief was that in forty or fifty years the demand for these homes ought to be on the decrease, and he thought it would be necessary to give some account to the country for the proposed increase.

Mr. Pettigrew declared that the United States was manufacturing material for soldiers' homes every day.

General MacArthur's report for December showed that there were 10,000 more sick in the Philippines than could be cared for properly.

Mr. Hale acceded to this statement and added that every man in the Philippines would be on the pension list in five years.

IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Before the consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill was resumed in the house today some routine business was transacted. Bills were passed to appropriate $63,000 for the construction of a light and fog signal at Point Dume, Los Angeles county, California; to authorize the Louisville and Nashville Railroad company to construct a bridge across the Talahatchie river in Alabama; for the relief of settlers under the public land laws upon lands within the limits of the indemnity land grant to the North Pacific railroad; to authorize the Mobile and West Alabama railroad to construct bridges across the Warrior and Alabama rivers, Alabama; to extend the privileges of immediate transportation of dutiable goods to Milwaukee, Wis.; to authorize Calhoun county, Texas, to construct a free bridge across Fort Lavaca, Texas.

The senate amendments to the bill for the creation of a committee to select a site and adopt plans for a memorial statue to General Grant in this city were adopted.

WRECKED BY CRACKSMEN.

Chicago, Feb. 14.—The Chicago and Northwestern station at River Forest, a suburb of Chicago, was almost completely wrecked early today by safe blowers, who used a heavy charge of dynamite. The safe was blown open, part of the wall of the station was torn away and all of the furnishings of the building, including the desks, telegraph instruments and office fixtures, was torn to pieces. Practically nothing of value was secured by the burglars. The explosion shook the whole village. It is supposed to have been the work of amateur cracksmen.

CHARLIE MITCHELL HERE.

New York, Feb. 14.—Charley Mitchell, the English pugilist, arrived here today on the Majestic. He said to a reporter that he had not come over especially to look for a fight, but he said he was not averse to taking on any of the big fighters. He would like to get in the ring with Corbett. He said: "My visit here is for pleasure and to take a look about. Of course I might make a match if the opportunity were afforded. I shall be here for some months. I shall remain in New York for some days and then go to the Pacific coast. Prize fighting in England is dead. It is not because we have lost interest in the sport, but because we have not any good men."

RETALIATION BEGINS.

Winfield, Kas., Feb. 14.—War on the "joints" here yesterday is supposed to have caused the destruction during the night of all but two windows of the United Presbyterian church. It is supposed to have been done by partisans of the "joint" keepers.

SHE TRIES TO END HER LIFE

MAGGIE HAAG FOUND IN DYING CONDITION IN HOTEL.

Girl Has Led a Career of Vice and is Almost Blind From Disease—Now in Hospital.

On Tuesday a young woman took lodging at the Riverside hotel, registering as Maggie Hogge, of Bluffton. She was not seen all day yesterday and last evening, when no response was received to repeated knocking, her door was forced and the lodger was found in bed unconscious. She was finally aroused, but almost immediately was seized with a spasm and Dr. Hammond was hastily sent for. He found her under the influence of some narcotic drug, the exact character of which he could not determine, and after working with her for some time he ordered her removed to Hope hospital, where at this writing she is in an extremely critical condition.

Investigation shows that the young girl did not come from Bluffton on Tuesday, although that is her home, her father being a butcher there. Her real name is Maggie Haag and her father's name is Frederick Haag. She is not unknown to the police, having been arrested last fall immediately after the veterans' encampment, accused of larceny. For a long time after that she made her home with a colored family in the east end, and associated mostly with colored girls and colored men. She was regarded by the police as a thoroughly depraved woman. About two weeks ago she went to the home of F. J. Schippman, at 145 Holman street, and told a story of being sick and without money and succeeded in establishing herself there, where she remained until last Tuesday, when Mr. Schippman told her he could not afford to keep her any longer and suggested that she go to the poor house. She packed up her belongings and left immediately, and was not again heard of until she was found as above described. She is suffering from a loathsome disease and it has affected her eyes so that she is almost blind. Humane Officer Schlaudroff heard of her case last week and on Monday wrote her father at Bluffton, telling him of her condition and saying that she should be taken care of. The father, however, has not answered the letter, and it is understood that he long ago refused to have anything more to with his wayward daughter, who is incorrigible. She is quite young and was at once time very pretty, although a life of dissipation and vice has nearly obliterated all traces of former comeliness. The humane officer is giving the case his attention, and the patient is now under the care of Dr. Sledd, the county physician.

Dr. Sledd stated this afternoon that he had as yet been unable to detect the presence of any drug and was inclined to the opinion that the girl was suffering from very pronounced kidney trouble. The patient has been having frequent convulsions, and is for the greater part of the time unconscious. The physicians this afternoon determined upon the administration of a saline transfusion in the hope of counteracting the conditions. Unless this is successful Dr. Sledd believes her case is nearly hopeless.

BIG FIRE IN CAIRO.

UNDER BAN OF COURT

SCORES PROJECT UNMERCIFULLY

Cincinnati, Ohio, Feb. 14.—Judge Hollister today granted a permanent injunction against the Jeffries-Ruhlin boxing contest, planned to be held in Saengerfest hall tomorrow night. The case will be carried to the circuit and supreme courts and the contest will be postponed until a final decision is reached in the higher courts.

Long before the hour set for court to convene crowds thronged the court house.

Many deputies were on duty to control the crowd and hold them back so counsel and representatives of the press could hear the decision. It seemed to be the general opinion that the injunction would be granted and that the cannon crackers in waiting at the training quarters would not be shot off, for the present, at least.

About the only thing that could be learned from the judge in the consultation rooms in advance was the fact that the opinion of the court was quite long and that it would take some time for him to deliver it.

Brady, Madden and Cook were anxious spectators.

THE OPINION LONG.

Judge Hollister began reading his opinion at 11:30 and it was believed that it would require four hours or more for him to complete the 102 pages of typewritten copy. This caused a postponement until evening of the conference between the promoters and their counsel as to what they shall do.

As the date for the proposed contest is to be indefinitely postponed, there is no longer any talk about the need of militia or any collision between municipal and state authorities.

Brady, Cook and all those connected with the contest, as well as the directors of the Saengerfest association, remained in the court room during the afternoon to hear the full opinion. They did not take much interest, apparently, in the evening conference with the Saengerfest directors, as the outlook is not considered encouraging for their enterprise at any time in Ohio.

STATE SUSTAINED.

Judge Hollister sustained the state on all points at issue. He not only held that courts of equity have jurisdiction against public nuisances, but also that prize fights are public nuisances and that the proposed contest between Jeffries and Ruhlin was to be a prize fight for the championship of the world and not a boxing match for points. The decision was severe in language as well as decisive in its holding. He held the proposed event to be a public nuisance, a moral wrong, a crime before the law and such a menace to society as should be restrained even in courts of equity.

In reviewing the testimony, Judge Hollister complimented Manager Brady in saying that his evidence commanded the respect of the court, but he was severe on Manager Madden as "an insincere and evasive witness, whose testimony regarding the difference between a prize fight and boxing contest could not be given credence."

An analysis of the conditions facing the promoters of the Jeffries-Ruhlin boxing contest today, preceding the decision in the suit for an injunction, failed to reveal the slightest probability of the contest being brought off tomorrow evening, as had been planned.

Owing to the long-drawn-out hearing on the petition for an injunction against the proposed contest and the postponement of a decision in the matter until today, attendance from outside points was made particularly out of the question except by those who might have been willing to take their chances and come anyway. From the long drawn answer of the announcement of the decision it became apparent that, even should Judge Hollister decide that an injunction should issue against a "prize-fight" and not against a "boxing contest," such as the promoters declared they were about to bring off, a postponement would be the only possible way to make the affair a paying one.

It was generally conceded that Governor Nash could not be prevailed upon to swerve from his original determination to prevent the contest by the use of militia if necessary.

MAYOR ACQUIESCES.

When Mayor Fleischmann was informed of the injunction, he said: "The sheriff is the officer of the court and if he calls on me for assistance I will give him the entire police department. The court's decision practically acts as a revocation of the license for a boxing permit. I do not think troops will be ordered here."

GOVERNOR WANTS TO KNOW.

Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 14.—Upon learning of Judge Hollister's decision, Governor Nash at once placed himself in telegraphic communication with the mayor and other local officials in Cincinnati, in order to learn whether they could enforce the decree of the court without the aid of militia. Upon this correspondence, he said, depends his future action.

Judge Peck leading counsel for the defendant, gave notice of an appeal and took exceptions to both points of law and fact in the finding of the court.

WILL HAVE NEW LANDLORD

Will Take Possession in April for Three Years—Will Introduce New Methods.

Harry Harrison yesterday closed a lease with the Spring Beach hotel company for the handsome summer hotel at Rome City. Mr. Harrison will assume control in April and will immediately prepare the snug hostelry for the summer campaign. The lease is for a period of three years and Mr. Harrison expects to have the house open the year round. This will not be the new landlord's first experience in the hotel business. He was for years back of the desk at the Kelly house at Kendallville and afterwards was the lessee of the Rich hotel in this city. He knows all about hotels and his numerous friends have boundless faith in his success at Spring Beach. The house itself is a modern one and its patronage under different managements since its erection has been rather fair under the circumstances, but not near what it should be under more progressive management by a wide-awake hotel man like Mr. Harrison. He has friends without number both in this city and elsewhere who will be glad to give him their patronage, and with his modern ideas of what an up-to-date summer hotel should be his success seems assured.

WILL GIVE ENTERTAINMENT.

The R. F. C. club will give another entertainment this evening, which will be the third of the regular series. The club has taken great pains to have this the best yet given by them and many new features were added to the program. The committee has made arrangements to seat a large crowd and the entertainment will begin at 8 o'clock prompt. The feature of the program is a play, entitled, "A Family Not to Pattern After," and is divided into four acts. Special scenery has been procured for the play and it will undoubtedly be a great success. The club orchestra has been increased by many new members, who will take principal parts in the play. After the entertainment there will be a social session, to which all are cordially invited.

A pair of horses, evidently run aways, were picked up by the police last night and quartered at a livery barn.

A LOBBY BUMPED

THE LEGISLATURE'S LABOR

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Indianapolis, Feb. 14. The house today gave a rough finish to the lobby which has been laboring strenuously to have the state epileptic village located at Columbus, amending the epileptic village bill so as to leave to the commission the power to fix the location of the institution.

The house warped the senate bill limiting railway subsidies, the measure as altered fixing no limit. The house also passed the bill which makes it possible for blacksmiths to take a lien on horse for whose shoeing no pay has been received. A bill was passed empowering three freeholders to make affidavit before coroner in application for an inquest.

There were many minor committee reports in the senate.

CHARTER BILLS PASSED.

Czar Gilbert resorted to his usual gag rule tactics employed in all emergencies to enable the republicans to pass the second Fort Wayne charter bill.

Senator Kell insisted that the bill, which is very long, should be read all through. This was done in order to prolong the reading until the special order came up in order to postpone the passage of the bills a day. The republicans, however, put off the special order until the bills could be disposed of. For an hour the senate listened to the reading, which wore out two reading clerks.

Senator Winfield moved to make the bill a special order for Monday. The republicans moved the previous question, but it was defeated. Senator Kittinger then moved to table Senator Winfield's motion. The nays on the question were clearly in the majority, but Czar Gilbert declared the motion carried and shut off debate without allowing him to call for a revision or giving a chance for an appeal from his decision. A motion by Senator Winfield, to amend the bill so as to make it apply to all cities between 30,000 and 250,000, was ruled out of order.

Senator Winfield spoke against the bill. It was passed by a vote of 28 to 16.

One of the important measures to be successful in the senate was the bill providing for the liquidation of the claim of Vincennes university. This bill was introduced by Senator Purcell, and provides for the issuing of $120,000 of bonds for the purpose of paying the claim.

Among the numerous committee meetings held yesterday was a session of the joint committee on claims of George H. Pennington, of New Albany, who was injured at the state fair grounds while the troops were gathered there at the breaking out of the war with Spain. The committee decided to disallow the claim of Joseph Raible, of Indianapolis, who was injured while in the service of the state about the time the war of the rebellion closed.

IN THE HOUSE.

One of the important measures passed by the house yesterday was a bill by Mr. Bonham providing for the relief of the poor, and an amendment to the measure, which affects the county reform law. The amendment was introduced by Mr. Reser. It allows county commissioners to give township trustees permission to extend as much relief to the poor as is needed. The bill was passed under a suspension of the rules. Another important measure considered in the house was the Gerber bill providing for voting machines. The bill came up on second reading and was passed to engrossment. The house held a brief afternoon session, adjourning a little after 3 o'clock.

VOTING MACHINES.

Mr. Gerber's bill providing for voting machines was taken up on second reading as a special order at the morning session of the house. The bill provides that the governor shall appoint three commissioners who shall hold office for a term of five years, to examine into the capacity, accuracy and efficiency of the machine which shall be recommended by them.

Mr. Whitcomb offered an amendment allowing each commissioner $50 for his services in each case. This amendment was adopted. He then introduced an amendment providing that the company selling the machine shall keep it in repair for five years. The amendment was adopted, after which Mr. Whitcomb introduced a section providing for the printing of a sufficient number of ballots to carry on the election in case the machins refused to work. This section was adopted and made a part of the bill.

Mr. Miller, of Kosciusko, offered an amendment changing the word "may" to "shall," thereby making it compulsory to use voting machines. After considerable discussion the amendment was lost by a vote of 73 to 12.

Mr. Louttit created a sensation by moving to strike out the enacting clause of the bill. Mr. Whitcomb moved the motion be tabled, which was carried. The bill was then passed to engrossment.

"Failing to find relief from the grip with old methods, I took Dr. Miles' Pain Pills, Nervine and Nerve and Liver Pills and was permanently cured."—Gust. Egan, Jackson, Mich.

"After suffering for two months from a severe attack of grip, I found quick relief and a lasting cure by using Dr. Miles' Nervine, Pain Pills and Heart Cure."—Harry Abbott, Cincinnati, Ohio.

"Grip made me very weak and nervous, with tightness of chest and headache. Dr. Miles' Pain Pills and Nervine gave me quick relief."—Mrs. Clarinda Butler, W. Wheeling, O.

"I had grip three months; could not sleep; pain all over and headaches very bad. Dr. Miles' Nervine, Pain Pills and Liver Pills made me well."—Mrs. E. C. Bowlby, Waterloo, Ind.

MERCHANTS ARE UP IN ARMS

WILL FIGHT ENACTMENT OF A PROPOSED LAW.

Its Provisions Would Compel Them to Refuse Credit in Many Cases —Send a Committee.

Col. D. N. Foster and Joe W. Bell, as the representatives of a large number of Fort Wayne merchants, left today for Indianapolis to fight a bill now before the Indiana legislature and which has been reported favorably by the committee on judiciary. Mr. Foster and Mr. Bell were sent as the result of a meeting of merchants held yesterday afternoon at the rooms of the Commercial club.

The bill in question was introduced some weeks ago, but its full import has not been grasped until within the past few days, and merchants who do a credit business say it would compel them to refuse credit to all who did not have more than $600 worth of taxable property, thus depriving them of business and working a hardship upon honest persons of modest means.

Briefly, the bill provides that in the case of the sale of goods exceeding $50 value on credit, the customary contract stipulation that property right is to remain in the seller until the obligation is fully discharged shall not be valid as to subsequent purchasers or mortgagees in good faith unless such contract or lease is recorded in the office of the county recorder, and that whenever such property is sold or mortgaged before it is fully paid for, it shall be unlawful for the original owner to take possession of it without first tendering to the new purchaser, lessee, renter or hirer the sum of money he had paid thereon, after deducting a reasonable amount for the use of such property, which in no case shall exceed 50 per cent of the amount so paid.

Furniture, piano, bicycle, hardware, agricultural implement and sewing machine dealers say the law if enacted would practically ruin their business, inasmuch as a large percentage of sales are made upon the credit or installment plan, and that they would be compelled to decline credit to any person from whom an account would not be legally collectable.

SISTER M. GENOVEFA.

Ven. Sister M. Genovefa, of the order of Poor Handmaids of Christ, died at 10 o'clock this morning at St. Joseph's hospital, from tuberculosis, at the age of thirty-five years. She was a native of Illinois and one of the most devoted sisters of the order.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 7:45 o'clock from the hospital chapel. Interment at the Catholic cemetery.

DELONE.

Mrs. DeLone, whose home was at Payne, Ohio, died this morning at St. Joseph's hospital. The patient was brought to that institution yesterday in a critical condition.

The remains will be shipped to Payne for interment.

ABOUT THE COURT HOUSE.

Judge O'Rourke was taken sick yesterday afternoon and was obliged to adjourn court. It is supposed to be nothing more serious than an attack of the grip, but it is sufficient to keep him confined to his room. He has appointed R. S. Robertson special judge to try the cases set for trial and the Branstrattor will case is being tried this afternoon.

The Disbro case for violation of the oleomargerine law was dismissed yesterday afternoon by Judge O'Rourke.

No decision has yet been handed down in the Sprunger assault and battery case heard on Tuesday.

Judge Aiken has not yet given judgment in the Tousley divorce case, the evidence in which was submitted yesterday.

In the superior court the case of George Castle vs. the College Place Improvement company is on trial before a jury.

An inventory of the personal effects of John Zent, deceased, has been filed with the county clerk.

Mrs. Cecelia Graffe makes her final report as guardian of Henry C. Graffe, jr., and asks to be discharged.

It has been been concluded to hold an inquest upon James Reihn, supposed to be insane. The commission will consist of Justices Tancey and France and Drs. Harrod and Calvin.

Herman Freedman has filed suit against Salem Bashara on account; demand, $950.

Albert E. Hevel and Josephine H. Curtin were married last evening by Justice France.

Henry Rockermann, an old man living on Holman street, was sent to the poor house this afternoon by Trustee Schirmeyer. He is very old and has been living alone. His wife died years ago and he has lost all track of his children. He was able to take care of himself until quite recently, but is now too weak to do manual labor.

CITY HALL NOTES.

Tomorrow the finance committee of the city council will meet to examine and check up the annual report of the city comptroller.

The board of public works will meet in regular session this evening and will consider several petitions for street paving, mention of which was made in The Sentinel several days ago. The most important matter which will be discussed will be the proposed opening of Harrison street. The matter was postponed a week ago at the request of the officials of the Wabash railway, who telegraphed their inability to be present at that time and requested a postponement until tonight. So far as now known they will be present tonight and the board expects that they will put up a vigorous opposition. Inasmuch as the board has practically determined to open the street across the Wabash tracks the opposition of tonight will not avail much except to make a record to be used when the question of damages comes up for adjudication.

OLYMPIA BAND FAIR.

Another large crowd attended the Olympia band fair in the Tri-State building and the interest in the contests is increasing every day. Last night the special feature was the fancy cake walk by little Misses Marian Purcell and Gladys Haskell. Miss Haskell was dressed as a boy and the manoeuvres of the two little tots was exceedingly interesting as well as artistic. Tonight an extra bill is offered. Besides the regular concert which tonight will be by orchestra, will be some readings by Miss Florence McMillan, a Dutch dialect turn by Professor Mert and a grand prize cake walk by two unknowns and others, the prize being for a $5 gold piece. The dance will be given on the upper floor and will be one of the richest things of the season.

Mrs. Trier will give a dance and reception this evening in her academy in the Schmitz building.

Mrs. Fentress, of Detroit, will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Page the latter part of this week.

Last evening the Misses Jeanette and Maud Muhler delightfully entertained the Wednesday Evening Pedro club.

Mrs. Frank Cutshall entertained the members of the Amicus club in a most charming manner this afternoon.

Miss Margaret Davidson has accepted a position with Miss Harriet Wilmington in the kindergarten of music.

Rev. E. W. Allen, of the West Jefferson street Church of Christ, is expected home from Saginaw, Mich., on Saturday.

William Lawson, the broker, is able to be about again after an illness that confined him to his home for several days.

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary society of Christ's Lutheran church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The ladies of Grace Reformed church will give an entertainment and supper in the church parlors this evening from 5:30 to 9 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. John V. Reul, of West Lewis street, have issued invitations for the celebration of their fifth wedding anniversary Monday evening.

The regular meeting of the Isaac Knapp Dental coterie will be held this evening in the office of Dr. Shryock. Dr. Shryock will read a paper on the subject, "Crown and Bridge Work."

The lecture by Mrs. White on "Mormonism," to be given at the First Presbyterian church, will be given on Friday evening instead of Thursday as inadvertently stated in these columns yesterday.

Miss Ada Moore entertained a merry company of friends at a sleighing party, making the trip to the home of Miss Blasing, at New Haven. Progressive pedro was played there, and refreshments were served.

Rev. Dr. J. A. F. McGaw, of the Third Presbyterian church, left today for Indianapolis to attend a meeting of the Presbyterian synodical committee. Dr. McGaw is a delegate from the Fort Wayne presbytery.

Miss Edith Krapf, of East Lewis street, entertained a number of friends at supper last evening in honor of Theo. Kleinsorge, who left today for Minneapolis to accept a position as manager of the Kleinsorge Clothing house.

Edward Schurman, of Indianapolis, representing the Von Gerichten Art Glass company, is in the city superintending the placing of the art glass in Emmaus Lutheran church. Mr. Schurman will bid for the art glass in the new Third Presbyterian church.

The Knights of Columbus gave a most enjoyable progressive pedro party last evening in their hall. First prizes were won by Mrs. Herman Kappel and Joseph F. Goetz, and the consolations were awarded to Miss Catherine McCann and A. J. Muldoon.

Every lady interested in the collection of handkerchiefs for the Hope hospital handkerchief bazaar is requested to leave her collection at the residence of Mrs. Diedrick Meyer, 22 West Wayne street, not later than Saturday, the 16th. The bazar will be held in the Knights of Columbus hall on the 21st, 22d and 23d of this month.

A party of ladies surprised Mrs. F. H. Poole yesterday afternoon and progressive pedro occupied the attention of the party during the time. Mrs. Helen Nelson won first prize; Mrs. Lerow Hartzler, second; Mrs. E. F. Lloyd, third, and Mrs. W. W. Mungen the consolation. The ladies wore hats of antiquated pattern and Miss Celeste Fleming was awarded the prize for having the most grotesque headgear.

At the home of Miss Clara Carnahan last evening the young ladies of the Amateur Musicale entertained a party of about 100 ladies and gentlemen. Mrs. Hugh Keegan, Miss Hanna, Miss Margie Hanna, Miss Olds, Miss Sale, Miss Sweringen and Miss Hughes received the guests. A musical program of great merit was given, which was followed by a buffet lunch served in the dining room, which was decorated in pink and green.

Mrs. Willard Lyon delivered an interesting lecture on the existing conditions in China at the Third Presbyterian church hall last evening before a large audience. Mrs. Lyon and her husband spent five years in China, where Mr. Lyon was secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Tien Tsin. Mr. and Mrs. Lyon and their children escaped from Pekin shortly before the siege of the legations by the boxers and after many narrow escapes from death at the hands of the fanatics, succeeded in reaching the coast. Mrs. Lyon and children are the guests of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. J. A. F. McGaw.

THEY LEFT.

Vamoosed, Cleared Out and Quit.

"My first suspicion that coffee was slowly killing me came from reading in the newspaper the experience of a person suffering from the poison contained in coffee, and how he had been relieved by leaving off coffee and taking Postum Food Coffee.

I had, for a long time, suffered from palpitation of the heart, indigestion, billiousness, and intense headaches and neuralgia.

If I did leave off coffee for one hour beyond the usual time in the morning, I had the most excruciating headache for the rest of the day, but I made the change from coffee to Postum without the slightest inconvenience, by first having the Postum prepared with a little coffee mixed in it, then the next day a little less and the next day a little less, until in less than a month I was having the Postum Simon Pure, and the cook got so she could make it so strong and delicious that I enjoyed my Postum better than I had ever enjoyed the old fashioned coffee that had been undermining my health and rendering life a burden.

One by one, and day by day, all the old symptoms disappeared. A feeling of tranquil strength and even temper replaced the former unnatural conditions. Sleep was complete and restful.

The change was so complete and radical that I could not doubt the cause, which lay simply in the withdrawal of the poison, and the addition to my diet of a nourishing, healthgiving, liquid food, Postum.

I can give the names of many persons who have been benefitted by the change from coffee to Postum, and am never tired of making converts.

How many times we hear people complain of this and that obscure symptom of disease, and wonder what can be the matter with them. In nine cases out of ten it is due to nothing in the world but coffee poisoning. I am sure if all those who have ails of one kind or another, serious or trifling, would try the experiment that I did, there would result an enormous aggregate of improvement in health, and coffee would take its proper place among the other poisons."

It is well for people to know that cooks who first undertake to make Postum boil it too little and therefore do not extract the flavor and food value. It is delicious if prepared according to directions, (and that is easy).

This letter is from the cashier of one of the largest insurance companies in the world, who requests that his name be withheld from print; given to enquirers by the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., at Battle Creek, Mich.

WENT OVER THE BANK.

Two young men and a young lady had a narrow escape from serious injury while driving on the St. Joe road yesterday afternoon. The horse driven by them was going at a three-minute gait along Columbia street, and as they turned on the St. Joe road the lines became caught and the animal turned suddenly toward the river. The cutter was overturned and the occupants were precipitated down the steep bank with considerable force, landing perilously near the river, while the horse continued on its way with the cutter wrong side up. The young people sustained no injuries beyond a few bruises and scratches and torn clothes.

FELL FROM A CHAIR.

Mrs. Joseph Palmer, residing on St. Mary's avenue, sustained a painful injury while doing her housework this morning. She was standing on a child's high chair, which gave way under her weight, and she fell to the floor, striking a sharp instrument, which inflicted a painful gash in her right leg. A doctor who was summoned found it necessary to put several stitches in the cut.

Michael and Miss Helen Gilmartin entertained a jolly party of their friends last evening at a sleighing party, chaperoned by Henry Monning. The party stopped at the home of Mr. Bachelor, on the Lima road. A dainty lunch was served and the evening was spent at cards and various games, at which Miss Carrie Soth and Joe Haley shared honors.

Cincinnati, January 31, 1901.

Messrs. Fraser & Chalmers, Chicago, Ill.:

Gentlemen: The action of the molders, declaring a strike in your foundry, is an assumption of authority which has no official recognition from the IRON MOLDERS' UNION of North America, or Local Union No. 233, of Chicago, Ill., of which they are members. Said action was illegal and a violation of our rules and laws, and the members of the IRON MOLDERS' UNION are authorized to accept employment in your foundry pending investigation of the alleged grievance and decision of conference committee, as provided in the New York agreement. To all members of our union who go to work we will guarantee the fullest recognition and support of our organization. Respectfully yours,

11-6t MARTIN FOX, President.

A WHITE PATH.

THERE is only one kind of Cleanliness, but there are many kinds of soap. There is only one destination, but there are many paths that lead to it. If you want the shortest and safest road to Cleanliness, it is paved with Ivory Soap. Neither man nor clothes ever get beyond the cleansing power of Ivory Soap. Its rich, creamy lather extracts every particle of dirt; but it stops at the dirt! Ivory Soap—it floats.

Kansans are not Spaniards, nor Spaniards Kansans, yet they have in common a love of excitement, a craving for the strenuous that would make either at home on the other's soil.

Secretary Gage has decided Russian sugar must pay an additional tariff equal to the alleged export bounty paid by the Russian government. The decision, however, is subject to review by the courts if the parties aggrieved care to carry the matter up.

Dr. Campbell Brown, of Liverpool, after examination of samples, declared the arsenic contained in the beer consumed in the city where he resides, during last year, would be sufficient, administered at one time, to kill 1,000,000 people. Liverpool must have awful beer and Mrs. Nation might find it advantageous to go over there.

Just why, it would be hard to say, but there is no doubt that a feeling of unusual optimism concerning the situation in South Africa has come over London. It is hinted that news has been received from German African sources, showing the Boers to be at the end of their resources. There is a British opinion also that the strategy of Lord Kitchener has at last practically trapped Botha and Wit, and that an end to resistance here in sight now within a couple of weeks. All we have to say on the subject is that, hitherto, such rosy visions have generally been precursors of British disasters. However, this time they may be not without some foundation.

A bride of two weeks has accepted a position in the laundry of the Chicago hotel, where she was spending her honeymoon because her husband, in deserting her there, neglected to settle the bill. Having thus accepted the theory that a wife is responsible for her husband's debts the lady will do well to continue in her present work until she has money enough to pay alimony in case of a divorce.

Mrs. Nation has left Chicago to its wickedness, but announces that she is going to return before long and warns the doers of evil that when she comes again the Lord may command her to bring her hatchet. After reflecting upon what she has seen of the character of Chicago and the size of the job, Mrs. Nation may conclude to confine her operations to Kansas, where the "jointist," if not meek and lowly, at least understands his legal status.

The senators who are thick-and-thin advocates of the Nicaragua canal are not disposed to wait further on diplomacy to clear the way for the enactment of the measure providing the ways and means for the digging of the big ditch. What the senate will do is still questionable, but there seems no longer doubt that it will be brought face to free with the proposition to enact the bill which was passed by the house at the last session, regardless of the proposition of the British government for the negotiation of a new treaty.

Rioting, amounting almost to revolution, has spread through Spain, and the authorities do not seem to be strong enough to cope with the situation. The unpopularity of the Infanta Mercedes' marriage into the Carlist Caserta branch of the Bourbon family is great, but it is probable that it is rather the occasion than the cause of the present outbreak, which is one distinctly against the throne and the clericals. It is, in fact, largely a republican uprising, and its political seriousness and consequences may not yet appear.

The assistant commissioner of the London police, in an article written for the Nineteenth Century, asserts that crime and criminals are decreasing and that statistics prove the assertion. But he says that while this is true, professional crime is on the increase, and his view is that when, after repeated warnings, a man has proved himself to be a moral leper, an outlaw, a criminal in character and habitual practice, to set him at liberty is quite as stupid and as wicked as it would be to allow a smallpox patient to go at large in the community. Commenting on the treatment of criminals in England, the writer says: "A single prison would suffice to hold the entire gang of known criminals who now keep the community in a state of siege, and a single wing of any one of our jails would more than suffice to provide for the band of outlaws who may be described as the aristocracy of crime in England. But while we are ready to sacrifice any number of valuable lives on the battlefield to attain results that are often doubtful and sometimes worthless, the inalienable right of these human beasts of prey, not only to life, but to liberty, is maintained with all the blind fervor of a religious superstition. If some small share of the labor and cost successfully expended upon keeping cholera and the plague from our shores, or even in stamping out rabies among dogs, were diverted in this direction, organized crime might be abolished in a single decade."

COL. BRYAN ON MILITARISM.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 14.—In the fourth issue of the Commoner Mr. Bryan announces that hereafter Friday will be publication day. The leading editorial on the front page of the current issue is entitled "Militarism." It says in part:

"During the last campaign the democrats pointed out that republican success would encourage the party in power to increase the standing army. The republicans evaded the question for the most part, and when they were challenged to meet it resorted to subterfuge and deception. They claimed that the army then in service was made necessary by the war in the Philippines, and called attention to the fact that the increase expired by limitation in 1901. They pretended to believe that the army could be reduced before that time if the republicans won at the election and the Filipinos were assured that there would be no change in the administration. These arguments ought not to have misled any one because the president, two months before hostilities broke out at Manila, asked for authority to raise the army to 100,000.

"The election resulted in a republican victory even more pronounced than the leaders of that party had expected, but the war in the Philippines did not terminate, and then the imperialists came out from under cover and boldly demanded an increase in the military establishment. A bill was introduced, hurried through the house and senate and is now a law.

"If any one will read the bill complete and count the number of generals, colonels, lieutenant colonels, majors, captains, first lieutenants, second lieutenants, adjutants, inspectors, quartermasters and other officers with life tenure, he can understand something of the force which militarism can command in any legislative contest with the taxpayers.

"It is easier to increase an army, especially the official part, than reduce it, and the people have before them a difficult task, but the burdens and menace of militarism can be relied upon to arouse the people. When the awakening comes it will be found that the people who profit by a large military establishment, however powerful in present influence, are insignificant in numbers compared with those who are injured."

Twenty-eight members of the young people's society of the West Jefferson street Church of Christ enjoyed a sleigh ride to the Huber church last evening. A revival is being held there and Rev. John C. Bracken ridge, of Bethany Presbyterian church, occupied the pulpit. After the services the young people repaired to the farm home of Mr. McMaken, where they had an oyster supper.

TO CURE THE GRIP.

Advice of a Famous Physician.

First and foremost, REST.

Take care of yourself. Your already weakened nerves want rest and must have it. If the attack is severe go to bed and remain there. More fatalities result from neglect of this precaution than from any other cause.

Eat sparingly. Your digestive organs are in no condition to take care of large quantities of food.

Take three doses of Dr. Miles' Nervine per day, and if you cannot sleep, take an extra dose at bed time. To further control the fever and to overcome the peculiar aches and pains of grip, use Dr. Miles' Pain Pills. They act quickly and effectually and no bad effects result from their use. These remedies have been thoroughly tested more than a million times and their efficiency is thoroughly established. They never fail to give relief.

Dr. Miles' Remedies can be found at any drug store and they are sold on a positive guarantee that first bottle or package benefits or money refunded.

DIES OF INJURIES

MRS. DAILY, OF BLUFFTON, IS FATALLY BURNED.

LINGERED SEVERAL HOURS IN GREAT AGONY.

GENERAL NEWS OF THE STATE OF INDIANA.

Bluffton, Ind., Feb. 14.—Mrs. Michael Daily, of this city, died at midnight after hours of the most intense suffering as the result of terrible burns received by an explosion of wood alcohol at her home Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Daily arose earlier than other members of the family and started to build a fire in a wood stove in an upstairs room at her home. For this purpose she took a can containing about a pint of wood alcohol, which is used for steam baths. Unknown to the lady there was some fire remaining in the stove and when she threw the alcohol in an explosion instantly followed. The burning liquid was thrown all over Mrs. Daily and her clothing was soon a mass of flames. She rushed into the bedroom where her husband was sleeping, her apparel blazing, the flames shooting high above her head to the ceiling.

Mr. Daily attempted to tear the burning clothing from her body, but failing in this, he hurriedly wrapped bedclothing about her, in this manner succeeding in smothering the flames, but not until almost every portion of the unfortunate woman's body had been burned deeply. Physicians were unable to counteract the effects of the frightful burns and death ensued at midnight. The husband's hands were also frightfully burned in the attempt to save his wife.

FACTORY NOW HAS A CHOIR.

Washington, Ind., Feb. 14.—Two weeks ago L. H. Creager, who operates a stave and heading factory in this city, employed Rev. Mr. Gorby, pastor of the Presbyterian church, to deliver fifteen-minute sermons to the factory hands every morning.

The idea has proved such a success and has such a wonderful influence upon the workmen that Mr. Creager has placed the choir of the First Baptist church upon the pay roll. The choir will assist Rev. Mr. Gorby in the daily religious services at the factory.

JEALOUSY CAUSES MURDER.

Richmond, Ind., Feb. 14.—Miss Anna Jones, a young colored woman, was murdered in cold blood yesterday by Robert Futrell, also colored. The two were lovers and Futrell's jealousy caused the crime. He shot the woman in the head. Futrell then made an unsuccessful attempt at suicide and later fled from the city. He was captured yesterday afternoon near Liberty. He confessed the crime. Futrell's home is at Mound City, Ill.

WOODMEN ELECT OFFICERS.

SAFE BLOWERS SENTENCED.

Huntington, Ind., Feb. 14.—Frank Wall and Clayton Walton (alias Frank Watson), tried in the Huntington circuit court for safe blowing in the Schnurr saloon at Andrews, have been sentenced to the penitentiary. Wall received a sentence of from two to fourteen years and Walton, found guilty of petit larceny, gets from one to three years. Two others thought to be implicated in the robbery have not yet been captured.

REVEALS A LIFE OF CRIME.

Brazil, Ind., Feb. 14. While revival services were in progress at the Christian church, conducted by Evangelist Updyke, a stranger asked to be baptized, and after receiving religious consolation he told the pastor that he was desired to reveal his life. He said he was noted criminal and claimed that in 1881 he was acquitted at Chicago on a charge of murder, having been defended by Luther Laflin Mills; that during his life he killed three men, stole ninety-eight horses, had made counterfeit money and helped rob several banks in Texas and robbed Senator Culbertson's father in 1880. The strange convert left the church immediately after having told his story. He said he was a plasterer.

BLIND MAN IS FOUND DEAD.

Princeton, Ind., Feb. 14.—J. C. Loomiller was found dead near the graveyard at Hazleton, Ind., yesterday, and near by him was found a revolver with an empty chamber. Loomiller has been living in Hazleton, but came recently from Oklahoma, where he made a fortune. It is known that he had a large sum of money on his person when he left Princeton for Hazleton. He was totally blind. The general opinion is that he was murdered for his money.

BIG OIL WELL PUMPS WATER.

Hartford City, Ind., Feb. 14.—The big oil well struck in Washington township Monday is truly a freak. After flowing a stream of oil six and one-quarter inches in diameter for six hours it suddenly collapsed and yesterday began to pump salt water as copiously as it flowed oil at the start. Unless it changes its output the well, at first thought to be worth thousands of dollars, will be worthless.

CLAIM RINKARD IS INSANE.

Wabash, Ind., Feb. 14.—William Rinkard, a son of John Rinkard, testified in the Rinkard murder case yesterday to the brutality of Rinkard to his wife. It was shown that he had repeatedly whipped her with a blacksnake and had knocked her down and kicked her in the stomach. The evidence of the son was strong on this point.

Mrs. Jerry Fleenor testified she found Rinkard and his wife struggling in the yard and Mrs. Rinkard begged her to get help, as he was trying to murder her.

Attorney Kersey, for the prisoner, made the opening statement for the defense, at the close of the state's testimony. He declared it would be proved Rinkard was insane at the time of the shooting. This is the sole reliance of the defense and if it fails Rinkard will probably hang. Yesterday afternoon Dr. Kimball, surgeon at the Marion Soldiers' home; Dr. Hamilton, John Golding, John Cleon, Walter Weaver and others testified to their belief that Rinkard was insane. They declared they had known him to talk to himself as he walked along the street and he would indulge in bursts of profanity when alone. The doctors were disposed to think that a man who would attempt suicide was insane.

Baldness Cured Free

A TRIAL PACKAGE FREE.

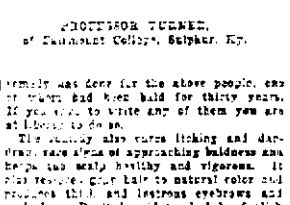
GEO. H. THATCHER, Covington, Ky., Prominent Ky. Official.



SCOTTSON TURNER, of Tallahassee College, Sulphur, Ky.

Thousands of bald heads honestly believe there is no cure for baldness. They feel so certain about it they won't try—they imagine there is a peculiar case beyond remedial application—the Foss treatment they regard as merely another directional hair grower. But why not take the chance? Why not have the little faith to send for a free trial. The remedy is pure and harmless, and the words of those who have tried it ought to convince anyone that the Foss treatment has remarkable merit or it could not stand popular scrutiny. Give the remedy a use and thus demonstrate disbelief to the world. Try the remedy that has made hair grow on heads that were supposed to be incurably bald.

The above cuts show plainly what this remedy has done for the above people, one of whom had been bald for thirty years. If you wish to write any of them you are at liberty to do so.

This remedy also cures itching and dandruff, stops all appearance of baldness and keeps the scalp healthy and vigorous. It also restores gray hair to natural color and produces thick and lustrous eyebrows and eyelashes. Don't be sidetracked by foolish prejudice or doubt, but write at once—today—for a free trial. Write to the Altenheim Medical Discovery Co., 2332 Butterfield Building, Cincinnati, Ohio, enclosing a 2 cent stamp to cover postage, merely giving name and address, and they will at once mail you a free trial package. It is perfectly harmless and has a red thermometer.

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council.

Gentlemen: I herewith submit to your honorable body my annual report for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1900. It explains in detail every account. You will find by examining this report that the following balances remain unexpended on the first day of January, 1901, to-wit:

Street special fund	624 61
Firemen's pension fund	1,692 32
Watermain fund	8,813 28

Considering the tax levy of last year for general purposes being about as low as it ever has been in the history of this city, I want to congratulate the officers of the different departments on the economy practiced therein. If your honorable body will carefully examine the different accounts of the departments you will find that the strictest economy has been practiced and I think it safe for the city now to set aside $20,000 out of the general funds to municipal electric light plant fund to be credited to said account on or before April 1st, 1901 when the next distribution of taxes will be made. Besides the accumulation of this $20,000 you will find the sinking fund has been increased over per a year ago to $11,628.73.

My reason for suggesting to you for the setting aside of $21,000 to municipal electric light plant fund is this, that I believe that the time has come without fail when the people of this city will demand the construction and ownership of a municipal electric light plant and as I have said in my last annual report all efforts of this government should be directed to this one point, to be ready to construct said plant within the next three years so as to be able to operate the same when the contract with the Jenney Electric Light company expires. The amount of $20,000 with the amount raised by tax levy will give us a net accumulation in that fund for two years past of $36,336.51. I also believe that in order to carry out these suggestions of mine an additional levy of 5 cents per $100 valuation should be made to the electric levy, making the total of that levy about 6 or 9 cents, which would yield an annual income of nearly $24,000 and in three years would give us a "working fund" of very near $100,000 without burdening any taxpayer in any particular way.

I would suggest in connection with this to your honorable body that you appoint a special committee of three members from your body to investigate the amount of delinquent taxes now upon the tax duplicate of the treasurer and try to get at some uniform way of making everybody pay his taxes. The amount delinquent is simply outrageously high, and it is no more than just and right that every owner of personal property as well as the owners of real estate should be compelled to pay his just amount of taxes. This is a serious matter and must be looked into or pure because people in general get more careless in paying their personal taxes from year to year, and unless a few reminders by the way of levies upon personal property are made it will not be long when real estate has to carry all the burden, while the non-taxpayers carry the election and dictate the amount of taxation. The water works department has paid interest due on bonds and I hope they will continue to do so.

I have no specific suggestions to make for any department except that I believe that all purchases made for the department of public health should be made in the same fair competition as they are made in other departments.

Respectfully,
Comptroller.

Recommendations concurred in and report received and referred to committee on finance.

COMMUNICATION BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council.

Gentlemen: We deem it a necessity to call your attention to the fact that in a number of instances two or more streets within the limits of the city and in various parts of the city bear one and the same name or names so near alike that a proper distinction cannot be really made, and that in other instances one and the same street bears two names.

It is important that these defects should be remedied before the names of streets are entered upon our new House Number Record, and inasmuch as this work is being pushed as rapidly as possible it is very important that such changes as your honorable body may deem necessary and proper be made as soon as possible. The changes when properly made will greatly simplify the portions of our house number records.

Respectfully,
Board of Public Works.
Per A. M. SCHMIDT,
Clerk.

COMMUNICATION WATER WORKS TRUSTEES.

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne.

We, the trustees of the water works of the city of Fort Wayne, would respectfully request your honorable body to acquiesce with us in drilling two additional ten-inch wells to the depth of four hundred feet north of station No. 1, known as the north side station.

Said wells to be drilled in accordance with terms and conditions in contract entered into with the Harmon Water Supply company, dated July 17th, 1899.

The test now being made by the Shaw-Kendall people has clearly demonstrated that our water supply lays north of said station, and two additional wells in this locality will add very largely to our water supply.

Respectfully submitted,
WM. TAGTMEYER,
WM. KAOUGH,
P. J. SINGLETON.

To the Mayor and Common Council.

Gentlemen: Your committee on contracts and franchises to which was submitted the contract of the "American District Telegraph Company" submits the following report. The committee recommends the passage of the ordinance when the contract is amended to provide that rentals "night watch boxes" shall be included in receipts upon which per cent to city is computed, and that no year shall the amount to the city be less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00.)

That there be a limitation as to charges made by company.

For one call box, 50 cents per month.
For four call boxes, 70 cents per month.
For ten call boxes, $1.00 per month.
For one night watch box, $3.00 per month; two additional boxes, $2.00 per month; for four watch boxes, $1.50 per month; for each additional box, $1.00 per month.

And when the contract is so amended the committee recommends the passage of the ordinance approving it.

WM. HOSEY,
WM. J. LENNART,
FRANK X. SCHUELLER,
HENRY SCHWARTZ.

To the Mayor and Common Council.

Gentlemen: Your committee on contracts and franchises to which was referred the contract of the board of public works with L. E. McIlhenny, report that when the contract is made to read as follows:

This agreement made and entered into this 10th day of November, 1900, by and between the City of Fort Wayne, of Allen county, Indiana, (hereinafter called the city), by and through its board of public works, party of the first part, and L. E. McIlhenny, party of the second part, witnesseth:

1. That the party of the first part by and through its board of public works aforesaid, under and by virtue of the powers conferred upon it by an act of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, entitled "An act concerning the incorporation and government of cities having a population of not less than thirty-five thousand nor more than forty-nine thousand, according to the United States census last preceding, and matters connected therewith, and declaring an emergency," approved March 6, 1893, does hereby, subject to the conditions herein expressed, authorize and empower the said party of the second part, his successors and assigns, and by the terms of this contract consent, permission and authority are by the said city given and granted unto said party of the second part, his successors and assigns, from and after the approval and ratification of this contract by an ordinance of the common council of the city, subject to the conditions hereinafter prescribed and expressed, to lay and maintain a single track for an interurban street passenger railway line, with the right to haul light express, mail and passenger baggage in connection therewith, to be operated by electricity or other improved power to be approved by said board, with all proper and convenient turn-outs, switches, feed wires and poles which may be necessary for the successful operation of a street railway system in, along and upon the streets and avenues of said city, hereafter named and described, and to use, maintain and operate the same, and to charge, demand and receive from passengers, rates of fare as hereinafter provided, for and in consideration of, and subject to the terms, conditions and limitations herein prescribed.

On Columbia street from west line of Harrison street to center of Calhoun street and to connection with tracks of other traction companies having tracks on Calhoun and Columbia streets east of center line on Calhoun street.

The streets and avenues herein named are intended to be streets and avenues heretofore and popularly known by the names herein mentioned, whether such names are in fact the legal designations of such streets and avenues or not.

The routes and lines of said street railway so located as aforesaid may be connected with suitable curves and switches, and feed wire lines may be erected along said route or elsewhere, subject in every case to the approval of the said board of public works.

In consideration of the rights and privileges herein and hereby granted the said party of the second part, his successors and assigns, upon the considerations herein fixed and expressed, that the said party of the second part agrees and binds himself to the following conditions, to-wit:

2. It is agreed by and between the said parts of the second part, his successors and assigns, may charge and be entitled to receive the following rates of fare and no more for each passenger over the age of five (5) years riding upon said cars within the limits herein described, and who shall have paid a cash fare at the rate of five cents. Such cash payment shall entitle such passenger to ride to the end of the line within the city on the car on which he has taken passage. Every passenger car run and operated by said party of the second part, his successors and assigns on said lines, shall be provided with a conductor, who shall collect fares and attend to the comforts and convenience of the passengers upon such car. Each of said conductors shall constantly have in his possession an ample and adequate supply of tickets, to be sold and delivered to all passengers desiring the same, and said second party may charge and be entitled to receive for the same the following rates and no more:

For six (6) of such tickets, twenty-five cents ($.25); for twenty-five (25) of such tickets one dollar ($1.00).

3. The said party of the second part, his successors and assigns shall build and maintain at some point along the line of their said railroad within the corporate limits of the city a station for unloading and loading express, baggage and mail; test said station to be located that the use of it by said second party, his successors and assigns will not interfere with the free use of the streets and avenues by the public; the party of the first part reserves the absolute right at all times to do the proper such rules and regulations in the transfer and unloading of passengers, express, baggage and mail from the cars of said second party, his successors and assigns as are necessary to insure the comfort, safety and convenience of the public.

4. The electric system used in the propulsion of said cars shall be the overhead system now in use by other companies in the city, unless some other system shall be mutually agreed upon by and between the board of public works and said second party, his successors and assigns. The entire system used by said party of the second part and all the means, devices and apparatus used in the supply, application and use of its propelling power, in all respects, which shall in any manner affect or endanger the safety of the public, shall at all times be kept open to the inspection of and under the supervision of the department of public safety of said city. As often as may be required by said department of public safety the said party of the second part shall furnish to said department a statement, showing the amount of electro-motive power used and the strength of current conveyed or used upon its wires; and said department shall at all times have the right to inspect and test the same, and order and require any such changes therein as may be necessary to insure as far as possible the safety of the public or to prevent damage to any property, and all damage to water pipes must be paid by said second party, his successors and assigns.

5. The said party of the second part, his successors and assigns, shall pave the space between all rails, including the space between the tracks where there are switches, and for a distance of twelve (12) inches on the outside of the outside of the rails of its tracks, and shall make all necessary repairs to said space under specifications both as to material and manner, as may be provided by the board of public works, and shall repave the same when necessary and ordered by the said board and keep the same in repair, said paving and repairing to be done under specifications both as to material and manner, as may be provided by the said board under the supervision of the city civil engineer of said city, it being understood and agreed, however, that said second party, his successors and assigns shall not be required to pave, repave or maintain the portion of the street hereinbefore provided with any different material or in any different manner than shall be required to be paved, repaved and maintained as to other portions of the streets where such paving, repaving and maintenance is herein required. And said party of the second part, his successors and assigns shall also keep in repair that part of the floor of all bridges and culverts crossed by any of their tracks which is situated between the outer rails of said tracks and for a distance of twelve inches on the outer side of each outer rail, and also the space between the tracks and switches where there are switches; and in case of failure on the part of said second party, his successors and assigns to make any such improvement and repairs as aforesaid, either to streets or crossings or bridges, as herein provided, upon reasonable notice by said board, then the said board of public works shall have the right to proceed to make any such improvements or repairs, and the cost of making the same shall be paid by said party of the second part, his successors and assigns, to the city on demand, and the collection thereof enforced as any other valid debt. And it is also agreed by and between said parties that the party of the second part, his successors and assigns, shall at all times keep on deposit in the city treasury to the credit of the said board of public works the sum of one hundred and fifty ($150.00) dollars, to be designated as an emergency fund. Whenever, in the opinion of said board of public works an emergency arises for the immediate repair of any dangerous defect found to exist in that part of any streets, alleys, avenues or public places, required by this contract to be kept in repair by said party of the second part, and the said party of the second part have failed on notice to immediately repair the same, the said board shall cause said repair to be made at once, and if the said party of the second part shall not promptly pay the bill for the cost of such repairs, when made out and presented at the office of the said party of the second part in said city, then said board may draw the amount of such bill from the said emergency fund, which fund shall be reimbursed by said parties of the second part without any delay and kept up to said amount of one hundred and fifty dollars ($150.00) aforesaid.

This provision as to an emergency fund is in addition to all other provisions herein contained on the subject of repairing streets and is not intended to modify or change any other provisions or penalties of this contract concerning the same.

6. The said party of the second part agrees and binds himself, his successors and assigns, to operate the interurban road over and along the streets and avenues herein designated in said city in such a manner as to render to the public at all times, first class and sufficient service.

LITTLE MORE SMALLPOX.

Dr. Carl Praegler, the county health officer, this afternoon stated that there were two new cases of smallpox east of Woodburn, but on the Indiana side of the state line. There is also a new quarter in Woodburn and two other exposures there have been quarantined.

SEXTETTE OF NEW SOLDIERS.

Six more recruits for the United States army regular service will leave Fort Wayne tomorrow for Indianapolis, where they will be assigned to the different regiments. They are: Carl C. Aker, Fort Wayne; Joseph Smith, New Haven; Clinton E. Nichols, Auburn; Arthur E. Towne, Auburn; Bert Baker, Auburn; Lyman M. Bell, Columbia City.

UNDUE QUARANTINE LAW.

Theodore Sorg and Mrs. Sorg, whose first name was unknown at the time of the making of the affidavit, will be tried in Justice Bullerman's office this afternoon for violation of the quarantine laws. Health Officer Brouse makes the complaint, which charges Mrs. Sorg with having torn down a quarantine card placed on her residence and charges Theodore Sorg with having left his home and circulated on the highway after being quarantined against scarlet fever.

MOST BEYOND RELIEF.

If It Were Not For Fort Wayne Indorsement People Might be Skeptical.

Mr. William Steller, of 221 West Superior street, says: "I was broken down in health for four years, caused me enough suffering to make any man think life was not worth living. The greatest pain I felt from them was in my head and this in addition to the backache nearly drove me crazy. The kidney secretions were highly colored and other symptoms of disordered kidneys existed. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Meyer & Co.'s drug store and they did me a world of good. They were the only remedy that relieved me and at the same time did not leave any harmful after effect."

TEDDY SOON TO RETURN.

Denver, Col., Feb. 14.—Vice President-elect Theodore Roosevelt, who has been hunting for several weeks in northwestern Colorado, will reach Rifle, Col., Saturday and will there board a Colorado Midland train to begin his homeward journey. It is not known whether he will accept the invitation extended to him to stop in Denver and address the legislature.

Dr. E. E. Wenger and Miss Maude Wenger will go to Columbia City this evening to attend the banquet and exercises in honor of the forty-fifth anniversary of the Masonic lodge there.

whom his majesty had gallantly led to the throne by the hand, was the first to do so.

Her example was followed on all sides.

Then the gentleman usher of the black rod, after a deep obeisance, hurried to the house of commons and, within a few minutes the speaker, wearing his state robes and attended by the sergeant-at-arms and chaplain, appeared at the bar.

OATH ADMINISTERED.

In solemn tones the lord chancellor administered the oath, with the king sitting. The lord chancellor then, kneeling, handed the king a roll, which he signed, after which all present once more stood up and taking off his field marshal's plumed hat, rose and in clear, ringing tones, read his speech. Then he turned to the queen, helped her to her feet and out of the chamber, preceded by the procession through the royal gallery again and into the robing room, whence, within a few minutes they emerged, entered the state carriage and drove away amid a tumult of cheers to Buckingham palace.

The procession speedily traversed the short route, to the accompaniment of roars and shouts, and reached the royal entrance to the palace of Westminster, beneath the Victoria tower, at the appointed time. There the great officers of state and the others who were to take part in the ceremony had assembled in order to receive their majesties.

SMALL CHAMBER FILLED.

The diminutive chamber was filled to its capacity by the highest and noblest of the kingdom, the greater part of the floor space being occupied by peeresses and other ladies introduced by peers.

The United States ambassador, Joseph H. Choate, and the other ambassadors occupied a special enclosure behind the bench of the bishops.

The whole scene was brilliant in the extreme. Diamonds flashed out of the folds of the black dresses of the ladies, while color was added to the scene by the robes of the peers and the state officials.

By 1 o'clock the scene in the old palace yard was one of great animation, owing to the constant arrival of carriages containing royal personages and other distinguished people.

STATE COACHES USED.

The rich uniforms of the diplomatic corps, the robes of the officers of state and the military and naval uniforms formed a brilliant medley which gradually disappeared through the entrances of the respective houses.

The king and the robed procession advanced to the house of lords in the order already detailed. As soon as his majesty was enthroned the lord great chamberlain received the royal command to summon the members of the house of commons to hear the speech from the throne.

The black robed gentleman usher of the black rod (Sir Michael Biddiuppe) reached the house of commons at 2:20 p. m., and the members, headed by the speaker (Mr. William Court Gully), proceeded to the house of lords.

THE KING'S SPEECH.

My Lords and Gentlemen: I address you for the first time at a moment of national sorrow, when the whole country is mourning the irreparable loss we have so recently sustained, and which has fallen with peculiar severity on myself. My beloved mother during her long and glorious reign has set an example before the world of what a monarch should be. It is my earnest desire to walk in her footsteps.

Amid this public and private grief it is satisfactory to me to be able to assure you that my relations with the other powers continue friendly.

The war in South Africa is not yet entirely terminated, but the capitals of the enemy and his principal lines of communication are in my possession, and measures have been taken which will, I trust enable my troops to deal effectually with the forces by which they are still opposed.

I greatly regret the loss of life and expenditure of treasure due to the fruitless guerilla warfare maintained by Boer partisans in the former territories of the two republics. Their early submission is much desired in their own interests, as until it takes place it will be impossible for me to establish in those colonies the institutions which will secure the equal rights of all the white inhabitants and protection and justice for the native population.

The capture of Pekin by the allied forces and the happy release of those who were besieged in the legations, results to which my Indian troops and my naval forces largely contributed, have been followed by the submission of the Chinese government to the demands insisted on by the powers. Negotiations are proceeding regarding the manner in which compliance with these demands is to be effected.

The establishment of the Australian commonwealth was proclaimed at Sydney January 1 with many manifestations of popular enthusiasm and rejoicing. My deeply beloved and lamented mother had assented to the virit of the duke of Cornwall and York to open the first parliament of the new commonwealth in her name. A separation from my son, especially at such a moment, cannot be otherwise than deeply painful, but I still desire to give effect to her late majesty's wishes, and as evidence of her interest, as well as of my own, in all that concerns the welfare of my subjects beyond the seas, I have decided that the visit to Australia shall not be abandoned and shall be extended to New Zealand and the dominion of Canada.

The prolongation of the hostilities in South Africa has led me to make further call on the patriotism and devotion of Canada and Australia. I rejoice that my request has met with a prompt and loyal response, and large additional contingents from those colonies will embark for the seat of war at an early date.

The expedition organized for the suppression of the rebellion in Ashanti was crowned with signal success. The endurance and gallantry of my native troops, ably commanded by Sir James Willcox and led by brother officers, have overcome both the stubborn resistance of the most warlike tribes of West Africa and the exceptional difficulties of the climate and season of the country in which the operations were conducted.

The garrison of Coomassie, which was besieged by the enemy, has been relieved after a prolonged and gallant defense. The principal kings have surrendered and the chief impediment to the progress of the development of this rich portion of my West Africa possessions has now, I hope, been finally removed.

The suffering and mortality caused by the prolonged drought in a large portion of my Indian empire have been greatly alleviated by a seasonable rainfall, but I regret to add that in parts of the Bombay presidency distress of a serious character still continues, which my officers are using every measure to mitigate.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons: The estimates for the year will be laid before you. Every care has been taken to limit their amount, but the naval and military requirements of the country and especially the outlay consequent upon the South African war has involved an inevitable increase.

The demise of the crown renders it necessary that renewed provision shall be made for the civil list. I place unreservedly at your disposal those hereditary revenues which were so placed by my predecessor and I have commanded that the papers necessary for a full consideration of the subject shall be laid before you.

My Lords and Gentlemen: Proposals will be submitted to your judgment for increasing the efficiency of my military forces.

Certain changes in the constitution of the court of final appeal are rendered necessary in consequence of the increased resort to it which has resulted from the expansion of the empire during the last two generations.

Legislation will be proposed to you for the amendment of the law relating to education.

Legislation has been prepared and if the time at your disposal proves to be adequate, it will be laid before you, for the purpose of regulating the voluntary sale by landlords to occupying tenants in Ireland, for amending and consolidating the factory and workshop acts, for the better administration of the law respecting lunatics, for amending the public health acts in regard to water supplies, for the prevention of drunkenness in licensed houses and public places, and for amending the law of literary copyright.

I pray that Almighty God may continue to guide you in the conduct of your deliberations and that He may bless them with success.

The king wore a field marshal's chapeau when he read his speech. His voice was clear and firm. After the reading of the speech the procession was reformed, the king proceeded to the robing room, unrobed, and left Westminster in the state carriage in the same order as it entered.

COMPETITION FOR SEATS.

The opening of the first parliament of the new reign witnessed the usual competition on the part of members of the house of commons to secure seats. Despite the arctic weather the members stole up to the doors of parliament house shortly after midnight. J. H. Johnstone, conservative member for the northwest, or Horsham, division of Sussex, secured the place of honor at the head of the queue. By daybreak a score of members had assembled, and after that time the arrivals were in rapid succession.

At 10:30 o'clock a detachment of yeoman of the guard from the tower, in their quaint uniforms and carrying halberds, arrived and conducted the customary search of the vaults for imaginary conspirators with the usual result.

NEWS IN POLICE CIRCLES.

Jack Devany was the only thoughtless person found in Fort Wayne last night. Jack had been out making the rounds and ran across the Carrie Nation brigade advertising a dance, and thinking it was the real thing and that all the booze joints would be smashed before morning he started to lay in a load before the supply ran out. He got pretty decently tanked and was then careless enough to march right into the arms of the police. Jack has had a pretty fair record for about a year, and on his solemn promise to err no more the mayor allowed him to depart in peace.

John Reihn returned from Richmond last night, having in charge his son, James, who was found in the quaker city day before yesterday in a demented condition. In response to a telegram from the chief of police at Richmond an officer was sent to the train to meet them on their arrival at this city. The young man was taken to his home, and as his condition is not alarming, it is thought a week or two of rest and careful nursing will bring him out all right.

The fire department was called out last night and made a run to the wholesale house of Moellering Bros. & Millard, where a fire was supposed to be in progress. It proved a false alarm. The roof of the building is covered with snow and the moon shone upon it in such a manner as to make the reflection look exactly like a huge column of smoke, which so disturbed a passer-by that he sent in an alarm.

The patrol wagon was called to the corner of Lillie and Creighton avenue last night, where a row was reported to be in progress. When the officers arrived there was no sign of a disturbance and no arrests were made.

Humane Officer Schlandroff loves a joke about as well as anybody and frequently turns a trick on the boys at the police station. This morning when the tables were turned on him he promptly acknowledged the corn and cigars were brought out forthwith.

Mrs. E. P. Green has recovered from an attack of the grip at Canajoharie, N. Y., by the use of Dr. Miles' Pain Pills.

Among the victims of the grip epidemic now so prevalent, F. Coyle is now recovering at Canton, O., by the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine and Pills.

W. E. Nibells, of St. Louis, Mo., who was down with grip, is reported much improved. He used Dr. Miles' Nervine and Pills.

The friends of Mrs L Denison will be pleased to learn of her recovery from grip at her home in Bay City, Mich., through the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine and Pills.

Everybody says that J. W. Udy is looking splendid since his recovery from the grip at his home in Des Moines, Iowa. They all know that Dr. Miles' Nervine was what cured him.

Prosecuting Attorney Charles L. DeWaele, who has passed the three-score mile stone, had a time with the grip, but when seen at his home in Roscommon, Mich., the other day, he said Dr. Miles' Nervine was what cured him.

At nearly three score and ten Mrs. Galen Humphrey was fighting against odds when the grip attacked he, but she took Dr. Miles' Nervine and now her neighbors in Wareham, Mass., remark on how well she is looking.

After an illness of five weeks from the grip, Mrs. Harriett Jackson is again about and looking fine. She began taking Dr. Miles Nervine after the fourth week. Her home is in Bowling Green, Mo.

ROYAL PAIR WEDS

THE CEREMONY BRILLIANT

OLD CUSTOMS PREVAILED

MADRID IS PATROLLED BY TROOPS.

Madrid, Feb. 14. In the chapel of the royal palace, in the presence of the royal family and all the aristocracy and officialdom of Spain, Dona Maria De Las Mercedes De Bourbon y Hapsburg, princess of the Asturias, was today wedded to Prince Charles Bourbon.

The city is still patrolled by troops, but up to 10:30 p. m. all was perfectly quiet.

The wedding ceremony proceeded with perfect tranquility. The thousands of spectators in the neighborhood of the palace and filling the earth ground not within the railings, were quite orderly.

They were watched by detachments of cavalry, who also kept order throughout the city.

At 10:30 o'clock this morning there assembled in the private apartments of Queen Regent Marie Christina those forming the bride's party, consisting of her mother, the queen regent; her brother, the boy King Alfonso XIII.; his sister, the Infanta Maria Teresa; her aunts, the Infantas Isabella and Eulalie; her uncle, Archduke Eugene of Austria; her grandmother, Archduchess Elizabeth, with all the high retainers of the court, ladies in waiting, grandees of Spain and gentlemen in waiting.

At the same hour, in like manner, there gathered in the apartments of Infanta Dona Isabella, the persons composing the party of the bridegroom. These were the patents of Prince Charles, the countess of Caserat, the duke and duchess of Calabra, his sisters, Dona Maria Immaculata, Dona Maria Pia and Dona Maria Josephine, and their train of ladies and gentlemen.

THE WEDDING PARTY.

The bridegroom's party emerged first and proceeded along the winding, massive granite corridors to the chapel, being followed by the bride's cortege from the queen regent's apartments. Their places were respectively to the right and left, but in front of the altar the bride and bridegroom stopped at the steps leading to the altar and there kneeled, thus remaining throughout the mass, which was said by Cardinal Sancha, archbishop of Toledo, primate of Spain. Assisting were Cardinal Casanares, archbishop of Valladolid; Cardinal Herrera, archbishop of Santiago de Compostela, and Cardinal Casana, bishop of Barcelona.

Also attending were the bishop of Madrid, the bishop chaplain of the Place de Sion and several other prelates, church dignitaries and cardinals, whose places were within what might be termed the presbytery.

The mass celebrated was low mass, there being no singing though the organ performed solemn, sacred selections, including one written for the occasion by Zubiaurre.

THE MARRIAGE CUSTOMS.

As the bride and bridegroom knelt upon cushions touching the steps of the altar, a white satin bordered veil, three yards long and a half a yard wide, was spread over the head and shoulders of the bride, reaching over the shoulders of the groom, but leaving his head uncovered, while, according to the Spanish custom, a white satin ribbon, called a yoke, was tied about the neck of the couple, the knot being made between them signifying their union. After the mass the simple Catholic ritual of marriage was not differing in any detail from that uniting the most humble members of that faith, except that the ritual was read from a specially printed book in Spanish. Wedding rings were exchanged by both parties, these, of course, being of great value and unique workmanship.

GIVE COINS TO BRIDE.

Another custom observed was that of giving coins to the bride by the bridegroom. These may be pennies or silver or gold coins, according to the position and wealth of the contracting parties, but they must always number thirteen.

These employed today were thirteen gold coins, each weighing an ounce and being of the coinage bearing the bust of Felipe, the first Spanish Bourbon monarch. They were the same used at the wedding of Queen Isabel II., the grandmother of the bride.

After the conclusion of the simple wedding service the cardinal primate pronounced a short discourse, exhorting the wife to love and obey her husband and the husband to love and cherish his wife, adding:

The cardinal also made reference to the virtues of the ancestors of the bride and groom and pointed out the obligations the prince and princess were under to give a good example to those in an inferior station of life, and then bestowed the papal and his own benediction.

TWO FAMILIES MERGED.

Arm in arm, the newly wedded couple arose and left the chapel, followed by a single cortege, the two family parties merging into one, instead of leaving separately, as they had entered. They traversed the long corridors to the apartments of the queen regent, where a record of the marriage was made in a special civil register, the royal family and the same witnesses signing who signed the wedding contract on Tuesday. This ceremony ended, all repaired to the state dining room, in which the betrothal ball was held Monday evening and partook of a wedding breakfast.

The princess and the now prince of the Asturias will occupy apartments in the palace. It is not intended that they shall take a wedding journey at present.

Tonight the Count and Countess Caserta and most of the wedding guests will leave the city.

The chapel in which the ceremony was held is located in the north wing of the palace. It is rotunda-shaped, with the nave opening on the main gallery of the palace and running about the inner court. Ordinarily it will seat about 150 persons, but today every available inch of space was occupied in order to accommodate the invited guests.

Though the skylights would have afforded ample light, they were covered with heavy yellow hangings, through which the sunlight was unable to penetrate except in yellow gleams, which added to the sombre appearance the massive style of architecture already gave to the chapel. Sixteen tall pillars of gray marble supported the domed roof. Color was lent to the scene by a red Brussels carpet, which covered the entire floor to the foot of the altar, where to the right, entering from the gallery of the dames, the wall was decorated with frescoes of the Holy Trinity and the tutelary saints of Spain by Gesonto, while above the altar is an "Annunciation" painted by Rafael during his later days.

ROYALTY GATHERED.

Today beneath the chapel's dome gathered royalty and the grandees of Spain, save the leaders and followers of the anti-government element. On the gospel side of the altar was seated the bride's party, consisting of the king, the queen regent and other members of the royal family, with suite of attendants and the members of the royal household.

On the same side of the chapel, on an adjoining tribune, were grandees of Spain, members of higher religious orders, distinguished personages, army and navy officials and civil authorities. On the same side of the chapel another tribune was occupied by former cabinet ministers, the civil governor of Madrid, the county council, municipal councillors and members of military orders and followers of Carlos III and Isabella Caterolica.

On the epistle side, nearest to the altar, were the most of the ministry, with their wives, and the presidents and other officials of the senate and chamber of deputies. Behind them were the chiefs of the palace and the professors of the children of the royal family.

The next tribune was devoted to the members of the diplomatic corps and their wives, and that furthermost from the altar was occupied by the gentlemen in waiting of the palace.

The space in front of the tribunes was filled with chairs and benches, on which were seated the chiefs of the palace retainers, with the Duke Di Sotamayor at their head, a body of halberdiers, the palace chaplains and other minor palace attendants. The side aisle was occupied by commissioners of the principalities of Asturias and provincial deputations.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Feb. 14—Speculative interest in wheat was occupied early today in an endeavor to reconcile various features of the foreign situation and while the consideration was on the market ruled dull and irregular with prices close to yesterday's close. Continental markets were strong, particularly Paris and Liverpool closed 1d up. Encouraging as these items appeared the crowd was compelled to admit a slow export condition, despite low ocean freights. May opened a shade higher to a shade lower at 75c to 75½c, touched 76¼c and reacted to 75½c. Local receipts were 81 cars, 1 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 313 cars against 299 last week and 500 a year ago.

Corn was dull. May opened unchanged to a shade higher at 39¾c@39½c, sold to 39½c, 39½c and reacted to 39¼c@39½c. Receipts were 326 cars.

There was scarcely any business in oats. May opening unchanged at 29½c and holding trade. Receipts were 306 cars.

Provisions were dull but steady in sympathy with a strong hog market. May pork opened a shade higher at $14.12½@14.15, sold to $14.17½. May lard unchanged at $7.55 selling to $7.57½ and May ribs unchanged at $7.10, advancing to $7.10@7.12½.

THE CLOSE

Wheat—Feb. 73½c; March 74½c; May 75¾@75½c.

Oats—Feb. 29½c; May 29½c.

Pork—Feb. $14.12; May $14.32½.

Lard—Feb. $7.52; March $7.50; May $7.57½; July $7.82; Sept. $7.70.

Ribs—Feb. $7.12½; May $7.17½; Sept. $7.30.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Chicago, Feb. 14—Cattle—Receipts, 12,000; choice steady; others weak; inferior to fair 10c low; butchers' stock steady. Good to prime steers, $5.00@6.00; poor to medium, $3.40@4.90; stockers and feeders, $2.75@4.50; cows, $2.50@4.15; heifers, $2.90@4.80; canners, $1.90@2.50; bulls, $2.25@4.30; calves, $4.00@6.25. Texas fed steers $4.00@4.75; Texas grass steers, $3.90@4.00; Texas bulls, $2.50@3.00.

Hogs—Receipts today, 35,000; tomorrow, 25,000; left over, 2,000. Market opened a shade higher, closing easy; top, $5.07½. Mixed and butchers, $5.02½@5.07½; good to choice heavy, $5.02½@5.07½; rough heavy, $5.00@5.02½; light, $5.02½@5.05; bulk of sales, $5.02½@5.05.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Feb. 14—London advanced prices of some of the American stocks this morning again and the pressure to sell showed exhaustion at the opening here. Small fractional changes were very evenly divided between gains and losses, gains in some of the metal stocks approaching a point.

A good demand arose for some of the low-priced railroads. Steel stocks and Brooklyn Rapid Transit, which imparted a generally strong tone to the market. American Tobacco, Continental Tobacco, People's Gas, Sugar and Western Union were bought heavily and rose 1@1½. Steel and Wire, Federal Steel and the shelling shares improved as much, and Del. Lacka. and Fort Dodge, Chicago Great Western preferred, Chicago and Eastern Illinois, Reading second preferred, St. Louis and San Francisco common and second preferred, and Wisconsin Central issues were taken confidently and advanced 1@1½.

The prominent railroad stocks advanced but they were not in especial demand. Some of the Granger and Pacific securities the market. Resultant declines reached from 1 to 2 points in Sugar, St. Paul, Tobacco, Union Pacific, Continental Tobacco, Great Northern preferred, Western Union, Missouri Pacific and Southern.

There was some recovery before 11 o'clock. Manipulation of the local traction stock rallied them from ½ to 2½ and induced buying for both accounts elsewhere. The rebound carried some stocks above the parity with the recovery from the lowest point a point or over in Sugar, Atchison, Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, St. Paul, People's Gas, Federal Steel, Steel and Wire and many others. Tobacco was exceptional, strong [illegible] above yesterday's close and North American raised 2. Pierre Marquette sold 6% over yesterday's price.

He Can't Believe It.

He's blowing with all his might and can barely stir the recording hand from zero. There's many a big, healthy looking man who is weak in the lungs. Probably half or two-thirds of his lung surface barely knows the contact of oxygen. He's the kind of man, who, when a cough attacks him, goes galloping down the road toward consumption. Many such a man has found strength and healing for weak lungs and tissues lacerated by coughing and drained by hemorrhages, in the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The healing power of this medicine in pulmonary diseases seems little short of marvelous at times, so extreme are the conditions which it cures. The "Discovery" contains no alcohol, and no narcotics.

"When I started to take your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' writes Mr. A. F. Noordsy, of Bear Lake, N. Y., Box 112, "I had a regular consumptive cough, of which I was afraid, and eventually cautioned me and warned me concerning it. I was losing weight rapidly, was very pale and had no appetite whatever. Now my condition is changed entirely. I do not cough at all, have gained eight pounds in weight, have recovered my healthy color, and my appetite is enormous. I can recommend your medicine to everybody who may be in need of the same, and it is a sure cure."

CAR LINE SOLD

EDWIN T. EARL DISPOSES OF HIS INTERESTS.

ARMOUR CAR LINE THE OWNER

NOW HAS MONOPOLY OF FRUIT CAR EQUIPMENT.

A deal has been consumated whereby Edwin T. Earl, of San Francisco, Cal., has disposed of his interest in the Continental Fruit express, consisting of 1,632 cars, to the Fruit Growers' express, better known as the Armour car line. Negotiations for the sale of Earl's fruit interests are also said to be in progress. The deal involves the transfer of about $2,000,000 of property interests. Edwin T. Earl, it is stated, will retire permanently from the car line business. The Armour Car line, by assuming control of the Continental Car line, secures a monopoly of the refrigerator car business in California except the handling of the Southern California orange crop, a percentage of which will continue to be handled in Santa Fe refrigerator cars.

QUARANTINE LIFTED.

The Wabash ticket agent has received notice of the removal of quarantine from Antwerp, Ohio, and passengers are again allowed to board the trains at that point. For two weeks the railway company refused to bring passengers from that city to Fort Wayne.

THE TRAINMEN'S BALL.

Everything is now in readiness for the annual ball of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen next Monday night. Over 400 tickets have been sold and, while only a portion of them will be used, there is every indication of one of the best attended and most pleasant dances of the season. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Auth will lead the grand march, seconded by F. A. Miller and lady.

COLD DELAYED TRAINS.

The cold weather last night made schedule time impossible and trains on all roads were more or less behind time this morning and last night No. 5, the Pennsylvania limited, and No. 21 were late, the former two hours and the latter one hour and fifty-five minutes.

GRIP TACKLES SMITHIES.

La grippe has laid hold of the employes in the Bass blacksmith shop with a tight grasp and the force was never more seriously supplied than it is today. Enough of the members are sick to completely shut down three fires and render that many gangs idle. Among the sick ones are Jacob Hausbach, William Lehmkuhl, K. Sullivan, Frank Deggitz and Martin Henschler.

SMITLEY RALLIES.

Earl Smitley has rallied from the depression following the amputation of his leg yesterday and Dr. C. B. Stemen says the young man's chances for recovery are very good. The limb was amputated just below the hip. Mr. Smitley is the brakeman who was injured at Plymouth yesterday.

TRANSFORMERS FOR CURACOA.

Today fifteen of Mr. Wood's latest type of oil transformers left the Fort Wayne Electric works for Curacoa, Dutch West Indies. This is not the first shipment of electrical apparatus that has been made by the Electric company to that country. In fact, a constantly increasing business is now being transacted with the islands.

THE MARTIN FUNERAL.

Master Mechanic Geeorge S. McKee, of the Wabash, went to St. Louis last night, where he joined other officials in an excursion to Litchfield, Ill., today, to attend the funeral of the late M. M. Martin, which occurred there this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The funeral party included General Manager Joseph Ramsey and nearly every transportation and motive power official of the road. A special train carried the party to and from Litchfield.

NOT A STEAM-MAKER.

A dispatch from Syracuse, N. Y., to the Chicago Record tells the following interesting story: "That milk is not equal to water as a steam-producing agent was demonstrated yesterday on the Erie and Central New York railroad by passenger train No. 2, which left Cincinnatus at 7:30 o'clock and was due in Cortland an hour and a half later. The train stopped at the water pump and milk station in Cincinnatus for a supply of water. Fireman John Barney, a new employe, made a wrong connection and filled the engine tank with sour milk. The steam dropped rapidly after the transaction, because the milk curdled as soon as it struck the heat, and clogged the pipes, and such a sputtering about the gauge took place that Engineer Jonas Miller became frightened, and at Freetown asked the dispatcher for an extra engine to haul his train to the end of its run."

TAKEN TO PORT HOMER.

Fireman W. Eaton accompanied the remains of the late Charles E. Glenn to Wellsville last night. At that city they were taken in charge by a brother of the deceased, who is engaged in the hardware trade there. Interment will occur tomorrow at Port Homer, a small place six miles out from Wellsville. Young Glenn was a member of the Pennsylvania Voluntary Relief association and held a life policy of $500, payable to his mother.

IN NEW QUARTERS.

Tomorrow J. H. Hobrock and his shop clerks will occupy the new office quarters that have been fitted up for them in the Pittsburg shops. The new quarters will be more convenient and pleasant than were the old rooms.

SPECIAL TO MONROEVILLE.

The Pennsylvania company will send out a special train tonight carry a number of people to Monroeville, to attend the Catholic fair. The train leaves the station at 7 o'clock and returning will leave Monroeville at 12 o'clock. The Catholic fair was advertised for several weeks ago, but smallpox at Monroeville caused a postponement of the festival.

HAD A FOOT INJURED.

Engineer M. Cain, of the Nickel Plate, is off duty, nursing a lame foot. Tuesday he had the misfortune to drop a heavy crowbar upon the member, bruising the flesh painfully.

GROWING IN POPULARITY.

The practice of paying $50 to $200 to the members of an association in whose family there has been a death is extending beyond the confines of benevolent organizations and their auxiliaries. Particularly is this true in the east, where numerous "burial" associations are springing up. Passenger conductors on the Jersey Central have had such an association for several years, keeping it distinctly separate from the O. R. C. Over 100 passenger conductors on the Philadelphia and Reading organized a similar association last week. The plan is for each member to pay $1 per month as dues, and in case of death his widow or heirs will receive $200, and when a member's wife dies he will receive $100. If a member is disabled he is to be paid $200, and if he leave the service all money paid into the organization will be refunded.

ENGINES COLLIDE.

There was a collision between Nickel Plate switch engines back of the Arlington hotel this afternoon, Nos. 201 and 40, going in opposite directions, came together on the curve with force sufficient to disable them and necessitate a trip to Stony Island for light repairs. View of the tracks was obstructed by some cars on a siding. Nobody injured.

ENGINE LEAVES THE TRACK.

Engine 352, which was pulling the first section of westbound freight train No. 79, on the Pittsburg, went off the derail at the Big Four crossing in Warsaw, pulling two cars with her. The wreck crew was called to the scene at 10 o'clock this morning and is still there. Nobody hurt.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Indianapolis Journal: "The Wabash and the Big Four have furnished more able high grade railway officials than any ten other systems that could be named."

P. J. Fisher left for Pittsburg last night on business for the Bass works.

After an illness of ten days Brakeman Otto Oldfest has reported for duty on the Nickel Plate.

Master Mechanic J. J. Muir, of the Bass works, has returned from a business trip to Pittsburg.

Conductor George Harper, who had been sick a few days, resumed work on the Nickel Plate yesterday.

Conductor John Holly is sick and Brakeman E. Bedson is taking a rest. Both are Nickel Plate employes.

W. F. Scherer, a tinner at the Pittsburg shops, has gone to the country to attend the funeral of his uncle.

Local Brakeman J. C. Hurry, of the Nickel Plate, is taking a few days' lay-off for private business and rest.

Engineer Frank T. Sleeper, who was sick with the grip about two weeks, is on duty again on the Nickel Plate.

Henry Kloepper and Ed Rist, boilermakers, were sent to Peru today to work a week in the Wabash shops there.

Ben Bowers, of the Pittsburg car machine shop, was called to Wooster, Ohio, yesterday to see his mother, who is very sick.

John Steinbouser, of the Pittsburg planing mills, is off duty for a few days, nursing a finger, which was pinched yesterday.

H. H. Matthewson and P. J. Scully, who had been sick, returned to their respective duties in the Pittsburg shops this morning.

George McCormick, Nickel Plate conductor, reported for work this morning. His child, who had been sick, is improving.

M. F. Howe, for many years ticket agent of the Toledo and Ohio Central at Findlay, is dead. He was widely known in railway circles.

T. D. Pickard, superintendent of the Chicago branch of the Bass foundry, is in the city today on business connected with his office.

Mrs. Casey, wife of Machinist John Casey, of the Bass works, was called to Wabash today to see her sister, Mrs. C. M. Sailors, who is seriously ill.

John M. Landenburger, of the Indiana Road Machine company, and William Paul, of the Paul Manufacturing company, are in St. Louis on business for their respective companies.

Carl Lathrop is now a brakeman on the Nickel Plate road. He was formerly a switchman in the Pennsylvania yards, a position he resigned over a year ago to accept a similar one on the Baltimore and Ohio road.

Conductor Frank Rogers is sick and Brakeman Swain has sickness in his family. They are off duty.

Engineers U. H. Kohler and George Kenzill and Firemen C. B. Whitman and C. M. Somers are sick and Firemen F. W. Paul, O. T. Peterson and G. L. Lehman are off duty to look after private affairs. They are Pittsburg employes.

A. C. Davis, electrician and motive power inspector of the Pittsburg, has gone east in the interest of the company. He will visit Erie, New Castle and Schenectady. The latter city is the headquarters of the General Electric people.

A sleighing party drove into and broke one of the Pittsburg safety gates on Broadway at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning. The watchman could not learn the names of the driver nor of the young people who composed the party.

The Erie has an extra force of 300 men employed in converting all its old-fashioned vestibule cars into wide vestibule cars.

The Wabash has instructed its agents at Buffalo and those at Detroit and western cities not to ticket Chinamen over the Canadian branch.

Clerk George Anderson, of the Pennsylvania freight yards, is sick, and Walter R. Gerberding has been assigned to perform the clerical duties there for awhile.

Conductors C. S. Thomas, W. E. Rork, J. S. Carey, George Cassidy and P. C. Dinklage and Brakemen Rice, St. John and H. W. Cullen have resumed work on the Pittsburg after an absence.

Within the last thirty days the Panhandle has promoted on different divisions twenty-five or more firemen to be engineers, the heavy freight business necessitating increasing the number of train crews.

Division Master Mechanic Gordon Wood, of the Wabash, was the guest of his brother, Lieutenant Wood, of the Pennsylvania, yesterday. He was en route to his home in Toledo, after attending court in Indianapolis.

General Manager Underwood, of the Baltimore and Ohio, has just issued an order to the heads of the different departments to the effect that civil service rules must be observed in all matters of appointment, and that no outside men are to be given preference.

Yesterday the Pennsylvania company hired Clyde Kliesbaur and C. F. Goodyear as freight brakemen. A number of other applicants who have successfully passed the examinations are expected to be placed upon the extra list soon, if business continues to increase.

John V. Gruber is at home, being treated for injuries sustained during the burning of the Commercial hotel at Kewanna, Ill. The accident is remembered by The Sentinel readers. Mr. Gruber is a boilermaker and for some time has been engaged in installing gas plants for the Kerr Murray works.

IN THE AIR.

No one can escape the La Grippe germ because when an epidemic of the disease is prevailing the air is laden with it.

The reason everyone does not have the disease at the same time is because the persons who are enjoying perfect health are able to successfully resist and throw off the infection, while those who for any reason are not in the best of health fall ready victims.

The first symptoms are those of acute catarrh, resembling a hard cold and if prompt treatment is applied at this time, it can easily be broken up; one of the best remedies at this stage is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, sold by druggists everywhere and if taken freely, say one tablet every hour or two or two or three days, the danger of pneumonia and serious complications will be averted.

The Rev. L. E. Palmer, Baptist clergyman of Corsco, Mich., makes a statement of interest to all catarrh and grip sufferers. He says: Stuart's Catarrh Tablets have certainly been a blessing to me. I have used them freely this fall and winter and have found them a safeguard against La Grippe and catarrhal troubles from which I had suffered for years. I feel that I can freely and conscientiously recommend them."

Persons who suffer from catarrh of the head and throat are very susceptible to La Grippe and such will find a pleasant, convenient and safe remedy in this new catarrh cure.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are composed entirely of harmless antiseptic gums and may be used as freely as necessary as they contain no cocaine, opium or poisonous drug of any kind.

WOMEN MUST SLEEP.

Avoid Nervous Prostration.

If you are dangerously sick what is the first duty of your physician? He quiets the nervous system, he deadens the pain, and you sleep well.

Friends ask, "what is the cause?" and the answer comes in pitying tones, nervous prostration. It came upon you so quietly in the beginning, that you were not alarmed, and when sleep deserted you night after night until your eyes fairly burned in the darkness, then you tossed in nervous agony praying for sleep.

MRS. A. HARTLEY.

You ought to have known that when you ceased to be regular in your courses, and you grew irritable without cause, that there was serious trouble somewhere.

You ought to know that indigestion, exhaustion, womb displacements, fainting, dizziness, headache, and backache send the nerves wild with affright, and you cannot sleep.

Mrs. Hartley, of 224 W. Congress St., Chicago, Ill., whose portrait we publish, suffered all these agonies, and was entirely cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; her case should be a warning to others, and her cure carry conviction to the minds of every suffering woman of the unfailing efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Grip robbed me of my sleep and I was nearly crazed with neuralgia and headache. Dr. Miles' Pain Pills and Nervine cured me."—Mrs. Pearl Bush, Holland, Mich.

"My stomach was affected by grip and I could eat nothing but crackers and milk. I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine and Pain Pills and the trouble disappeared."—Mrs. J. Lindsey, Montrose, Minn.

"When I was prostrated with grip and my heart and nerves were in bad shape, Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure gave me new life and health."—Mrs. Geo. Collie, Elgin, Ill.

"I had been in bed three weeks with grip when my husband brought me Dr. Miles' Nervine, Pain Pills and Nerve and Liver Pills. I was cured."—Mrs. J. Reisler, Franklin, Ind.

SPECIAL.

On Friday Morning We Will Place on Sale

Three Hundred United States Army Rifles and Cavalry Swords - - -

THESE guns were bought at a sale which took place at the U. S. Government Arsenal at Governor's Island, New York. All of them saw actual service on the battlefields of the North and South, many of them were in every engagement from Bull Run to Appomattox. These old guns are admirably adapted to decorative purposes—they are particularly desirable as souvenirs of the war which was fought a generation ago, and every American family should be proud to own one of these war relics. Nearly all of these guns are in good condition, with the exception of some rust, which is easily removed. They originally cost the U. S. Government $15 to $20 apiece, we place them on sale at the almost ridiculous price of

LOCAL LINES.

H. B. Tobey is transacting business in Indianapolis.

Miss Beatrice Benninghoff is visiting friends in St. Joe.

The Misses Rurode will give a euchre party on Tuesday afternoon.

Judge Robert Lowry has returned from a business visit to Indianapolis.

Mrs. A. D. Cressler entertained the West End Whist club yesterday afternoon.

Kelley Wright, who recently enlisted in the navy, has gone to San Francisco to be assigned to duty.

Rabbi Frederick Cohn delivered an interesting lecture on Abraham Lincoln before the pupils of the Hamilton school yesterday afternoon.

The Newsboys' union will hold religious meetings each Sunday in one of the rooms in the third floor of the Y. M. C. A. building. Local ministers will be in charge of the meeting.

Miss Kate Auger and Miss Josie Albert gave a sleighing party to the home of Ochmig Bird last evening. The party enjoyed a fine supper and a pleasant evening at Senator Bird's home.

Miss Gable, daughter of Dairyman Gable, accidentally swallowed a pin while sewing yesterday. The bit of steel lodged in her throat and caused great pain until removed by Dr. C. F. Nieschang.

Kokomo Dispatch: "Rev. Charles E. White, of Fort Wayne, is calling on friends in the city. He will be present at the dedication of the new M. E. church at Sharpsville Sunday, where he was formerly pastor."

Miss Nettie Rice was surprised at her home by the members of the Sons of Veterans and Ladies' auxiliary last evening, in honor of her birthday anniversary. The party was arranged by Messrs. C. F. and G. W. Zollinger.

Father Anthony council No. 500, C. B. L., entertained a large crowd of its friends last evening at a pedro party and oyster supper at St. Peter's school hall. In the playing the first prizes were won by Mrs. Michael Kinder and John Zern.

A party of Tipton gentlemen, composed of J. A. Lewis, A. F. Newlon, A. H. Pence, M. Bath, J. R. Coleman, G. W. Myerly, Fred Wasllor and Jacob Harris, were in the city yesterday in consultation with C. S. Knight with reference to an electric lighting plant in that city.

Peru Journal: "The Fort Wayne men who organized the Fort Wayne and Butler Railroad company and attempted to get aid from the citizens to be turned over to the Wabash when it would be ready to take the road, are not altogether discouraged, although their expenses so far have been over $5,000. They will consider other means to further their project, but it looks at this distance as if the men will have to see Peru reap the benefits of the folly of Fort Wayne citizens in refusing the subsidy at the bidding of the Pennsylvania railroad people."

RE-ADJUSTMENT SALE OF INEXPENSIVE JEWELRY.

Among all large quantities there will be some patterns not as desirable as others.

To make sales more brisk we have rearranged the assortment, cutting the price in some case 33 1-3 per cent.

W. H. Niblick, of Decatur, is in the city.

The Harrison street tunnel matter will come up this evening before the board of public works.

W. J. Lennart, of the firm of Lennart & Zorbaugh, goes to Goshen tomorrow to adjust a fire loss.

Mrs. Herman Michael has returned from Chicago, where she was called by the illness of Mrs. Herman Michael, jr.

Henry Huffman, of Reed street, entertained last evening in honor of his birthday. It was a stag party and very enjoyable.

Mrs. A. B. Stevens, of East Butler street, entertained the ladies of the New Century club at a valentine party this afternoon.

Miss Helen Casterline, of 14 Fairfield avenue, gave a valentine tea this afternoon, at which a number of her young friends were present.

Mrs. W. R. Brown, of Allegheny, Pa., is in the city for a brief visit with her mother, Mrs. Oppenhsmer, of 5 Monroe street. She will return Sunday evening.

C. S. Knight last evening piloted a party of gentlemen from Tipton about the city, showing them the advantages of the Fort Wayne system of electric lighting.

The delivery sleigh of Nick Klug, the Hanna street grocer, is a hopeless wreck on Clinton street, near Holman. The horse ran away and an interfering part of the curb did the rest.

Charles McCulloch attended a large sale of fancy cattle at Chicago yesterday. A number of the cattle raised on Mr. McCulloch's farm near this city sold for very handsome prices.

STARTED A CRUSADE.

Six or eight members of the Moochers' club, attired in bonnets and dresses and armed with hatchets, made a descent upon the down town saloons last evening. The raid was in imitation of those conducted by Mrs. Carrie Nation and her followers, though no plate glass was smashed, and it is safe to say the method of disposing of liquors was somewhat different from that employed by the Kansas temperance crusaders. The event attracted a great deal of attention, and was a clever advertisement for the forthcoming ball of the Moochers.

ONCE

High Grade Pianos Will be Sold at Actual Cost.

After invoicing I find that I will have to have more room for the large stock of Pianos and Organs which I have purchased and expect to arrive within the next thirty days, and in order to get the required floor space I will offer the following well known makes of Pianos at actual cost:

Two of the popular Vose & Sons.
One Kranich & Bach.
One Regent.
One Wellington.

These Pianos are as good as the day they came out of the factory, with the exception that they are slightly soup worn; not noticeably so.

All these instruments are of standard makes and no dealer in the country can show you a better line or offer them at less prices. Especially is this so of the Wellington, which at $148 is the greatest Piano bargain ever offered anywhere. Any one of these instruments can be bought on the easy monthly payment plan. If you are thinking of buying a Piano here is the opportunity of a life time, one you cannot afford to overlook.

We are headquarters for all kinds of musical instruments, from a mouth harp to the equipment for a brass band; also everything new in sheet music.

GET STRONG,

Mr. Polster, of This City, Tells How Vinol Helped Miss Bates to Regain Her Natural Strength—Another Victory Over Weakness of Nerves and Body.

"When I hear of so many men and women right here in our own state who are strong and ruddy and able to go cheerfully and steadily about their work, and when I realize that it was Vinol that helped them reach this satisfactory condition, I can't help thinking, just as they do, that it's about the best rebuilder of the human system I ever sold," says Mr. Polster, of Pellens & Polster, the druggists.

"I tell you there is lots of local testimony coming to me about Vinol from people who felt weak and tired and who took this grand tonic on my guarantee.

"Just listen to this letter from Miss Carrie Bates, of Richmond, this state. Here's evidence that Vinol bears out the claims we make for it:

"'Vinol is certainly all and more than it is represented. I cannot hesitate to recommend it, when I consider how it strengthened me. I was tired and run down when I began to take it. It has braced me up wonderfully and helped me to regain my strength.'"

Remember that we guarantee Vinol and refund the purchase money if you are not satisfied.

BROUGHT PATIENT HERE.

John Grinder, a farmer, who received a frightful stab in the neck during a recent altercation with some oil men at Montpelier, has been brought to the city and placed in Hope hospital. Grinder's jugular vein was penetrated by the knife and the surgeons have placed a number of artery clamps upon the vein to bind it together and prevent the flow of blood until the vein can heal.

LAMP EXPLODED.

Last evening while pumping a patent gasoline lamp, which works under high air pressure, in the Aveline house billiard room, an explosion occurred, blowing out the side of the lamp and completely drenching the man who was operating the air pump. The pump was lit at the time, but luckily the force of the explosion put out the light, else the man might have been severely burned and a conflagration might have ensued. As it happened fortunately no one was hurt and no damage except to the lamp was done.

Just think of it! Why you ought to get a NEW RANGE for this sum. We don't charge such fancy prices.

Here is the proposition that we want to submit to all you people:—Would you rather pay $69.00 TO A PEDDLER for a range when WE CAN GIVE YOU A BETTER ONE, and guarantee it, FOR 20 OR 25 DOLLARS LESS.

That is common-sense talk in a nut shell. When we sell you a stove we stand by our warrant and you can always find us at the old stand when you need us. We never misrepresent our goods, because we want your trade, not for this sale only, but in the future as well.
